A very interesting meeting of "The Mothers' Club" was held with Mrs. A. V. Martin last Thursday afternoon. "Pictures" was the subject selected for study. A helpful paper, "The Use of Good Pictures in Training a Child" was read by Mrs. John T. Little.

The general discussion was based on: "The Most Famous Examples of Sacred and Modern American Art." Each member selected a picture from self culture suitable for a boy's or girl's room. Later in the afternoon the hostess served a delicious salad course and coffee. The members present were: Mesdames John Spratt, A. C. Daniel, R. E. Jones, W. A. Galloway, W. S. Denson, P. S. Bailey, N. P. Adair, and J. T. Little. Mrs. Arthur Copeland and Mrs. F. D. Jones were visitors. The May meeting will be with Mrs. W. A. Galloway and all members are urged to be present as the election of officers will be held.

Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., delightfully entertained the members of the Knitting Club and a number of friends last Friday morning. After a social hour the hostess, assisted by Miss Clara Duckett, served an elegant salad course and iced tea. The guests present for this unusually pleasant meeting were: Mrs. Thomas D. Jacobs, Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs, Mrs. DeRohan, Miss Clara Duckett, Mrs. Cyrus Bailey, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Sr., Mrs. M. J. McFadden, Mrs. J. W. Copeland, Mrs. John T. Young, Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Mrs. T. D. Copeland, Mrs. J. R. Copeland, Mrs. Pet Parrott Fouche.

Quite brilliant was the reception given Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dillard Jacobs by Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs and Miss Clara Duckett. Numerous baskets of yellow jonquils and potted plants were used in the parlor and music room. The guests were met at the screen door by Dr. J. R. Copeland, Cyrus Bailey and Jim Copeland. Receiving at the front door were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bailey, standing at the parlor door, introduced the guests to the receiving line composed of Miss Clara Duckett, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Rev. J. F. Jacobs, Mrs. Thomas Jacobs, Mr. Thomas Jacobs, Mr. J. W. Copeland, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Copeland, Mrs. Pet Parrott Fouche, and Dr. and Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs. Misses Mittie Young, Cassie Oliver, Frances Burgess and Mrs. Cyrus Bailey invited the guests into the library where music throughout the evening was furnished by Miss Frances Burgess, Mr. Irvin Coleman, Mrs. Pet Parrott Fouche and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs. Receiving in the hall were Miss Thelma Coffman, Mrs. J. R. Copeland and Mrs. Irvin Coleman. Later, Mrs. Julia Griffin, Mrs. L. B. Dillard, and Miss Lila Dillard invited the guests into the dining room. The dining room was a picture of rare loveliness in its decorations of yellow and white and a bevy of charming young lassies. Extending from the chandelier were tulle streamers caught in butterfly bows at the four corners of the table. The centerpiece was a wedding ring cake measuring in diameter about twenty inches. In the inner circle of this artfully iced cake was a bowl of the "Rose of Sharon". Among these dainty little yellow roses the fortunes of the evening were concealed. At the table Mrs. W. H. Shands and Mrs. M. J. McFadden presided, and little Ethel and Ellen Copeland brought to them the cream and cake. This was later served by Misses Maude Ellis, Mercer Vance Collette Griffin, Emily Phillips, and Thelma Coffman. Little J. B. and Lide Vance Copeland pinned the souvenirs and invited the guests to the side porch where punch was served by Misses Ethel Willis, Evie Shands, Lee Aycock and Jessie Dil-lard. Late in the evening much merriment was caused in the drawing of the hidden souvenirs and "Dame Fortune" smiled on the following: Mr. Cooper, the ring; Elizabeth Douglas, wish bone; B. Copeland, thimble; Mr. Barber, button. During the evening about two hundred guests called.

The Acteon Boob Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. James L. Wright on last Friday afternoon. After a social hour of Rook the hostess, assisted by Miss Sadie Wright, Mamie Lee Wright and Mamie Bell served a delicious salad course followed by chocolate Spanish cream and whipped cream. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Wright's hospitality were: Mrs. M. J. McFadden, Miss Peggy Dunlap, Mrs. R. Z. Wright, Miss Sallie Wright, Mrs. T. D. Copeland; Mrs. C. M. Bailey, Mrs. J. R. Copeland, Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Mrs. E. J. Adair, Mrs. Rob. Vance, Mrs. Homer Henry, Mrs. Frank Kellers, Mrs. B. F. Boyd and Mrs. Edward Long.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Lloyd McCrary and Mrs. W. B. Farr delightfully entertained the members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. After the regular business meeting delicious refreshments were served. The members present were: Mrs. R. D. Bryson, Miss Nina Martin, Miss J. M. Pitts, Mrs. A. E. Spencer, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Bluff Henry, Miss Agatha Davis, Mrs. Lloyd McCrary, Mrs. W. B. Farr, and Mrs. E. S. Giles.

