

SOCIETY.

Little Miss Sarah Lee Wright invited a number of little folks to her fifth birthday party on Saturday afternoon. Mamie Lee Wright, Mamie and Frances Bell, Emma Little and Cleon Pitts assisted in entertaining. After the playing of a number of games the guests were invited into the dining room. The table was beautifully decorated and a birthday cake with the five candles was used as a centerpiece. The donkey contest caused much amusement and Frances Bell was the successful contestant, and was presented with a box of chocolate creams. A large number of guests were present.

Miss Maude Sumerel entertained on Friday evening in honor of several friends. Daisies were used as decorations and covers were laid for twelve. An elegant four-course dinner was served to the following guests: Misses Emma and Gertrude Hipp, Bera and Ruth Bailey, Essie Young, Mrs. W. B. Owens, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Miss Dorcas Mason, Miss Emmie Robertson and Mrs. E. E. Staunton.

Mrs. Cyrus Bailey entertained the members of the Knitting Club on Saturday afternoon. After a delightful social hour a salad course was served to the following guests: Misses Nancy Owens, Jette and Mary Dillard, Mrs. William B. Owens, Mrs. James Sprunt, Mrs. J. R. Copeland, Mrs. Kenneth Burdette and Mrs. L. S. Hays. The next meeting will be with Miss Nancy Owens.

Miss Silena Cosby entertained a few friends at a course supper on Wednesday evening. Those who were present on this enjoyable occasion were: Mary Ruth Copeland, Emmie Young, Elizabeth Young and Clara Louise O'Daniel.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Copeland entertained at a course supper in honor of Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Hays on Friday evening.

The Musgrove Club had a delightful meeting on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. M. McMillan as hostess. After a pleasant social hour sandwiches, iced tea, cream and cake were served to the following guests: Mesdames T. J. Blalock, H. D. Rantin, Pat Adair, Gus Davidson, Will Davidson, B. W. Philips, W. H. Galloway, James Leaman, and John Finney. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. D. Rantin.

MARTIN-CHEATHAM.

Thursday afternoon, June 26, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Sprott, Miss Blanche Martin of Greenwood was married to Mr. John T. Cheatham. Rev. B. R. Turnipseed performed the ceremony. The marriage was witnessed by a few friends and relatives.

The bride has for the past several months been connected with the firm of Adair & Sumerel of this city and has a host of friends here. She is a daughter of the late Dr. E. G. Martin. Since the death of her parents, she has lived with her aunt, Mrs. M. E. Sprott, of Greenwood. She was a graduate of Limestone College.

The groom is a prominent business man of Greenwood.

Following the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Cheatham left for the mountains of North Carolina. After July 10, they will be at home in Greenwood.

"SUSPENSE"

WITH

MOLLIE KING

Looking down at the business end of a revolver in the hands of a desperate criminal is one of the tense situations found in the super-thriller "Suspense". It tells the story of a daring girl who cleverly thwarts the plans of a dangerous gang of conspirators, and at the same time establishes the innocence of her father, who had been accused of the theft of certain papers entrusted to his care.

The Most Daring Story of Adventure Ever Told.

AFTER SICKNESS THEY GAVE HER VINOL

And She Soon Got Back Her Strength

New Castle, Ind.—"The measles left me run down, no appetite, could not rest at night, and I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs, so I was unable to keep about my household work. My doctor advised me to take Vinol, and six bottles restored my health so I do all my household work, including washing. Vinol is the best medicine I ever used."—Alice Record, 437 So. 11th St., New Castle, Ind.

We guarantee this wonderful cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, for all weak, run-down, nervous conditions.

Building a Business

ON

Quality and Honesty

We realize that in order to grow we must not only keep our old customers but get new ones.

We realize that in order to hold our customers we must keep our line of furniture, etc., up-to-date and make improvements from time to time to meet the demands of the trade.

We realize that for a business to be successful it must be established on a firm foundation of QUALITY GOODS and ABSOLUTELY FAIR and HONEST DEALINGS with its customers.

Our business is growing because it has been built on these principles. We ask for the patronage of this community because we have the goods and the service and because we satisfy every customer by fair and honest dealings.
