

SATURDAY IS THE BIG JUBILEE DAY

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR BIG JUBILEE DAY

Program of Interest to be Carried Out—Speaker of the Day, Dr. D. W. Daniel—34-Piece Brass Band. Big Parade by Soldiers and Sailors.

Plans for Clinton's Big Jubilee Day of June 7th are being successfully whipped into shape and everything points to a record-breaking crowd.

The celebration this year will be unusually attractive and the program as prepared will doubtless attract hundreds of visitors from every nook and corner of this part of the State. The speaker of the day will be Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College, one of the ablest men of this state. The committee feels fortunate in that they have secured Dr. Daniel for this occasion.

In addition to this fine address there will be a big parade by all the returned soldiers and sailors, floats, music by a military band from Camp Jackson, a big baseball game between Union and Clinton and many other interesting features.

The following details of the big parade should be read carefully in order that all may know exactly what to do and where to take their places so that there will be no confusion or accidents.

The formation of the parade is as follows:

- 1st. Squad of mounted police, under command of Chief D. W. Mason.
- 2nd. Chief marshal.
- 3rd. Band, under command of Lieut. Jas. H. C. Hill.
- 4th. Boy Scouts.
- 5th. Our soldiers and sailors, under command of Lieut. W. H. Simpson.
- 6th. Thornwell Orphanage.
- 7th. Business floats.
- 8th. Agricultural floats.
- 9th. Decorated private cars.
- 10th. Public cars.

The parade is to move promptly at 10:30 o'clock, starting at the Methodist church on Broadway. The business floats will form in line on east side of North Broad Street, with the right of the column resting on Ferguson St. The agricultural floats will form on Ferguson street on the west side of Musgrove street, with the right of the column resting on Broad street. The private cars will form on the east side of Musgrove street. All soldiers and sailors will please report in front of Bailey's Bank to Lieut. W. H. Simpson at 10 A. M., who will form column and march to their respective place in line. The Boy Scouts will fall in on the west side of Broad street with the right of their column resting on Ferguson street. The Confederate veterans, who will act as guard of honor, are requested to report at the reviewing stand, which is being erected on South Broadway, opposite the old college building, located in the orphanage grounds. After the parade passes the reviewing stand, the veterans will report to Mr. J. H. Stone, who will have cars to convey them to the speakers stand, and afterward to Copeland's Hall for dinner.

The line of march will move promptly at 10:30 A. M., in the following order: first, mounted police, followed by the band, headed by the chief marshal of the day.

Following them will be the Boy Scouts leading our world war veterans, they marching south on Broadway to the college plaza. Upon the arrival of the line in front of the college administration building the soldiers and sailors will break to the right and the floats to the left, the floats encircling the college ball grounds, after which they will come to a halt and remain in their positions until disbanded by the judges, this for the reason that the judges will wish to examine the floats carefully before awarding the three prizes that are to be given. The committee requests that no float leave the line until after they have been instructed by the judges.

When the column of floats reaches the First National Bank on Broadway they will mark time at this point until the Orphanage, on foot, takes their place in line following the soldiers and sailors.

The agricultural floats, whose head will rest on Ferguson street and Broadway, will fall in immediately behind the business floats.

The decorated private cars will hold their position on Ferguson and Musgrove streets until after the agricultural floats have passed the corner of Ferguson and Musgrove streets when they will immediately fall in behind the agricultural floats.

The Orphanage will please report on the public square at 9:30 and remain in line during the band concert for one hour and be prepared to take their place in line immediately after the soldiers and sailors pass through the square.

We have been assured by the city officials that our streets will be in good condition on the seventh, thereby enabling all of that part of the parade on foot to use the streets instead of the sidewalks, thereby making the parade more impressive.

The participants in the parade are earnestly requested at all times to keep their cars and teams under perfect control and at no time approach the vehicle in front closer than 50 feet. The judges, who have kindly consented to act, will please report to Major F. J. DeRohan at the reviewing stand, not later than 10 o'clock.

The committee on the parade requests that each and every one will be on time so that the parade can start promptly at 10:30. It is earnestly requested that all of the marshalls report promptly at 9:30 in front of the Ellis-Hatton Motor Company's garage for full instructions. The public is requested to keep all vehicles off of the streets on which the parade is to be held from 10 o'clock until 11:30. This is absolutely necessary to prevent accidents, also that all pedestrians use the side-walks only, except those in the parade.

On the reviewing stand will be the speaker of the day, the Master of Ceremonies, Dr. D. W. Daniels and Major F. J. DeRohan, who will review the troops, also the judges of the floats. The marshalls of the day will be Geo. A. Copeland, chief marshal, Geo. M.

A. MITCHELL PALMER TELLS OF SPY WORK OF GERMANS

Florida Lumber Company Was a Hot Bed of Sedition, He Says.

