

SOCIETY.

The attractive home of Mrs. George H. Ellis was a scene of a lovely reception on Thursday afternoon when she entertained in honor of Clinton's recent bride, Mrs. Gary Dillard. Much care had been spent to make the afternoon one of pleasure and the home was quite lovely with potted plants and vases of gorgeous chrysanthemums.

Mrs. J. Lee Young and Mrs. L. B. Dilalrd stood at the front door and Mrs. J. I. Copeland ushered the guests to the living room where stood the receiving line composed of Mrs. J. D. Dillard, Mrs. George Ellis, Mrs. Gary Dillard, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Miss Mittie Young, Miss Julia Neville and Mrs. J. W. Dillard. In this room with the hostess and honor guests Mrs. Downes Bell and Mrs. Lloyd McChary also received and in the dining room Mrs. Homer Henry and Mrs. W. B. Farr.

In the dining room the color scheme of pink and white predominated. A cluny piece over pink covered the table. Apple blossoms graced the chandelier and from four corners pink tulle streamers were held in place by pink shaded candles. A silver basket filled with pink carnations carefully guarded by a kewpie bride formed the centerpiece. From the table pink and white cream was cut by Mesdames G. A. Copeland and M. J. McFadden and with angel cake was served by Misses Irene Blalock and Maude Ellis.

Mrs. J. K. Hatton invited the guests to the den where black coffee was served by Miss Maggie Finney and Mrs. F. A. Gaddy. Vietrola selections were enjoyed throughout the afternoon and cupid souvenirs were pinned on about two hundred guests.

Mrs. Gary Dillard was the recipient of another attractive social event on Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Will Dillard entertained in her honor. Japanese decorations, such as lanterns, umbrellas, score cards, stickers, were used effectively in the hall and three rooms. Vases of magnificent chrysanthemums adorned mantles and pedestals. For a couple of hours rook was enjoyed and then Mrs. Dillard, assisted by Mesdames Homer Henry, George Ellis, M. J. McFadden and L. B. Dillard, served a salad course and tea to the following guests: Mesdames Gary Dillard, J. I. Copeland, G. A. Copeland, T. D. Copeland, R. J. Copeland, J. A. Copeland, W. B. Farr, B. H. Boyd, E. W. Ferguson, H. D. Henry, C. C. Wallace, J. D. Bell, A. J. Milling, Mrytle Hunter, J. A. Chandler, J. K. Hatton, Julia Griffin, Misses M. Burgess, Aliene Hipp, Mittie Young, Julia Neville, Jette Dillard, Minnie Lee Nash, Mesdames, Hugh Simpson, P. H. Adair, F. Gaddy, A. C. Daniel, E. E. Stanton, Irby Hipp, W. B. Owens, F. D. Jones, J. W. Leake, E. S. F. Giles, W. A. Galoway, G. W. Young and J. A. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Blakely announce the engagement of their daughter, Isabelle, to O. Roddey Bell of Lancaster, the wedding to take place in December.

On Friday evening a number of friends met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Tribble for a surprise social. Although the affair was very informal the time was spent very pleasantly and was in honor of the girls of the Due West Woman's college. Beside the home girls who spent the week-end in Clinton there were a number of visitors in town.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Julia Neville entertained her Sunday school class. For several hours games were enjoyed and then fruits, peanuts and candies were served to the following guests: Misses Ethel and Ellen Copeland, Margaret Copeland, Lucy Bailey,

Neil Clapp, Frances Williams, Alden Bailey and Virginia Benjamin.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Mittie Young. After a pleasant hour of conversation, Miss B. Copeland becomingly attired as a bride entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. She carried gorgeous white chrysanthemums and from these hung a shower bouquet of gifts. Miss Copeland took her stand in front of Miss Young and with a clever rhyme presented her with the bouquet. Miss Young had been invited to a meeting of the knitting club and not until she was showered did she realize that she was the honor guest. She, in a gracious manner, showed her appreciation and the opening of the packages caused much pleasure. Mrs. J. F. Jacobs served a salad course to the following friends: Misses Mittie Young, Emmie Robertson, Jessie Dillard, Evie Shands, Nancy Owens, Mesdames Will Owens, Kenneth Burdette, W. J. Bailey, G. A. Copeland, Arthur Adams, T. D. Copeland, E. W. Ferguson, D. C. Heustiss, H. S. Coffman, Thomas Jacobs, William Jacobs and J. W. Copeland.

On Thursday evening Miss Connie Martin was hostess to the first fall meeting of the "Kill Kare Klub". The Hallowe'en idea was aptly schemed. Over the table hung a large jack 'o lantern and in the center of the table was one surrounded by witches. The nut cups and place cards carried out the same idea. Seary rhymes were everywhere in evidence and a spooky feeling pervaded the very atmosphere. Mrs. Tom Robertson and Mrs. Edgar Stanton assisted the hostess in entertaining and a three-course dinner was served to the following: Mesdames Hugh Simpson, M. J. McFadden, O. B. Whitten, Misses Mittie Young, Caroline Caldwell, Emma Hipp, Emmie Robertson, Mary Bean, Julia Neville, Dorcas Mason and Nena Martin.

On Friday evening Miss Rowena Jones entertained the members of the G. G. G. Club and a few additional friends at a four-course dinner. The following were present: Misses Mary Henry, Nan Copeland, B. Copeland, Marie Cosby, Sybil Burdette, William Scott, William Porter, Jean Wilson, Marshall Dendy, Wylie Sholar, Malcolm Williamson.

Fruits Stand First.
Fruits have the honor of being most widely diffused geographically, grown first with the kindest care, and of being first used by man as food. They still enter largely into the regimen of the cultivated nations, and are the fairest of civilizers. . . . The use of them is of such universal importance that we can not subsist in any plenty or elegance without them. And everywhere beside the cultivated man grows the orchard, to intimate his refinement in those excellences most befitting his race.—A. Bronson Alcott.

Depository and Depository.
The dictionary defines depository as a warehouse, a depository for goods; a clerks' office for records; a warehouse for storage, etc. A depository is a person with whom anything is left for lodging in trust; as a trustee; a guardian; one to whom a thing is left for safe keeping. All national banks in the United States that are designated by the government for deposits are rated as depositories; and the government invariably uses the word (depository) for any money, bonds, etc. deposited.
