30TH. DIVISION TO FORM ASSOCIATION

FIRST MEETING WAS HELD AT LEMANS FORWARDING CAMP FEBRUARY 27TH, 1919.

PERPETUATE GALLANT DEEDS

Annual Conventions Will be Held in Three States of North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

Charleston.—The greatest name of the Thirtieth ("Old Hickory") division, composed of North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee, and the brave and noble deeds which have brought forth commendation from the highest military authorities, are to be incorporated in the records for generations. In order that the ties of comradeship and service, which have cemented its members together, may not fall asunder and disappear, a meeting composed of all general officers of the division, the chief of staff, chiefs of sections of the general staff, chiefs of services, and all regimental and independent unit commanders, who represented all organizations and all departments of the division, was held on February 27, 1919, at Le Mans, forwarding camp, France. At this meeting it was unanimously decided to form an association which would meet each year in one of the three states which this division had the proud distinction of representing in the great world war. Officers and enlisted men shall equally enjoy all privileges of the association without regard to rank or distinction. The association is organized to perpetuate the division in the future and for the pleasure of its members.

The association offers many advantages to its members. It will give the men opportunity to see their comrades at least once a year. It will have for the information of its members a complete detailed, authentic and official compilation of the history of the division and its operations on the western front in France and Belgium, and it will give every member an opportunity to locate the whereabouts of any other member.

Confiscates Curious Weapon.

Columbia—Officer Yon exhibited the latest creation in pocket guns during the trial of Henry Freeman, who was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. The officer testified that he arrested Freeman and found the weapon on his person.

The gun was a combination affair and a close examination was necessary to locate the shooting section of the article, which looked like a one bladed knife. The weapon carried a sharp pointed blade and the chamber carried a 22 calibre cartridge. The cartridge holder was about on inch long and fitted in one end of the weapon. It was raised by the finger nail and the hammer was cocked by pulling a short lever. The cartridge exploded when the lever was closed. The knife-gun was equipped with German silver handles and was about three-fourths of an inch wide by four inches long. The gun was loaded and the defendant had a box of cartridges.

Spring Ceremonial.

Spartanburg.—Much interest is being manifested among the members of the Spartanburg Shrine club and the people of the city in general in the semi-annual ceremonial of Omar Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., which will be held in this city on Wednesday, May 14. It is expected that several hundred nobles from every section of South Carolina will attend the May meeting here. Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of the Shriner.

Particular interest is being manifested by Spartanburg people in the contest to be waged by Spartanburg and Greenville in an endeavor to have Omar Temple divided. The matter was taken up last year at the ceremonial of Omar Temple by the Greenville Shriners, but did not reach the culmination stage, owing to the opposition of the local Shriners.

Four Stills Captured.

Williston.—W. F. Usery, state constable, and M. T. Wise, police officer, began a search for liquor stills and soon found two set up in the house of John Jones, negro, on Q. A. Kennedy's place. The next day they found two stills on the place of A. E. Quattlebaum. One was in full operation and the other ready with about 25 gallons of beer and a quantity of mash on hand. Two negroes, Robert Carter and Quince Hammond, were in charge and were arrested by the officers. All of the outfits were crude.

Employment Bureau Closed.

Spartanburg.—The local branch of the United States employment service was closed by Barney S. Hayes, local director, acting on instructions from John L. Davis, of Columbia, state director. This action was taken after city council rescinded its former appropriation of $200 for the support of the bureau until such time as an appropriation could be secured from Congress.

The action of the city fathers was taken because of the condition of the city's finance.

MARKET FOR BONDS SOON TO IMPROVE

GLASS HOLDS THAT THE LATE DEPRECIATION IN PRICE IS LARGELY ARTIFICIAL.

BRIGHT FUTURE IS ASSURED

Commerce and Industry Begin to Show Signs of Renewed Life Following Removal of Restraints.

Washington.—Confidence in the financial condition of the country and its ability to float the forthcoming Victory Liberty Loan was expressed by Secretary Glass in replying to the suggestion of Senator Calder of New York, that a special session of Congress should be called to stop depreciation in the market price of Liberty bonds.

Far from agreeing that the decline in outstanding bonds might jeopardize the popular campaign for flotation of the Victory issue this month, thereby tying up credits by forcing the banks to take the new bonds, Mr. Glass declared that he was assured the treasury's efforts to solve the financial problems of the country would have the support of a "united and victorious people." Depreciation in bonds, he said, has been the result of artificial causes and he knew of no one who did not believe that all Liberty bonds would sell above par before maturity.

"There is today no insufficiency of credit for the needs of any useful enterprise nor insufficiency of gold to support our credit structure," Secretary Glass declared.