Chicago, Ill., May 29.—Americans temporarily resident in enemy territory during the war will have little difficulty in having their property returned to them under the new conditions following the signing of the armistice," Attorney General Palmer told the Illinois Bar Association, discussing the work of the alien property custodian's office.

"When the enemy character of persons rests solely upon their residence it will be seen that by change of residence into non-enemy territory, they lose their enemy character. The attorney general has adopted a liberal interpretation of the act, which permits such persons when they lose their enemy character to be treated as if they had always been non-enemy persons and to have their property returned upon a proper showing of loyalty."

American citizens who lost their property in Germany will be allowed, in the opinion of the Attorney General, to present claims to the United States government, which will see that they are reimbursed from German holdings here. He said that it would be much better than turning property back to Germans, for he foresaw that the Germans would not be welcome as business men upon American soil within the next decade at least.

Much new light on the work of running to earth enemy interests in the United States was given by the Attorney General, who was alien property custodian before he entered the cabinet.

"Down in Florida, the great German-American lumber company, owned by a Prince of Germany, had accumulated nearly 200,000 acres of timber land around St. Andrews Bay," said Mr. Palmer. "This German Prince had put millions of dollars into it. He had never gone near to it, he had never received any interest or dividends out of it; he had selected the German consul at Pensacola as the manager of the company, and when he came to investigate he found that his company had bitterly resisted a line across his property or across the property of his neighbors to reach St. Andrews Bay, on which his property was located. It so happens that St. Andrews Bay is the best harbor on the Gulf of Mexico and the nearest harbor on American soil to the Panama canal. It so happens also that when we took over the plant and began to operate it and examined their books, papers and files, expecting to find a great mass of Wright, W. J. Henry, Jr., Jno. T. Little, J. Rhett Copeland, Dr. F. K. Shealey, J. M. Pitts and Chas. G. Copeland.

A special train will leave Clinton Saturday afternoon at six o'clock for Newberry and this will give everyone a chance below Clinton on the C. N. & L. to see all the day's attractions and get home the same evening.

The base ball game between Clinton and Union will be played at five o'clock on the college grounds. This promises to be an interesting game.

A barbecue dinner will be served by Mr. R. F. Adair just back of Bailey's Bank under the trees.

There's going to be a big time and whoever you are, and wherever you live, make this your slogan—"Meet me in Clinton, Saturday, June 7th, the old Anniversary Day."

The features of the day are not only a celebration of our Old Anniversary Day but is more especially a celebration to our returned soldiers and sailors from the world war, as all of our citizens wish to do honor to our boys who have served our country so nobly.

BAKER DEMANDS ARMY OF 509,000

Secretary Discusses Question of Bringing Bodies of Soldiers Home.

Washington, May 29.—Secretary Baker today renewed before the House military committee his recommendation that congress provide for a temporary army of 509,000 men for the fiscal year beginning July 1. The Secretary was the first witness at the hearings on the huge army appropriation bill which failed in the closing hours of the last Senate.

Will Bodies Be Brought Back
The question of whether bodies of American soldiers who died in France should be left in that country or returned here, was brought before the Secretary by several members of the committee. They declared there was a growing feeling throughout the country for bringing the bodies back.

Secretary Baker said the Department had not, as yet, determined on a definite policy in regard to the matter.

"I realize, however," he added "that many fathers and mothers want to have the bodies of their sons brought back, and I am in complete sympathy with their wishes. However, since it would be impossible to start now in returning the bodies, the question can be postponed for the time being."

General March, chief of staff, told the committee that demobilization was proceeding so rapidly every man in France could be back in this country within four months if any army of occupation in Europe were not needed.

"Until a definite international policy is worked out, however," General March declared, "we maintain an army of occupation there."

This army will soon be reduced, however, to the regular divisions."

TRAINMEN PROTEST LATEST WAGE AWARD

Brotherhood Passes Resolution Expressing Disapproval and Cites Conditions.

Columbus, Ohio, May 29.—The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in session here today adopted a resolution expressing disapproval of the last wage award made by the federal railroad administration. The resolution stipulated certain conditions it should have covered that it did not. A committee was named to take up the matter with the railroad administration for immediate adjustment.

The resolution states that the pay does not compensate for the hazards of the work and insists that minimum monthly, daily and mileage rates equivalent to $150 per month be established.

Continuing the resolution demands some plan to compensate railroad trainmen for time spent away from home and off the increased cost of living. A reiterated demand for time and a half pay for holidays, Sundays and overtime also was made in the resolution.

BAND CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

The 24-piece band from Camp Jackson who will be here Saturday for the big Jubilee Day, will give a band concert on Friday night. The concert will be held on the public square from eight until nine o'clock and everybody is cordially invited to hear this band.

CHRISTIAN PEOPLE OF CLINTON!

Do you approve of pay performances of the chautauqua on Sunday and at the hour at which all our churches have evening worship? If you do not, will you not say so? I do not, and I am saying so as publicly as possible.

