

Beautify your home for the children's sake.

Dear Amy:

Don't you think that lots of parents do their children a wrong by not fixing up a beautiful home for them? I think nothing has such a refining influence upon children as a lovely furnished home; it is a necessary part of their education.

I'm going to see that my children grow up in the proper home atmosphere. I feel like I owe this also to my husband and to myself.

Bring the kiddies to see Baby John.

With love, always your friend.

Lou.

HEAVY TOLL BEING TAKEN BY CHOLERA

HUNDREDS OF VALUABLE HOGS LOST IN EPIDEMIC THAT IS SPREADING OVER STATE.

FATALITY AMONG BROOD SOWS

Efforts to Stamp Out Disease Would be as Profitable as Was the Last Cattle Tick Campaign.

Columbia.

Cholera is exacting heavy toll among hogs in nearly every county in the state, says L. L. Baker, supervisor of the boys' club work of the state. He finds the disease particularly prevalent in counties in the lower half of the state and a taint of it in every section.

During the last few years, through the agency of boys' corn and pig club enthusiasm and enterprise, thousands of pure bred hogs have been brought into South Carolina, and Mr. Baker says that hundreds of these valuable animals have been lost in the epidemic which is spreading over South Carolina. He knows of brood sows worth from $100 to $150 which have succumbed to the disease, besides the scores of pigs and shoats valued from $5 up to $75 and $100.

Just as the cattle tick has been eradicated by the co-operation of state and federal forces and appropriations there will have to be similar union of efforts to stamp out hog cholera, he says. The latter move would be just as profitable, Mr. Baker thinks, in view of the heavy losses now being sustained.

Message from the President.

The following telegram has been received by Governor Cooper:

"Governor Robert A. Cooper, Columbia, S. C.:

"The president directs me to transmit the following message: 'I am deeply impressed by the message in which you joined the governors of 29 other states in urging the recognition of the Armenian delegation in such a way as to admit Armenian representatives to direct participation in the peace conference. I need not tell you that my whole heart responds to the request, but I am sure that you would be convinced of the difficulty of the matter if you could know how many other similar cases are before the conference and how difficult and dangerous it is to make discrimination. At the same time I can assure you that there is the deepest and sincerest interest in the welfare of Armenia, and that her interests will be looked after in every way that is possible in the difficult circumstances.'"

"J. P. Tumulty, The White House, Washington, D. C., June 7, 1919."

Course in Agriculture.

Between 75 and 100 prize winners in boys' corn and pig clubs in South Carolina last year will go to Clemson College, July 7, for a two weeks' short course in agriculture, which is given in recognition of the services of the youngsters to the state. The first and second prize winners in each county receive these courses.

Attendance upon these courses, however, is not restricted to prize winners. Any boy, who is a member of the club may attend the courses by paying the fees, which amount to $12 for the full two weeks.

Telephone Girls Photographed.

The strike of the telephone operators began when 60 odd girls marched out of the telephone exchange at 3 o'clock and proceeded to Brown's Hall opposite the postoffice where a meeting was held. There were about 102 at the meeting. After the meeting a procession was formed and about 84 girls marched down Main Street to the State House where their photographs were taken.

Twenty or 30 enthusiastic male electrical workers joined the girls at the State House and were photographed.

Honorary Degrees Conferred.

The board of trustees of the University of South Carolina in annual session, recommended that the honorary degree of doctor of laws be conferred on W. W. Ball.

Three doctor of divinity degrees were also conferred. They are: The Rev. A. E. Blackwood, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Columbia; the Rev. Shirley C. Hughson, native of Sumter, but now of New York; and Rev. B. H. McLeod, presiding elder of the Sumter district. The chair of Bible was created.

Seeking Recruits for Army.

"See the world and learn a trade while on the sightseeing tour" is the inviting slogan Uncle Sam has adopted to encourage young men to enlist in army.

Throughout the country a serious drive is being made for enlistments. A recruiting office has been maintained constantly at Camp Jackson and a recruiting party is now making tours of the state to procure additional forces for the Forty-eighth infantry. Twenty men compose the group, which was sent to Camden.

