

SOCIETY.

Miss Edna Clayton was the gracious hostess to the members of the Kill-Kare Klub on Saturday evening. Easter decorations were used and the table was quite attractive with its bright colored Easter eggs and baby chicks. Those present on this enjoyable occasion were: Misses Leila Edwards, Connie Martin, Mary Bean, Carolina Caldwell, Emma Hipp, Marjorie Spencer, Peggy Dunlap, Bell Free, Mrs. George A. Copeland.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Kenneth Burdette entertained the Knitting club. After a social hour the hostess served a salad course. Those who enjoyed with Mrs. Burdette quite a pleasant afternoon were: Mrs. D. C. Heustiss, Mrs. Coffman, Miss Jessie Dillard, Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Mrs. Hubert Pitts, and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson entertained at a course luncheon in honor of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Kay. Cut flowers and potted plants were used as decorations, and the following guests were present: Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Rhett Adair, Mrs. Minnie Adair, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Parks Adair, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Adair, Sr.

Quite elaborate was the dinner given by Miss Nancy Owens on Thursday. Miss Owens invited a number of friends and returned soldiers to spend the evening with her.

Throughout the house numerous bowls of bridal wreath were used and the table was quite appropriate with patriotic decorations. The guests found their places by appropriate verses that whispered to them a tale of the future. During the evening a five course dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. William King, Misses Ethel Willis, Connie Martin, Evie Shands, Dorcas Mason, Mrs. Joel Smith, Messrs. Bernie Parrott, Al Brice, George Little, John Little and Christopher Adair.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. John T. Young entertained at two tables of Bridge. After a number of interesting games the hostess served delicious cream and cake. Those indebted to Mrs. Young for an afternoon of unusual pleasure are: Mr. C. M. Bailey, Mrs. Cyrus Bailey, Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Mrs. Frank Kellers, Mrs. J. W. Copeland, Miss Jessie Dillard, Mrs. DeRohan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Henry entertained in a charming manner in honor of Mr. John W. Little and complimentary to the Clinton members of the Thirtieth Division. The house was beautifully decorated in bridal wreath and wysteria. The guests were met at the front door by Mrs. G. R. Davidson and Mrs. H. M. Young, and introduced to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Henry, John W. Little, T. H. Little, Mrs. M. B. Hipp, Mrs. L. D. McCrary, William King, Rodney Bell, Bernie Parrott, Pierce Ferguson and Joe Cordova.

Mrs. John W. Finney and Mrs. W. H. Davidson invited the guests to the dining room. The table was beautifully decorated and here Mrs. W. M. McMillan and Mrs. John H. Copeland presided. The delightful cream and cake were served by Grace Young, Florence Rantin, Ida Jacks, Mattie Ell Copeland and Jimmie Noland Sparks. The guests were later invited to the punch room by Mrs. F. R. Owens, where Mrs. W. A. Galloway and Mrs. J. W. Leaman served. The souvenirs of the evening were hickory twigs tied with the national colors, and these were pinned on by Miss Janie Holland. This was the first opportunity that the returned soldiers had of seeing so many of their friends and the entire evening was one of great pleasure.

Quite an enjoyable moon-light picnic was held last Wednesday evening at Riverside cottage. About four cars of young people motored to Enoree river and spread their delightfully prepared lunch in true picnic fashion. Those enjoying the evening were: Misses Cassie Oliver, Mae Lowe, Ada Taylor, Mary Rembert, Mae Boyd, Irene Wilburn, Alma Collins, Laura Lynch, Messrs. Gary Dillard, Len Rounds, Claude Workman, Carlton Winn, John Little and Hugh Simpson.

Miss Thelma Coffman delightfully entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dillard Jacobs. The house had been beautifully decorated in dog-wood, red bud, and wild roses. Pink candles were also used in profusion. The guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Coffman. They were then ushered into the living room by Misses Leila and Jessie Dillard where Miss Coffman and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs were receiving. After a delightful social hour, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs invited the guests to the dining room. Here the color scheme of pink and white prevailed. The table was beautiful with a handsome eluny luncheon cloth over a cover of pink, and a silver basket filled with gorgeous pink carnations as a centerpiece. From the ceiling had been suspended a huge carnation and from this streamers of pink and white tulle were drawn and caught at the four corners by bouquets of wild roses. Miniature baskets of pink and white filled with sweet alyssum were used around the table alternating with pink candles. At the table Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Sr., and Mrs. J. W. Copeland, Jr., presided and the cream and cake were brought to them by Jimmie and J. B. Copeland. Later Miss Clara Duckett, Mrs. D. C. Heustiss, Mr. John H. Hunter and Marion Carrigan served the guests. Miss Annie B. Adair pinned the favors of tiny white shoes tied with pink tulle.

Music was furnished by Miss Sibyl Burdette, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., and Mrs. D. C. Heustiss. Dancing was also a feature of the happy occasion and throughout the evening punch, was served by Misses Nancy Owens and Jessie Dillard, Christopher Adair and John Neville. During the evening about seventy-five guests called.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs entertained a number of friends at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs.