A. V. Martin.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE CLOSES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Exercises Came to a Close Yesterday—Baccalaureate and Y. M. C. A. Sermons are Highly Interesting—Students Leave for Their Homes.

With the large auditorium of the First Presbyterian church filled to capacity, the commencement exercises of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina opened Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with the annual baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class by Dr. H. Tucker Graham, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Florence.

Just preceding the sermon, the president of the college, with the members of the faculty, followed by the graduating class, then the entire student body, entered the church together and occupied seats in the center of the auditorium that had been reserved for them. After the doxology and an anthem by the choir, Dr. D. M. Douglas, president of the college, opened the service with prayer. After the singing of another anthem, the Scripture lesson was read and then followed by a prayer by Dr. Gradyham.

Seated on the rostrum were the pastors of the city churches, all services Sunday morning having been called off in order to unite in the special occasion.

The baccalaureate sermon was a strong address, filled with fine advice to the graduates. Dr. Graham chose as his text, "Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God," from the First Epistle of John, fifth chapter and the fifth verse. He traced the different periods of achievement of the human race from the beginning to the present day, showing how the glory of the world passes away. He said, Wilson was able to stand the test, to see the problems of the world, to hear the cry that rose from broken hearts and shattered hearth stones, because he believeth that Jesus is the Son of God. The struggle that was fought out on the mountain top in far-away Palestine between Jesus and His tempter, is being fought out in the heart of the youth. We can overcome only if we believe that Jesus is the Son of God. We are saved to serve God and our fellowmen. The sermon was powerful, thoughtful and inspiring, and attentively listened to by a large congregation.

The annual sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association was preached Sunday evening by Rev. J. P. Marion, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Sumter. His address was a most masterly one and a large audience was deeply interested in his words.

Monday evening in the college auditorium, the annual Declaimers' contest was held. M. R. Williamson was the presiding officer, and the following young men competed for first honors:

- F. K. Sims - Philomathian
- G. B. Bobo - Eukosmian
- M. Edmunds - Philomathian
- A. B. Godfrey - Eukosmian
- A. W. Dick - Philomathian

John O'Daniel - Eukosmian
The Address of President Poincaré at the Paris Celebration.

Tuesday evening the Oratorical contest was held in the college auditorium with R. E. Townsend presiding. The speakers and their subjects were:

- L. B. Woodson - Philomathian
Hands in the Dike.
- M. R. Williamson - Eukosmian
America's Greatest Asset
- T. H. Clarke - Philomathian
America's Day of Service.
- G. W. Wise - Eukosmian
America's Greatness.
- W. E. Smith - Philomathian
The Growth of Internationalism.
- J. M. Austin - Eukosmian
The Star of Gold.

The commencement exercises at the Presbyterian College were concluded yesterday morning with the delivery of diplomas, conferring of degrees, awarding of medals, and an eloquent address by Dr. R. H. Bennett of Emory University, Ga.

The exercises opened with prayer by Dr. L. Ross Lynn, after which the following program was carried out:

Oration—George Wise, subject: "America's Need."

Valedictory—William Eppes Smith.
Literary Address—Dr. R. H. Bennett, Emory University, Ga.

Dr. Bennett spoke on "What we are going to do with our life." He said "The mainspring for every life should be to press upward with an unselfish motive, for in the end success and honors will be heaped on the unselfish man. We should be particular as to the kind of life we live, for there are so many ways to broaden our knowledge during our every day task. The man that succeeds must conquer himself. A strong temper is essential to success only when it is under control. The man that wins must be a pure man. Virtue shall ever last, but innocence once lost can never be restored. Finally God must occupy the proper place in the life if it is successful. The motto for every life should be: 'For God and Humanity.'

Dr. Melton-Clarke, of Charleston, delivered the medals, and the winners are as follows: Alumni Medal: P. W. Wilson, Orator's Medal: M. R. Williamson, Declaimer's Medal: F. K. Sims, Eukosmain Improvement Medal: H. M. Wilson, General Scholarship Medal: Ethel Smith.

After the delivery of the diplomas, Dr. Douglas delivered the diplomas to the graduates.

The college is planning to raise $150,000 to be used for better equipping the college and to raise the professors' salaries. The following amounts have already been given or promised: Mr. Graham of Greenville, S. C. $30,000; Col. Leroy Springs has endowed a chair; Mrs. Kennedy of New York, $10,000; Mrs. McCormick of Chicago, $2,500; and planning to raise $30,000 in Clinton. Dr. Douglas stated that he feels sure of getting whole amount.

Coach Walter Johnson, who is now in the service of the Government will be in charge of the athletics at the college for next year.

Dr. Douglas also announced that the Physics and Chemistry chair will be divided the next year, having a professor for each chair. Dr. Hoyt, Ph. D., will be in charge of the Biology course next year.
