

NOT AS BIG AS BRITAIN'S BILL

Cost of War to America Not Nearly Equal to What English Ally Must Pay.

Twenty-one months of our war with Germany cost the United States $26,356,000,000, the treasury department calculates. Huge munitions and other contracts have been cancelled. Manufacturers are now presenting their bills and receiving payments for materials delivered months ago in the heat of the struggle.

Included in the enormous total of $26,356,000,000 is the sum of $7,875,000,000 loaned to the Allies. When we began lending to the Allies, the government contemplated turning over to them about $500,000,000 a month but actual loans ordinarily ran around $380,000,000 monthly.

Of the total war bill about $18,000,000,000 has been raised so far by the Liberty Loans. The fact that we have not covered our war debt is the reason for the Victory Liberty Loan. In other words we haven't paid for the job.

The cost of the war to Great Britain was $40,640,000,000. Germany is out $38,750,000,000 exclusive of indemnities the Allies may impose.

FOX TROTS ON LIBERTY LEGS

Limbs Blown Off by Shell, But This Man Continues to Trip Light, Fantastic Toe to Jazz Accompaniment.

Lillard Evans is a colored soldier boy who had both legs blown off in action. He lives for the present at Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio in San Francisco. He can and does dance fox trots and one steps. How? Why?

Of course to dance a fox trot or a one-step a fellow has to have legs—good legs. Well, Evans has them—not his own legs of flesh and bone, but his own willow legs with joints and everything. He is going to leave Letterman pretty soon and go back to work and make his living and probably get married and raise children. That's the how.

The why of it is—the government of the United States has gone in for leg and arm making. It is giving a specially built leg or arm or hand or a pair of legs or arms or hands to every soldier who lost his legs or arms in the war. At Letterman in particular they are making Liberty legs and arms and hands in their own workshop. They are making them because they have hit upon a better artificial limb than some manufacturers were turning out.

This is one phase of the reconstruction work that Uncle Sam is quietly carrying on. It is one of the least expensive, but it is costing hundreds of thousands of dollars. Remember that when Uncle Sam comes a-knocking at your door with the Victory Liberty Loan. Much of the money you will lend is going to regenerate these men who gave of their flesh and blood for their country.

LOST—One spotted male shant. Will weigh about fifty pounds. Reward to finder.

HOGS SHIPPED TO MARKET

First Carload Shipment of Hogs Made out of Laurens County Monday. Fine Showing of Pork.

For the first time in the history of Laurens a carload shipment of home-bred hogs was made from here Monday morning under the direction of County Farm Demonstrator D. M. Moore. The shipment had been arranged for several weeks before and early Monday morning wagons and trucks from all over the county commenced to arrive. Farmers from the extreme edges of the county were here with loads varying from two to ten hogs, the shipment being made to Richmond on consignment to Kingan & Company, who had handled several other shipments for county demonstrators in other sections of the state. The shipment was made in the name of the Enterprise National Bank, which institution will receive the check for the hogs and distribute the money out among those who were interested in the shipment.

According to the records kept by Mr. Moore, 76 hogs were shipped by 31 farmers, the total weight being 16,222 pounds. Of these twenty-two graded No. 1, thirty-six No. 2, and twenty-eight No. 3. As the first and second grades weighed much more than the third grade, the average grade of the shipment was rather high. Mr. Moore stated yesterday that he is already laying plans for other shipments in the fall, when he hoped to make carload shipments of single grades.

A large number of people were at the freight yards all day watching the weighing and loading of the hogs and a great deal of enthusiasm was aroused by the unusual sight of so many Laurens county porkers. Chief interest was centered in the two wagon loads of hogs brought here by Mr. W. H. Hatton, of Clinton. Mr. Hatton had nine large porkers, all from one litter and having a total weight of 3,444 pounds or over a fifth of the entire shipment. Mr. Hatton stated that he raised these hogs on home-grown corn in Jacks township. They were greatly admired by all who saw them.