The table, with its cover of eluny and centerpiece of jonquils and Iris, was quite attractive. During the evening a five course dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. John Young, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Bailey, Miss Mittie Young, Miss Jessie Dillard, Mr. Al Brice, Dr. S. C. Hays.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Workman in her gracious manner entertained a few friends. After an hour spent pleasantly in conversation the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. E. Staunton served a salad course with iced tea, followed by cream and cake to the following guests: Mesdames John Robertson, W. C. Bell, J. A. Bailey, R. Z. Wright, J. F. Jacobs, Sr., J. W. Copeland, Sr., Edward Long, A. H. Copeland, W. G. Neville, George Wright, Edgar Owens and Myrtle A. Hunter.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. George M. Wright entertained quite a number of friends at a rook party. Mrs. Wright was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Spratt and Mrs. Arthur Copeland. After a number of interesting games block cream and devil's food cake were served. A refreshing fruit punch was served and Mrs. John Spratt presided at the bowl. The following guests are indebted to Mrs. Wright for a very pleasant afternoon: Mesdames Downes Bell, George Ellis, Will Dillard, Larry Dillard, M. J. McFadden, A. C. Daniel, J. R. Copeland, T. D. Copeland, Homer Henry, John Little, Butler Boyd, J. W. Copeland, Jr., C. M. Bailey, Will Leake, C. C. Bailey, E. J. Adair, E. W. Ferguson, Robt. Vance, Julia Griffin, J. W. Crawford, Lee Young, Lloyd McCrary, Irvin Coleman, B. Graham, Frank Boland, H. A. Copeland, John Spratt, Jack Young, J. I. Copeland, Robert Jones, Will Mason, G. A. Copeland, W. H. Workman, W. G. Neville and George Bailey.

On Wednesday Willie Rudd had a few friends to spend the day with him and help celebrate his seventh birthday. After dinner Mrs. Wallace took them for a tramp through the woods. Those enjoying the day were: Janette Crawford, Willie Rudd Fuller, Roy Simpson, John William Dillard, Willie Rudd.

Mrs. W. H. Workman invited a number of friends to spend Thursday morning with her. The morning was one of unusual pleasure and the time passed only too quickly. Mrs. Workman assisted by Mrs. E. E. Staunton, served to her guests a grapefruit course, followed by a salad course with Russian tea, and this followed by cream and pound cake. The following were present: Mrs. J. I. Copeland, B. H. Boyd, R. J. Copeland, Jr., L. D. McCrary, T. D. Copeland, J. R. Copeland, Jack Davis, Emma Adams, Clara Duckett, E. J. Adair and E. E. Staunton.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Bailey entertained a few friends at dinner. Bowls of tulips were used as decorations and a delightful course dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hatton, Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Mr. W. W. Harris, Mrs. W. J. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Henry entertained a number of their friends in a delightful manner. A bountiful turkey dinner, followed by a salad course was laid for twenty-four guests and those who are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Henry for this pleasant spend-the-day party are: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McCrary, Mr. and Mrs. Irby Hipp, Mr. and Mrs. Ross D. Young, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blalock, H. D. Rantin, M. B. Hipp, W. Davidson, Mr. T. H. Little, Ed. Little, John Little Alec, Will and Fayette Henry, Elizabeth Henry, Dr. and Mrs. John Henry.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Young entertained in honor of Mr. G. W. Fulteron, who has recently returned from France.

After the playing of a number of games the guests were invited to the dining room where a delightful three-course dinner was served. Those who enjoyed this pleasant evening were: Misses Annie B. Adair, Anna Barton, Ruth Wiggs, Frances Taylor, Nannell Blalock, Annie and Janie Holland, Messrs. John Little, Christopher Adair, T. O. McKeown and Alec Henry.

BACK FROM FRANCE.
Mr. J. B. Frontis, who has been in France for several months past has returned to the city during the past few days and will this week re-open his jewelry business at his former location. His friends in the city are glad to see him back and will learn with interest that he is soon to be doing business at the same stand.

Car load Bedroom Suits just received, splendid values in oak and mahogany.
S. M. & E. H. WILKES & CO.

EASTER

...Easter...
Footwear

Once more Easter comes with its pleasures of new dress and footwear. Once more it is our delight to be the center of attraction—our shoes are the magnet, the best-dressed trade is ours.

Dorothy Dodd
SHOES

Women who wear our shoes celebrate Easter with satisfaction because Dorothy Dodd shoes enrich and complete their dresses. Make your selection.

M. S. Bailey & Sons
"The Big Store With the Big Values"

Dorothy Dodd
SHOES

We can fix that trouble with your Automobile we believe. Try Us.

See our line of Hupp's, Anderson's and Dodge's. They are here.

Ellis-Hatton Motor Co.

DISTRIBUTORS

Clinton,

South Carolina