Echoes of the political fight which occupied the closing hours of Congress were contained in the secretary's reply, which was in the form of a letter to the New York senator. He quoted from a speech by Senator Calder on the Victory Liberty Loan bill, in which the senator declared that he saw no reason "why we should not feel certain of the future." Mr. Glass said there had been no adverse developments since the bill was passed which would make necessary a special session, as Mr. Calder advocated.

"Already commerce and industry begin to show signs of the renewed life which must follow the removal of the restraints and interference which war made necessary."

MEAT PACKING INDUSTRY RELEASED FROM CONTROL

Washington.—The meat packing industry, which has been under federal license since October, 1917, was released from food administration control by a proclamation signed by President Wilson in Paris.

Under the proclamation "all persons, firms, corporations, or associations engaged in importing, manufacturing, including packing, storing or distributing fresh, canned, or cured beef, pork, mutton or lamb" are released from license by the food administration.

Stockyards, which were placed under license under another proclamation signed in September, 1918, and are administered by the agricultural department, but which only have to do with physical plants of the industry remain under the control of that department.

WARNING GIVEN BY JAPAN TO CHINESE GOVERNMENT

Peking.—The Japanese minister here has warned the Chinese government that if the premature disclosure of secret documents by China causes loss to Japanese financial and commercial interests, Japan will hold China responsible for such loss. As a result, the Chinese government has further postponed the contemplated publication of secret agreements by China and Japan.

Chinese delegates to the peace conference have been urging the publication of all the secret agreements between China and Japan.

GERMAN OFFICER IS COMING TO EXTEND CONGRATULATIONS

New York.—Division headquarters here of the 77th division, which will return soon from France, announced it had received information that Lieut. Heinrich Prinz, a German officer, whose troops opposed the famous "lost battalion," had expressed the hope he would "as soon as practicable" come to the United States to congratulate personally Col. Whittlesey, who commanded the "lost battalion."

SECRETARY DANIELS HAS LEFT PARIS FOR ITALY

Paris.—Josephus Daniels, the American naval secretary, left Paris for Italy, where he will visit the Italian fleet and naval bases.

