

NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

Miss Martha Dyches is at home for the Christmas holidays from Anderson college.

Two Fort Mill citizens who are confined to their homes with influenza are E. S. Parks and S. A. Lee.

Mrs. P. B. Speed and her little son of Abbeville are guests in the home of Mrs. Speed's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Ott.

Charles B. Elliott, Esq., of Columbia was a guest one day last week at the home of his brother, Dr. J. B. Elliott, in Fort Mill.

Capt. and Mrs. E. W. Springs left Monday afternoon for Springfield, Mass., where they will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Miss Eulow Massey is spending the Christmas holidays at her home after attending school at Mitchell college, Stateville, N. C., during the fall term.

Due to the continuous rains of the last ten days and the consequent bad condition of the public roads of this section, the Christmas trade of Fort Mill merchants up to this morning had not been as brisk as they had expected.

Miss Florence Boyd of Montevallo, Ala., is expected to come to Fort Mill tomorrow afternoon to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Mamie Boyd, and her sisters, Mrs. S. L. Meacham, Mrs. J. E. Jones and Miss Julia Boyd.

Christmas day is not a holiday for the carriers on R. F. D. routes and the country patrons of the Fort Mill postoffice will therefore have their mail delivered to them as usual on next Monday. At the postoffice in Fort Mill, however, Sunday hours will be observed Christmas day.

Students of the Pineville high school this week issued the first number of a school paper which they have been planning for some time. "The Pine Burr" is the name selected for the paper, which is a creditable publication, in the opinion of a number of Fort Mill citizens who have seen it.

Forty or more pupils of the intermediate department of St. John's Methodist Sunday school will give a religious pageant, "Christmas Lights," at the church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pageant will represent events outlined in the Old Testament from the creation to New Testament times and many Biblical characters will be represented.

The Rev. J. A. White, who several years ago was pastor of St. John's Methodist church, Fort Mill, is a candidate for chaplain of the State house of representatives. Mr. White is now pastor of the Methodist church at College Place, Columbia suburb. The duties of the chaplain are to open each day with prayer the proceedings of the house. At the 1921-22 sessions of the General Assembly, the Rev. R. L. Keaton, pastor of St. John's, was chaplain of the house.

A Christmas entertainment for the Fort Mill Baptist Sunday school will be given in the church Monday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock, at which a special program, consisting of recitations and songs, will feature the entertainment. The Sunday school also will have a special program at its regular exercises next Sunday morning in celebration of the birth of Christ.

Power of Weekly Press.
Some people think the only influential newspapers in the country are the big city dailies. The Democratic National committee does not agree with these people, and in a statement following the recent election gives much of the credit for the party's success to the weekly press.

"It may well be doubted," says the committee's statement, "if any other form of publication is so thoroughly read and so well digested as the weekly newspapers, and certainly no other publications have more sincerely at heart the welfare of their respective communities. As a rule their characteristics are a rugged honesty, high courage, clear and plain speaking, and, with few exceptions, they accurately and fairly reflect public sentiment within the radius of their circulation. The future of America will always be secure as long as the country press remains true to its record and its traditions."

If you haven't bought enough German marks to last you through the winter, they are very cheap now.

When a politician says he is on the fence on the prohibition question, he means he is on the other side.

The new third party might attract more attention if it were not for the suspicion that its bank account is not very large.

Weak Back

Mrs. Mildred Pipkin, of R. F. D. 8, Columbia, Tenn., says: "My experience with Cardui has covered a number of years. Nineteen years ago... I got down with weak back. I was run-down and so weak and nervous I had to stay in bed. I read of and sent for it. I took only one bottle at that time, and it helped me; seemed to strengthen and build me right up. So that is how I first knew of Cardui. After that, . . . when I began to get weak and 'no account', I sent right for Cardui, and it never failed to help me."

CARDUI

If you are weak and suffering from womanly ailments, Cardui may be just what you need. Take Cardui. It has helped thousands, and ought to help you.

At all druggists' and dealers'.
