BOLL WEEVIL IN RICHLAND COUNTY

PEST HAS COVERED ONE-HALF OF COUNTY AND WILL SOON
EMBRACE THE WHOLE.

NO MORE BIG COTTON CROPS

Farm Demonstrator's One Plan Has Been to Persuade Farmers to Give Up the One Crop System.

Columbia.—That the boll weevil has covered practically one-half of Richland county in the past two weeks and that before the end of the cotton season the entire county will be covered with the pest is a statement contained in an open letter to Richland county farmers by J. Rhett Clark, farm demonstrator. In his letter Mr. Clark calls attention to the fact that the weevil has been steadily advancing upon the county for several years and that no alarm should be taken over his widespread appearance.

In reference to many inquiries from farmers as to what course should be pursued the coming year, the demonstrator says he is convinced that the generally accepted theory of "we can raise one more big crop of cotton" is wrong, and while he does not say this can not be done he advises the farmers to turn to stock and hog raising and diversified farming.

Mr. Clark says that his one plan since he came to Richland has been to hammer into the heads of farmers that they must forsake the one-crop system.

Sf. Matthews.—Congressman-elect Ed. C. Mann has announced that in the near future he will move his family to Orangeburg, which hereafter will be his official residence.

Charleston.—The Consolidated company presented to city council a petition for right to increase its rates on car fare, gas and electricity. A seven cent fare is asked for and a gas rate of $1.25 per thousand cubic feet, for small consumers, instead of $1.

Rock Hill.—Fire broke out here in the central section of the John T. Roddey cotton warehouse and several hundred bales of cotton belonging to the Victoria mills were consumed. The loss will mount into thousands of dollars. Full insurance was carried on the cotton, however.

Anderson.—Two automobiles are wrecks on account of accidents. One driven by J. L. Owens of near Spar-tanburg took a header into a ditch just outside of the city limits. No one was injured. Dr. J. C. Harris and the ar of E. J. Kay clashed when Dr. Harris stopped his car and the other crashed into the back end.

Charleston.—F. H. McMasters of Columbia, addressed a large meeting of the Woodmen of the World here on the new insurance rates, effective in the order after this year. Mr. McMasters explained that the change was a readjustment of rates, the main purpose of which was to make for permanency in the insurance written by this fraternity.

York.—Charged with shooting Claude Thomason, a white youth of the McConellsville section, Will Meek and Boyse Wilkes, negroes, both about 21 years old, have been lodged in the York county jail. The negroes say the shooting was accidental, claiming that the bullet from a .32 calibre German automatic pistol that pierced the boy's left lung was intended for a dog.

Greenville.—Following a meeting of interested parties came the official announcement that the Liberty Life Insurance company had been fully organized with a capital of $100,000. The company is to begin business before November, with the home office here and agencies in many cities of this section. The company will specialize on industrial business.

Teaching Illiterates.

John E. Swearingen, state superintendent of education, has forwarded to Anderson county $1,297 to be distributed among the teachers who recently assisted the county superintendent of education in his drive against illiteracy. This county during August established 34 white schools. One teacher, Miss Eva Smith, taught 58 illiterates to read and write during this time. The enrollment in the schools was 375. Ninety-five pupils attended every session.

Airplane for Fair.

Florence.—The Pee Dee fair management announces that an army passenger carrying airplane has been secured as one of the features for the forthcoming fair. This will be good news to the attendants of the fair and the presence of the plane will bring many here who otherwise would not have come. While Florence has seen airplanes before in numbers, this will be the first time that any of its people have had the opportunity at home to experience the thrills of a trip through the air.

WOMEN WORKERS FROM 34 NATIONS ASKED TO CONGRESS

First International Conference in History of World Opens
at Washington, D. C.,
October 23.

NEW RESPONSIBILITIES TO BE DISCUSSED

National Women's Trade Union League of America to Act as Hostess—
Belgium and Great Britain
Send Distinguished Women
as Advisors.

Working women from all parts of the globe will gather in Washington on October 23 at the invitation of the National Women's Trade Union League of America to take part in the first International Congress of Working Women ever held in the history of the world.

An official call to the conference has been sent to labor organizations in thirty-four countries, asking that they send delegates to the conference. Each country is entitled to ten delegates and to ten votes on the floor of the congress; also to one member on the executive committee. So far Finland, Czechoslovakia, Poland, France, Japan, Belgium, England, the Argentine and Canada have announced delegates for the congress, Belgium being the first to announce that Mme. Victoire Cappe, who had been chosen to serve as an advisor to the international labor conference called for October 29, would arrive in the United States in time to serve as one of the two Belgian delegates at the women's congress. Margaret Bondfield, secretary of the National Federation of Women Workers in Great Britain, who will also serve as an advisor to the British delegation at the labor conference, is coming to take her place on the floor of the Congress of Working Women.

It was Miss Bondfield who, during her visit to the United States in the spring and early summer, presented to the Women's Trade Union League, assembled in the seventh biennial convention of that organization in Philadelphia in June, the resolution of the standing committee of the Women's Industrial Organizations of England that the American League be asked to call an International Congress of Working Women to meet in the United States in the autumn. Such a conference had been previously discussed by women's labor organizations of various countries and would have been held in a European city probably had not the League of Nations society decided upon Washington as the meeting place for an international labor conference.

The committee on international relations of the Women's Trade Union League, which is in charge of the congress, has as its chairman Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the league; Miss Mary Anderson, chief of the women's bureau of the United States department of labor; Miss Agnes Nestor, vice president of the International Glove Workers' union; Miss Julia O'Connor, president of the Telephone Operators' union, and Miss Rose Schneidermann, president of the New York Women's Trade Union League.

In discussing the congress, Mrs. Robins says: "Women must come forward now and accept their responsibilities. They can no longer have their affairs attended to by proxy. Men cannot bear the entire responsibility for the world. They must be assisted by women, and the women should come forth willingly, prepared to take up their share of the burden of seeing that things go right with the world. At the Congress of Working Women we will discuss problems affecting women which we, as women workers, are particularly able to consider, that we may recommend how conditions of the labor of women and children can be improved."

CZECHO-SLOVAKS TO ATTEND CONGRESS

Two Women Delegates Will Represent
Poland at International Gathering on October 23.

Two industrial women workers are on their way from Czecho-Slovakia and four on their way from Poland to attend the International Congress of Working Women in Washington, October 23d, according to cables received by Miss Mary Anderson, secretary of the committee on International Relationships of the National Women's Trade Union League of America, who is in charge of arrangements.

Miss Anderson has also been advised that the Telephone Operators' Association of the Argentine will send a representative to the Congress at the earliest possible moment that transportation facilities will permit. Two delegates are also en route from Belgium, and others from England, Switzerland, Japan and Italy.

The Story of a Turret Captain
Promotion in the Navy comes quickly to those who qualify for higher ratings. In March 1899 A. P. Nilson enlisted in the Navy as an Apprentice Seaman, 3rd class. In April 1907 he was rated Chief Turret Captain. His pay today is $165.76 per month.

A man's life — among men!

Reel them off—"Rio", Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your, big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.

Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play. These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect. The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Enlist for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement. Four weeks holidays with pay each year. Shore leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. Get full information from your nearest recruiting station. If you do not know where the nearest recruiting station is, ask your Postmaster. He knows.

Shove off!—Join the

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.
