BOMB SENT NORTH CAROLINA SENATOR

SENATOR OVERMAN IS RUDELY
INTERRUPTED IN MIDST OF INTERESTING OCCASION.

BOMB BLOWN UP BY DYNAMITE

Failure to Send Package to the House
Doubtless Prevented Catastrophe to Family and Wedding Guests.

Salisbury.—Senator Lee S. Overman witnessed the destruction of a deadly bomb that had been sent him through the mails from New York and which has been held up in the Salisbury postoffice until Inspector H. T. Gregory arrived and officiated at the blowing up of the bomb.

For several days, Senator Overman's two daughters, who were married, have been receiving so many presents through the mails that several deliveries were made at the Overman home each day. The local office planned to make the last delivery of presents after the early night trains had run, but most fortunately not enough packages arrived on the trains to justify a special trip. So the deadly bomb lay in the office. In the morning a survey of the parcels ready to be sent to the senator's home disclosed a small box that answered in every particular the description of the "Gimbel" bombs, intercepted in New York. It was withdrawn from the mails carefully and immediately became the center of interest for the entire city.

Senator Overman, Postmaster Boyden, Assistant Rantz and several others accompanied Inspector Gregory to the edge of town where the bomb was buried and 10 dynamite caps exploded under it tearing one side away and disclosing the interior.

Senator Overman had no warning to look out for the infernal machine. He had been busy with the happy event of the evening and was not informed of the wholesale despatch of the instruments of death from New York. Had the bomb been sent to the Overman home it would have arrived when the house was full of townspeople and visitors attending the wedding reception and would doubtless have been opened along with the wedding presents.

MAYOR OLE HANSON WANTS GOVERNMENT TO ACT QUICKLY

Topeka, Kan.—In a Victory loan address before the Topeka chamber of commerce, Mayor Ole Hanson, of Seattle, denounced the policy pursued by the government towards anarchism and the I. W. W. as "a skim milk, weak, vacillating and changeable" one, and pronounced a warning of a "widespread, national effort to overthrow the government and society by violence."

Revealing great emotion in his subject, he added, "If the government doesn't clean them up, I will. I'll give up my mayorship and start through the country. We will hold meetings and have hanging places." He declared he believed the I. W. W. was at the bottom of the late bomb plot.

"The conspiracy to overthrow the government is widespread. It permeates every state in the union. The I. W. W. have followers everywhere." Concerning the pending I. W. W. convention, Mayor Hanson said:

"Any mayor that will permit an I. W. W. meeting in his city should be recalled and banished from America."

OPENING PRELIMINARIES TO VERSAILLES CONFERENCE

The peace congress at Versailles has formally begun its sessions. The eventful day which the world had awaited since the signing of the armistice on November 11 last year has at last arrived.

The German peace delegates have met the representatives of the allied and associated powers and across the green baize table have carried out the first preliminary which probably will mean a return to actual peace in the not far distant future.

GOVERNMENT FORCES ARE CLOSING AROUND MUNICH

Berne.—Reports received from Bavaria says the government forces are steadily closing around Munich.

When Wurttemberg troops occupied Starnburg the civil population was in an angry mood against the communists and acts of violence were committed upon them. The populace attacked prisoners in the hands of the government troops and thirteen of the communist leaders were shot.

BANDIT BACKED DOWN BY BANK CASHIER'S NERVE

Arvonia, Pa.—When Cashier Arthur Panton turned to inquire as to the wants of a customer, who had come into the state bank just before closing time, he looked down the barrel of a pistol. A demand that he surrender Victory bonds was followed with another demand for cash. Panton refused to heed the demand and told the stranger to shoot. The unknown hold-up man wavered and backed out of the door.

IMPROBABLE THAT ITALY WILL SIGN

ONLY ONE OF OTHER DISTURBING
COMPLICATIONS PRESENTED BY STRAINED SITUATION.

PREFERS TROUBLE WITHOUT

Ambassador Page Takes Steps to Have Suppressed Certain Public Manifestations Against Wilson.

Paris.—Ambassador Page telegraphed from Rome that he had gathered from Premier Orlando in a long conference that the premier did not intend to return to Paris for the signing of the peace treaty. The premier expressed regret that the time was so short before the arrival of the Germans.

This was only one of the disturbing complications presented by the Italian situation as the time approaches for the delivery of the peace treaty to the Germans.

The Italian premier, the telegram from Ambassador Page added, felt that his action either way would have serious consequences, but it was preferable to have trouble from without Italy rather than from within Italy.

Ambassador Page said he had taken steps to have the Italian authorities suppress manifestations directed against President Wilson. As a result, one of the principal demonstrations in Rome was given up.

Should Premier Orlando not return for the signing of the treaty, it would give the situation a more serious aspect than the departure of the Italian delegation, as the allies would be required to take final action without the participation of Italy. While there is every desire to avoid this result, the indications are that the allies will proceed with the signing if Italy decides to withhold participation.

DICKMAN WILL SUPPRESS ALL HUN MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS

Coblentz.—There will be no May Day celebrations in the way of demonstrations or mass meetings by Germans throughout the area occupied by the Americans. General Dickman has issued an order to that effect and we shall be saved the public exhibition of a particularly fine piece of German propaganda. The Americans were not unwilling at first to allow a demonstration, but when they discovered the inscriptions on banners to be carried in the proposed procession, they promptly decided May Day should pass without manifestations.

"We want just peace. We insist on President Wilson's 14 points." These and similar demands were to be waved as of benefit not only to the Germans, but particularly to the Americans. It is said a banner which insisted the Haar valley should remain German earned intervention by the American army command.

That all this was inspired by the authorities in Berlin there is not the slightest doubt.

INFERNAL MACHINE SENT TO EX-UNITED STATES SENATOR

Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Maude P. Hardwick, wife of former United States Senator Thomas W. Hardwick, was painfully injured and her negro maid suffered the loss of both hands in the explosion here of an infernal machine sent through the mails to the home of the former Georgia senator. He was at his law office at the time.

The package, bearing the typewritten address "Senator Thomas W. Hardwick, Sandersville, Ga.," was marked "Sample" and had a wrapper bearing a return address of "Gimbel Brothers, 32nd and Broadway, New York." This caused Mrs. Hardwick to think it was some merchandise.

Attention was called to the fact that an infernal machine received through the mails at the office of Mayor Ole Hanson, in Seattle, Washington, also came from New York and bore the return address of "Novelty Department, Gimbel Bros., New York city."

SECRETARY DANIELS IS THE GUEST OF EDINBURGH

Edinburgh.—Josephus Daniels, secretary of the United States navy, was the guest of the corporation and was shown over various places of historic interest, including the castle.

Secretary Daniels visited the famous monument to Lincoln. The secretary and the members of his party uncovered while the soldiers and sailors stood at attention. Later the university medical schools were inspected.

STEEL CORPORATION PASSES AN "EXTRA" STOCK DIVIDEND

New York.—Directors of the United States Steel Corporation fulfilled popular, or conservative, expectations, at their quarterly meeting by passing the "extra" one per cent dividend on common stock. In the statement of earnings for the first quarter of 1919 which accompanied the dividend announcement no appropriation was made out of total earnings for federal income and war excess profits taxes.

Dear Amy:...

My life was a burden to me a long time. Baby John just cried and cried. I didn't know what was the matter. He was also looking pale and his food didn't agree with him. I didn't know it, but he needed air and sunshine. So I went and bought him a new go-cart. Now he smiles and is fat and rosy. You just must come and see him.

Always your pal,
Lou.

P. S.—What a beautiful line of go-carts and baby carriages, and furniture of all kinds you can get from