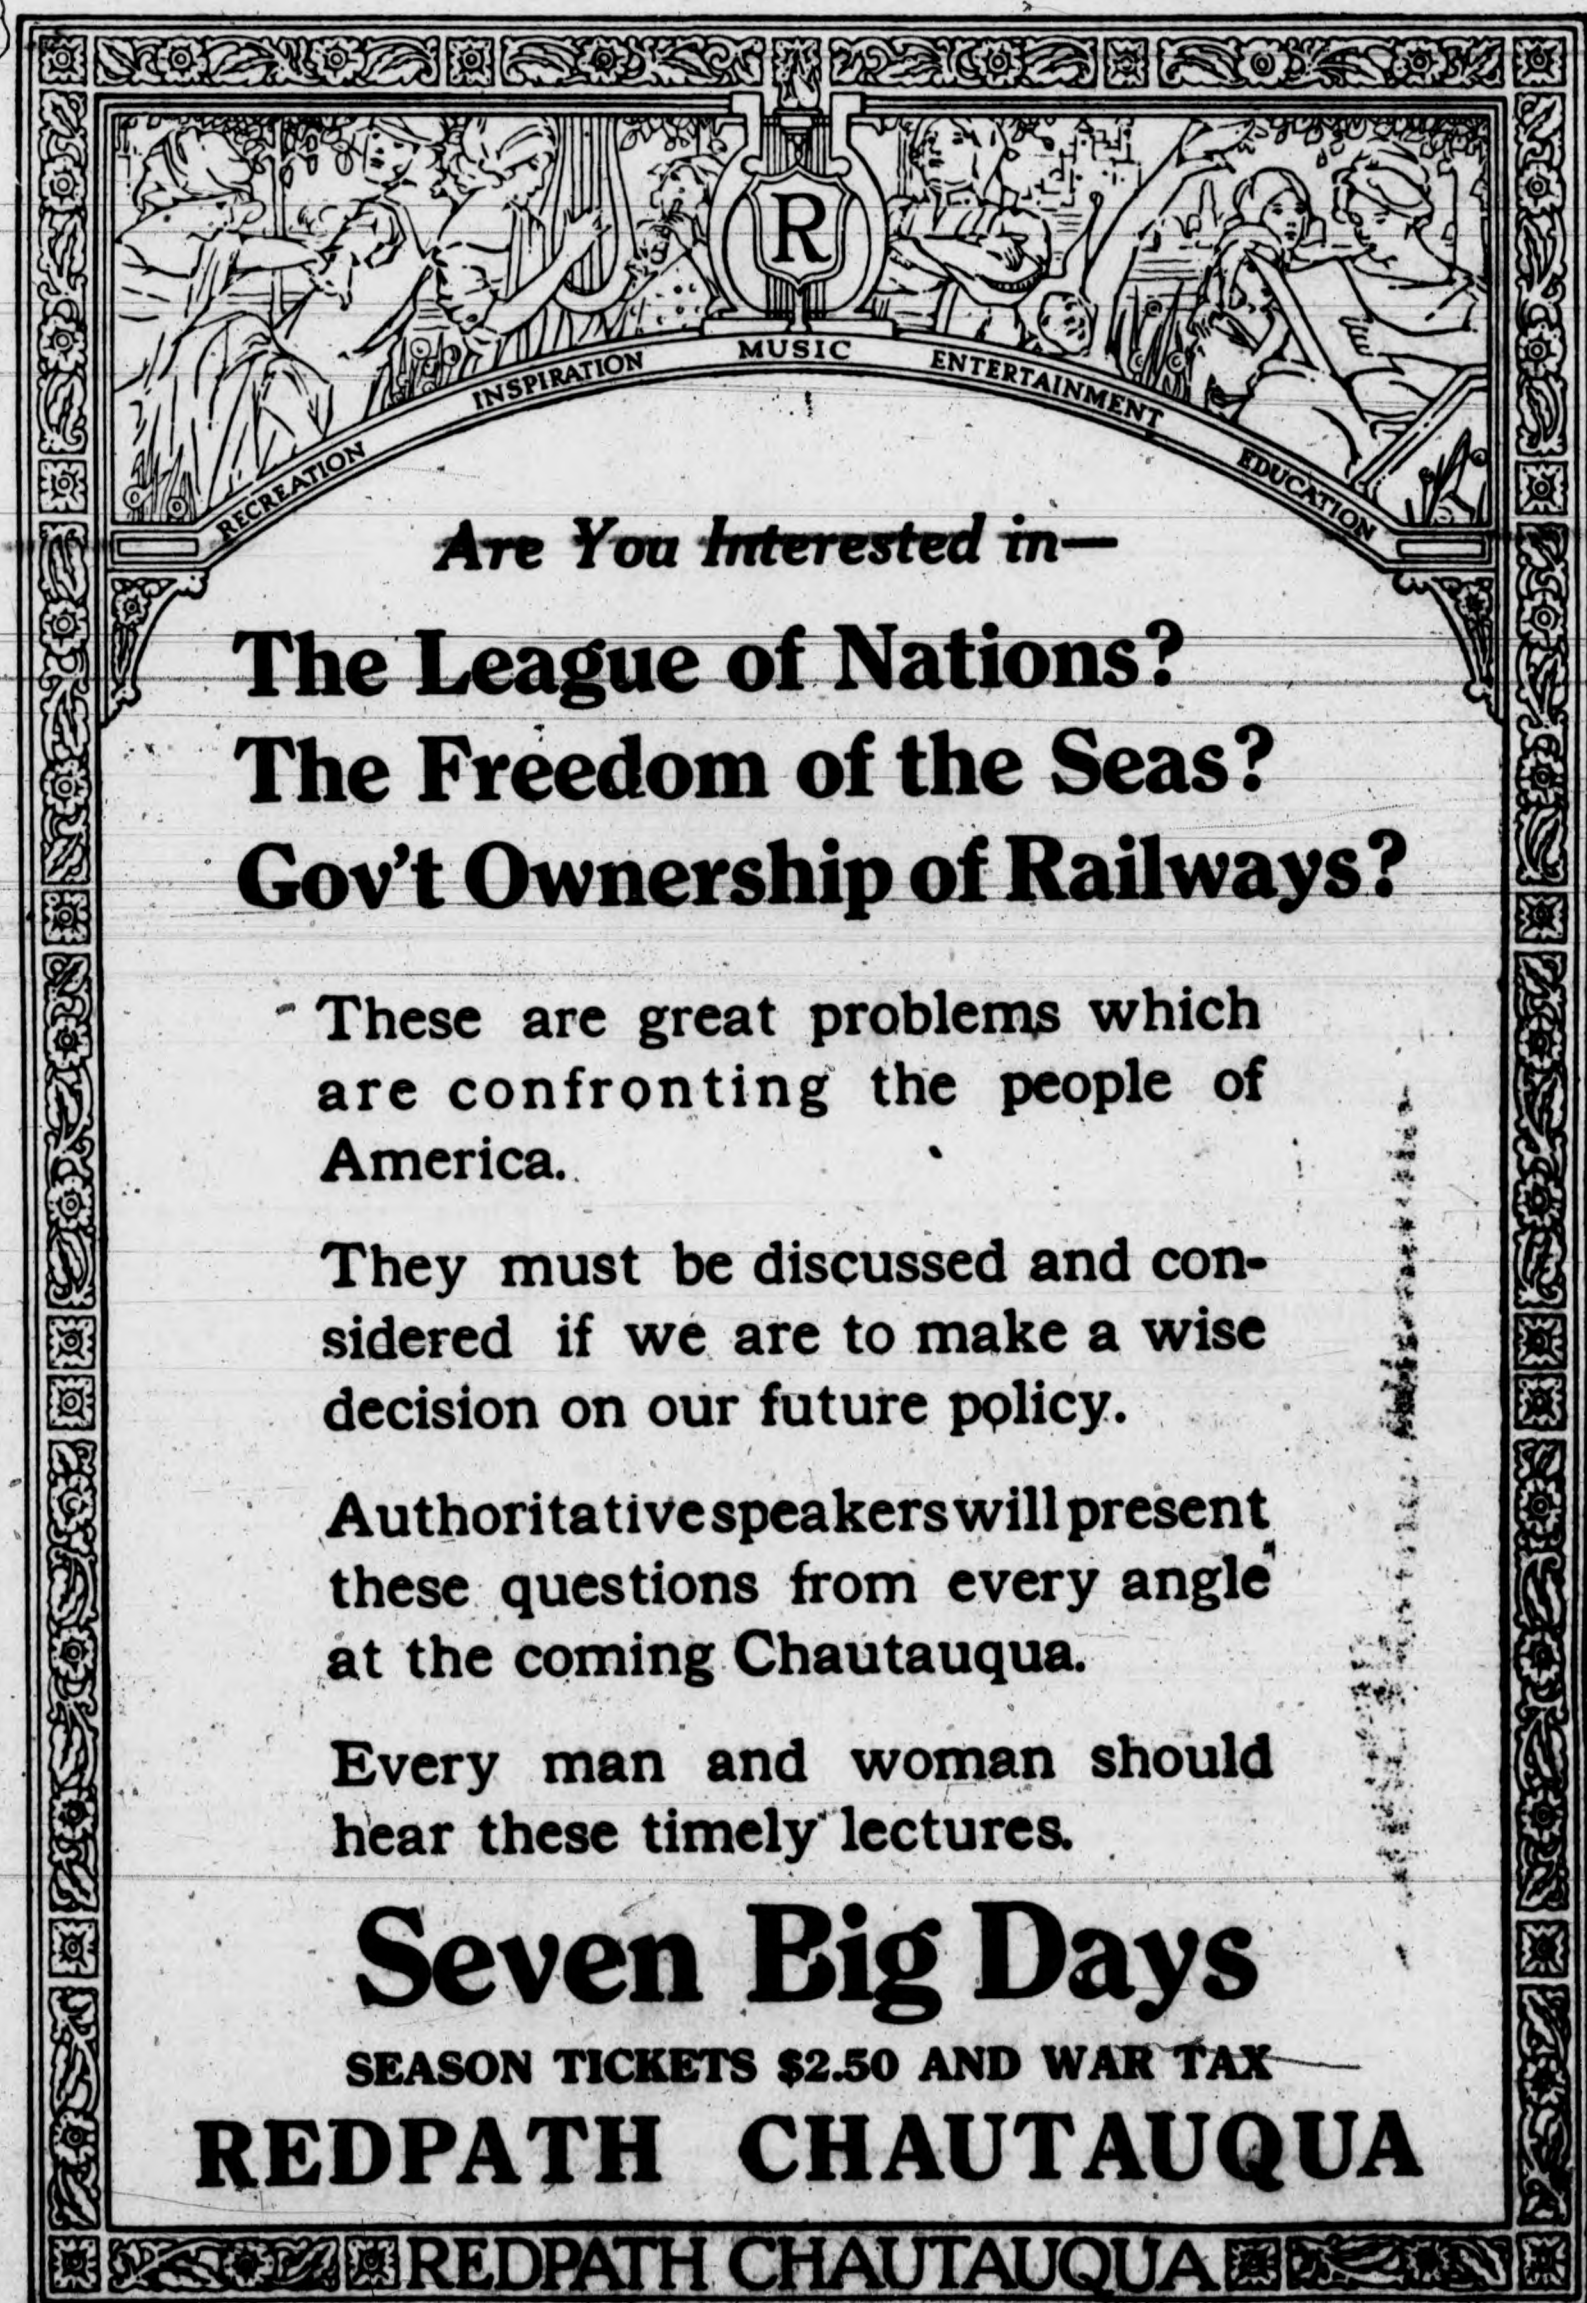

Prior to his departure Mr. Daniels expressed his pleasure of the admirable work of the American navy in taking over German ships and the expeditionary manner in which these vessels have been made available for the transportation of troops back to the United States.
