

MUCH CRITICISM

BY REPUBLICANS

See Little Good in President's Address. Praise From Others.

Washington, July 10.—President Wilson's address to the senate transmitting the peace treaty today was praised by Democratic leaders as one of his best state papers, but Republican senators generally were inclined to criticize it. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, made no comment and Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, declined to comment.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, one of the leading opponents in the senate of the league of nations also declined to comment except to say that President Wilson "completely answered" his own argument that the league of nations is a league for peace by his statement that it is "formed as an alliance of war."

Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, characterized the address as "another Wilsonian essay, but not quite up to the standard."

Senator Harding, Republican, Ohio, a member of the foreign relations committee, said the address was "the apex of the international and utterly lacking in ringing Americanism."

Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, declared the address to be an "appropriate description of the league of nations as an international 'come-on' game and it appears to me that any country that wishes to work the international badger game will find the league of nations the sliding panel with which to operate."

"It was a fine, comprehensive presentation of the case," said Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska. "It was a dispassionate and convincing statement of the reasons that led the representative of one billion people to agree on its reorganization of the world."

Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, a supporter of the league of nations, said the address was "very impressive."

"The address," said Senator Swanson, Democrat, Virginia, "is magnificent, able, eloquent and inspiring. The reasons presented for the ratification of the treaty, including the league of nations, were strong, cogent and unanswerable."

"I think," said Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, "that in breadth of vision, in height of humanitarianism, in fundamental world statesmanship and in delicacy of dove-tailed English it is the greatest thing he has ever uttered. His words are a fitting close to his magnificent and unselfish and, upon the whole, effective work at Paris."

"I thought," said Senator Chamberlain, Democrat, Oregon, "it was a splendid address, covering the subject concisely and in a way that will make its way to the hearts of the American people."

Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, asserted the address was "a clear and forceful argument for the ratification of the treaty."

Senator Poindexter, Republican, Washington, characterized the speech as "disappointing" and as throwing no "light whatever on the very practical business of the nature, power and method of operation of the league of nations."

YARBROUGH RETAINS

SUPPLY OF LIQUOR

Man Traveling with Five Hundred Gallons Acquitted in Court at Columbus.

Columbus, O., July 11.—W. T. Yarbrough, who was arrested charged with violation of the State prohibition law when he reached here last week carrying 500 gallons of liquor from St. Louis to Habana, was acquitted by a jury in city court here late today.

After a hearing in the federal circuit court in Birmingham, where he also was arrested, Yarbrough had been allowed to proceed under a recent supreme court decision which held that persons transporting liquor may only be dealt with at their destination. At his trial here in the city court, a branch of the State court, it was contended that Yarbrough had removed part of the contents of one bottle and intended to sell it here. After his acquittal his liquor was ordered returned to him and he said he would continue on his way to Cuba, where he says he is to open a saloon.

Yarbrough was transporting his liquor in the drawing room of a sleeping car and was taken from the train here as he crossed the Georgia line.

Watering Farm Horses.

Walter Moore, a well known writer, says:

"It is a common thing for farmers to work their horses in the hayfield from morning to night, watering them only at noon. This is done even on days of excessive heat. The driver usually has two or more refreshing drinks in the middle of the morning, and again in the afternoon; but the horses, who are equally as thirsty, go without. This want of water is not only distressing, but it causes the horses to drink to excess at noon and again at night, which often results in colic, and always tends to produce a distended stomach, or what farmers call a 'hay belly'. Farmers who would treat their horses humanely should take water into the field for them in hot weather."