At a recent meeting the following delegates and alternates were elected to represent this chapter at the State Federation: Mrs. E. S. F. Giles, president; Mrs. A. E. Spencer, Mrs. J. Will Dillard and Mrs. Jim Pitts, alternates.

On Friday Miss Cassie Oliver entertained at the Lesh Infirmary. An elegant three-course dinner was served and the following guests enjoyed Miss Oliver's kindness: Dr. and Mrs. Thornwell Jacobs, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Miss Clara Duckett, Gussie Maxwell, Winnie Walters, Robbie Grinnell, Lucile Goodwin, Eelen Coty and Irene Wright.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. Cyrus Bailey charmingly entertained at two tables of Bridge. After the playing of a number of games the hostess served delicious refreshments. Those who spent the pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were Major and Mrs. DeRohan, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young, Miss Jessie Dillard, Dr. S. C. Hays.

FULLER-BAILEY.

On Wednesday evening at seven o'clock Miss Blanche Fuller and Mr. Lummus Bailey were quietly married at the home of Miss Minnie Bailey, the Rev. Edward Long performing the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives and close friends. Miss Fuller is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fuller, of Mountville. Anna Bell Bailey and little Fannie Bailey served cream and cake to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bailey, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, Mrs. Edgar Owens, Rev. and Mrs. Edward Long, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bailey, Mr. Tom Bailey, and Mr. Ernest Hipp.

ADAIR-KAY.

On Wednesday the second of April Miss Lena Adair and Dr. James B. Kay, of Atlanta, were quietly united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. W. C. Tennant, a sister of the groom. Only a few friends were present. Miss Lena Adair is a daughter of Mrs. Minnie Adair and this marriage will be of interest to many friends in Clinton. Miss Adair is a graduate of Grady's Hospital, and is a young lady of charming personality. Dr. Kay is quite a promising physician and is associated with Grady Hospital.

One of the happiest events of the past week was the reunion of all the aunts, uncles and first cousins of Mr. John W. Little. Mr. Tom Little and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hipp invited thirty-five relatives to spend the day with them and help celebrate the home coming of their soldier. An elegant three-course turkey dinner was served by Mrs. H. D. Rantin, Mrs. Henry Young, and Miss Janie Holland. For the little tots a picnic had been planned, and they soon hustled to a nearby body of woods. The following guests were present on this memorable occasion: Mr. and Mrs. Will Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blalock, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Rantin, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Adair, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McCrary, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Young, Dr. B. H. Henry, Alex. Will, Fayette and Elizabeth Henry, Essie, Ruth, Louise and Martha Davidson, Joe and B. Davidson.

Thoroughly enjoyable was the wedding reception given on Saturday evening by Mrs. Minnie Adair in honor of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Kay. Mrs. Caldwell Ware of Renno met the guests at the front door and introduced them to the guests of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Parks Adair received at the dining room door. Emmie Pitts, Sarah Adair and Jimmy Atkins served in the dining room where covers were laid for thirty-five guests. The refreshments consisted of a delightful salad course, ice cream and cake. Those invited to meet Dr. and Mrs. Kay were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. John Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Adair, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Parks Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Rhett Adair, Mr. and Mrs. George Odione, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Donnan, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William King, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pitts, Dr. S. C. Hays, Dr. J. W. Davis, Mr. Joe Adair, Mr. Robbin Copeland, Miss Mamie Copeland, Mr. Posie Copeland, Christopher Adair, Louise Pitts.

An attractive Easter party of Friday afternoon was that of Miss Sybil Burdette's, when she entertained at G. G. Club. After several games of Rummy, the guests entered a magazine contest, in which Miss Rowena Jones won the prize. Refreshments were served to the following members: Misses Marie Cozby, Bee Copeland, Nan Copeland (Rowena Jones and Mary Henry).

An event that is looked forward to every year by the town people as well as the college boys is a glee club entertainment. This year the audience had the pleasure of hearing the glee club from Greenville Woman's College. The club was composed of twelve members under the direction of Mr. Oscar Miller. The program was attractive and well rendered. Miss Lusby gave a number of violin selections and Misses Starbuck and Todd several solos. Mrs. Miller was the pianist.

The "Friendly Dozen" was entertained by Mrs. George M. Wright on Tuesday afternoon. After an hour spent pleasantly in conversation a tempting menu consisting of a salad course with cocoa followed by ice cream and cake was served.
