

SUFFERED FROM CATARRH OF LUNGS
SO COMMON IN WINTER.
CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

A PLAIN TALK
On a Plain Subject in Plain Language.

The coming winter will cause at least one-half of the women to have catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia or consumption. Thousands of women will lose their lives and tens of thousands will acquire some chronic ailment from which they will never recover.

Unless you take the necessary precautions, the chances are that you (who read this) will be one of the unfortunate ones. Little or no risk need be run if Peruna is kept in the house and at the first appearance of any symptom of catarrh taken as directed on the bottle.

Peruna is a safeguard, a preventative, a specific, a cure for all cases of catarrh, acute and chronic, coughs, colds, consumption, etc.

Railroading in Japan.
Japan has 4236 miles of railway, of which 210 miles were constructed in 1903. The number of passengers carried on these railways in 1903 was 110,000,000, the freight transported was 16,122,671 metric tons and the cash receipts amounted to about $23,800,000.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.

Germ Day.
The State of Utah has established a holiday in honor of germs. It is called General Health Day and is the first Monday in October. On this day all theatres, churches, public halls, hotels, boarding houses, etc., must be thoroughly disinfected.

LASTING RELIEF.
J. W. Walls, Superintendent of Streets of Lebanon, Ky., says:

"My nightly rest was broken, owing to irregular action of the kidneys. I was suffering intensely from severe pains in the small of my back and through the kidneys and annoyed by painful passages of abnormal secretions. No amount of doctoring relieved this condition. I took Doan's Kidney Pills and experienced quick and lasting relief. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove a blessing to all sufferers from kidney disorders who will give them a fair trial."

Sapsmith—"Clever? Why, she has brains enough for two!"
"Marry her, old fellow! Marry her, as quick as you can!"—Smart Set.

Worst Part of It at Home.
Neighbor—"How long did you stay at the club yesterday, Jones?"
Jones—"Oh, the best part of the evening."

Mrs. Jones—"Why, John; you came home in half an hour!"
Jones—"Well?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"What your nationality, pard?" asked the Baxter street bunco-steerer.
"A bin a F.L.N.," replied the sailor man.
"Then you're my huckleberry," chirped the glib confidence man, as he took the jack tar into tow.—Houston Chronicle.

Too Much For Him.
Highwayman—"How much money have you got?"
Heldup—"I couldn't guess."
Highwayman—"You can't guess the amount?"
Heldup—"No."
Highwayman—"Then give it up!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Disillusioned.
"What sort of impression did the New York horse show make on you?"
"Why, it shocked me."
"What shocked you?"
"Coming face to face with those New York society women after seeing their lovely portraits in the New York papers."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Accomplished More.

Not Disposed to Criticize.
"Don't you think," asked Mrs. Oldcastle, "that our minister is becoming somewhat recalcitrant?"
"Oh, I don't know," replied her hostess. "Josiah thinks so, but it don't seem to me that he weighs a pound more than he ought to for a man as tall as him."—Chicago Record-Herald.

All O.P.
"What's the matter?" inquired Ascum. "What are you searching your pocket for?"
"I tied a knot in my handkerchief this morning," said the absentminded man, "to remind me of something I was to get for my wife. And now I can't find the handkerchief!"—Philadelphia Press.

Still in Service.
"Can't you do a little somethin' for an old soldier?" whined Tired Tiffins.
"Well, I don't know," replied the portly citizen. "If you can show your discharge papers I may be able to do something for you."
"I hain't been discharged yet, boss," replied the hobo. "It's a soldier of fortune I am."—Pittsburg Post.

How the News Spread.
Patience—"What do you think?"
Patrice—"I'm sure I don't know."
"Why, that Huggins girl was married nearly a year ago!"
"I never knew it!"

"How did you find it out?"
"Why, I saw an announcement of her divorce in the papers."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Simple Truth.
Kadley—"Yes, I would really like to know what your age is."
Miss Pepprey—"Well, why don't you ask me?"
Kadley—"Oh! You wouldn't tell me the truth."
Miss Pepprey—"Oh! yes, I would."
Kadley—"Well, what is it?"
Miss Pepprey—"None of your business."—Philadelphia Press.

A Well Deserved Tribute.

The awarding of the Grand Prize to the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., New Haven, Conn., at the St. Louis Exposition, confers upon this company the highest mark of distinction attained by any manufacturer of guns or ammunition in the world. Although a great number of medals were given, the only award of a Grand Prize was to the Winchester Repeating Arms Co.; given as it was in competition with the leading manufacturers of all countries, it testifies decidedly to the superiority of Winchester rifles, shotguns and ammunition. The success attained by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co. at this exposition is in line with past honors. At the Paris Exposition they received the Grand Prix, and wherever exhibited have always been given the highest possible prizes. This latest recognition of superiority is the natural result of thirty years of careful and successful endeavor in maintaining the high quality of Winchester rifles, shotguns and ammunition.

Value of Discontent.
The late J. W. Clarke of the New York World used to say that the secret of success in life was never to be quite satisfied with what you have, because contentment meant stagnation and failure to advance. "Never be satisfied," he would say, "always look for something better."

BABY'S TERRIBLE SORE
Body Raw With Humor—Caused Untold Agony—Doctor Did No Good—Mother Discouraged—Cuticura Cured at Once.

"My child was a very delicate baby. A terrible sore and humor broke out on his body, looking like raw flesh, and causing the child untold agony. My physician prescribed various remedies, none of which helped at all. I became discouraged and took the matter into my own hands, and tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment with almost immediate success. Before the second week had passed the soreness was gone, not leaving a trace of anything. Mrs. Jeannette H. Block, 281 Rosedale St., Rochester, N. Y."

The appointment of Robert Nathan, of the British Indian Civil Service, to be private secretary to Lord Curzon, Viceroy of India, is one of more than usual interest, as he is the first Hebrew to obtain such a position in that service. He is a brother of Sir Matthew Nathan, recently appointed Governor of Hong Kong.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haulle, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in the back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 30 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend your medicine."—Mrs. MAY HAULLE, Edgerton, Wis., Pres. Household Economics Club. $5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.
