How we pick a winner!

A long time ago we learned that to fill our logical place in the community, we needed to do more than "sell groceries." We had to sell "service."

Perhaps you don't know it, but we feel a keen sense of responsibility for everything we sell you. We feel it is our duty to know all there is to be known about the products on our shelves. So, when something new comes on the market we test it. Test it in our own homes. That's one way we render service.

A striking example of this is RYZON, the Perfect Baking Powder. Now, we were among the first to realize that if RYZON was all that it was said to be, we ought to know about it.

And now we do.

We know so much about it that we recommend it to you as the dependable, economical baking powder. We sell you your flour, eggs and other ingredients and we want your baking to be successful-there is no better way of insuring this, we