Justice for Cottontots.

J. Skottowe Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Association, is daily receiving letters from members of congress acknowledging receipt of information sent them by the association regarding the cotton situation and promising protection for the South.

The following letter from Representative M. O. McLaughlin of the fourth Nebraska district was received and Mr. Wannamaker says it is typical of the replies that are coming in from the Northern and Western representatives:

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of your communication of May 28, setting forth the cost of the production of cotton and giving valuable information as to the cotton industry and its future needs and prospects.

"In response will say I have filed your letter with the inclosed bulletins for reference at the proper time in the Sixty-sixth Congress, and I beg to assure you that I stand for an unbiased program that will protect all of our citizens and every industry in every part of the country. We are a great nation bound together by indissoluble ties, and you can depend upon my standing for justice to the industries of the South just as conscientiously as I will for those of any other part of our great commonwealth."

President Wannamaker said that other members of Congress had written him thanking him most heartily for the information. One representative stated that the letter gave him the viewpoint of the South and had opened his eyes regarding the cost of production of cotton.

Organizing State Militia.

Places for the two battalions of the National Guard of South Carolina which are now being reorganized, are being designated by W. W. Moore, adjutant general. Towns and cities selected for the companies and their commanding officers are as follows: Pelzer, Capt. E. S. Blake; Spartanburg, Capt. William G. Willard; Laurens, Capt. J. F. Smith; Hartsville, Capt. R. R. McLeod; Charleston Washington Light Infantry, Co. A. Capt. Ed. H. Robertson; Walterboro, Capt. H. R. Padgett. Two other cities are yet to be designated, but these must be selected at once, as General Moore must start on his inspection tour June 15 and the companies must be inspected and mustered into the service between June 15 and June 30, in order to share in the United States funds.

Repeives Death Sentence.

Governor Cooper granted a reprieve to James Allen, Sr., of Lancaster county, convicted of murder in March, 1919, and sentenced to death by electrocution. On recommendation of the judge, the board of pardons and a number of citizens of Lancaster county, who recommended that the sentence be commuted to life imprisonment, a reprieve of 30 days was granted May 8, in order that the case might be more thoroughly investigated. At the expiration of this time, persons interested in the prosecution requested that the sentence of the court be carried out and that they be given a chance to make a showing against the petition for commutation. Therefore, on June 6 the sentence was again reprieved, in order that the board of pardons might again look into the case and submit its recommendation.

South Carolina Casualties.

The following casualties among South Carolina troops were recently reported by the commanding general, A. E. F.:

Died of Disease—Private John Jordan, Florence.

Died of Accident—Private Elias Frost, Cordesville.

Severely Wounded—Lieut. S. D. Willis, Greenville; Corp. M. C. Hooper, Anderson; Privates Walter Owens, Anderson; Robert E. Brothwick, Spartanburg.

Slightly wounded—Private L. A. Turner, Langley.

Returned to duty, previously reported missing in action—Private Earl B. Ferguson, Rock Hill.

Staff Appointments Made.

Governor Cooper announced the appointments to his personal military staff. While he did not adhere strictly to commissioned men who saw armed service in the world war, the majority of his staff consists of veterans, ranging from enlisted men through various grades of commissioned officers.

Wildcats Are Coming.

Captain Claude A. Cochran, of the Wild Cat Veterans' Association, received a telegram from the office of the adjutant general at Washington stating that the 326th Field artillery, the 306th Engineers and the 323d Infantry of the Eight-first division, had been assigned to Camp Jackson for demobilization. The telegram stated that the 318th Field Artillery would be sent to Camp Lee. The other organizations have not yet been assigned, but announcement of assignment may be expected soon.

Policy of Road Commission.

After the meeting of the State highway commission June 3, Maj. R. G. Thomas of Charleston, chairman, told of the policy adopted in constructing sections of the State highway system with federal aid.

Major Thomas said that the public was familiar with the State system of roads agreed upon, and knew that this highway system had as its purposes linking all the county seats in South Carolina, putting a good State road before the doors of as many citizens of the State as possible.
