

MINE'S WAGES ARE

$200 MONTH NET.

These Figures are Quoted on Floor of the House.

In a discussion in the house of representatives last week on wages of soft coal miners, Mr. Woods, of Virginia, exhibited a paper which he said showed the wages of miners.

"I assume that these are the best paid miners," said Mr. Woods. "There men work in a non-union field. They are supplied with coal in their houses. They are supplied with a house with oak and parquet floors. Here is the account of Sidney Deskins, of Borderland, W. Va., for March, 1919. His gross receipts were $271.97, and after taking out his expenses, the balance due him was $216.97. In the case of James Jones his total for the month of March was $251.96 and his net $190.96. That takes out his doctor's bill and his light and, in some cases, his insurances."

Mr. Kitchin—His house rent and light?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—Yes; house rent and light. Here is the account of Harry Pinson. For the month of March his total was 388.44 and his net was $249.14. Harrison Crum, total, $420.70; balance or net, $417.45. He is a single man. He did not pay any rent.

Mr. Blanton—That is more than many government officials receive.

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—A Zimmerman, Sr., total for the month of March, 1919, $421.74; net, $336.24.

Mr. Cars—Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. Woods of Virginia—Yes.

Mr. Cars—What kind of duty was that man engaged on?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—He is mining coal by the ton on the car.

Mr. Cars—Is he a pick miner, or does he work a mining machine?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—All he has to do is to put in his little blast and load the coal on the car.

Mr. Denison—Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—Yes.

Mr. Denison—What are his hours?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—Seven hours; not over eight.

Mr. Bland, of Indiana—Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—Yes.

Mr. Bland, of Indiana—Have you any account of the number of hours he worked to earn that $421.74?

Mr. Woods, of Virginia—I have not.

MOVE STARTED TO

DEPORT RADICALS

On Instructions from Attorney General Proceedings are Instituted, Russian Union is Target of Agents.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Deportation proceedings have been instituted in a number of cities to rid the country of the violent radicals caught in the nation-wide raids which have been in progress since Friday, Attorney General Palmer announced tonight.

Instructions have gone to all departments of justice agents, the attorney general said, to permit no delay in instituting formal hearings, preliminary to the actual deportation. Assurances have been received from other government departments having to do with deportation that action would be taken to expedite the case.

In the meantime, the clean-up of the country will continue, Mr. Palmer announcing tonight that there must be "no let-up". The total number actually held on deportation warrants had reached 391 tonight while from some cities in which radical leaders were picked up, reports had not reached the department.

Efforts of the department representatives, it was said, are being directed more particularly at the union of Russian workers. This organization, branded by the attorney general as the most dangerous anarchistic group in the country, was said to have wide ramifications, with the department agents still uncovering new evidences of its activities.

Opinion at the department of justice as expressed today seemed to be that the Russian union perhaps was constituting itself a self-appointed leader of all organizations which are preaching overthrow of the government. Literature seized was said to show that the organization accepts support from almost any source so long as it was working to defeat authority and de-

FURTHER ADVANCES

IN COTTON GOODS

Brown Sheetting and Specialty Fabrics in Greatest Demand on Dry Goods Market.

New York, Nov. 9.—Cotton goods have continued in active demand and there have been further price advances. Heavy cotton duck is the slowest and lowest priced merchandise offered and stocks of wide and sail duck are of a substantial character. Brown sheetings have been bought freely and many heavy specialty fabrics used in rubberizing and other trades have been engaged on contracts running well into the middle of next year. Print cloths and convertibles are higher.

Fine combed yarn goods are selling at very high prices when mills can be induced to take further orders. Prints and percales have been advanced and withdrawn from sale. Wide sheetings destroy private property rights. Officials said they had evidence showing that leaders of the union had made overtures to other and lesser groups of radicals to join their organization, holding out promises of rewards when state and society are overthrown.

Because they are regarded as the most dangerous of all radical types, those arrested in the recent raids are being held in $10,000 bail, officials said. Peter Blanki and Adolph Schnabel, both former secretaries of the union of Russian workers, have been held in bail of $15,000.

The following list given out by the department of justice shows the numbers of persons held on deportation warrants in the various cities: Newark 32; Baltimore 9; Akron 32; Monessen, Pa., 20; Pittsburgh 5; Cleveland 18; Buffalo 14; Philadelphia 10; Trenton 1; Hartford 145; New York 39; Chicago 7; Detroit 59.

DUTCH POSITION

AS TO EX-KAISER

The Hague, Nov. 8.—Former Emperor William came to Holland a year ago next Monday. Since that time there has been no demand officially or unofficially for his extradition or delivery up to the allies, nor has Holland at all changed its viewpoint toward him.

The Associated Press learned this today from sources that are unquestionably Holland's viewpoint as regards William Hohenzollern may be stated frankly as follows.

The Netherlands, which for centuries has accorded political refuge to all, considers the former emperor and where they lived as they are in no sense prisoners. However, because they feel that they would embarrass Holland even further they apparently have agreed to remain where they now are—the father at Amerongen and his son at Wieringen.

If the one-time emperor and crown prince desired to return to Germany, they would be permitted to go. While it is possible that Frederick William some day may return to Germany, official circles in The Hague are inclined to the belief that William Hohenzollern is content to settle down to the life of a country gentleman at Doorn, where he has been permitted to buy a small estate because his long stay at Amerongen seemed unfair to Count Von Bentinck whose castle he occupies.

Although a number of purported interviews with the former emperor have been published, the fact is that he never has spoken for publication since his arrival in Amerongen, and to the request of the Associated Press correspondent for a statement on the occasion of the anniversary of his taking refuge here, he sent a reply saying that he had not changed his determination not to speak.

leading lines are now off the market. Sharp advances have been made in pillow tubing. Bleached cottons have sold freely and are held firm at top prices. All colored yarn goods are difficult to find in first hands for delivery before March and many mills are sold ahead into July.

The demand for export is persistent but cannot be met with any large quantities of goods as mills are too closely sold on home orders to permit further foreign engagements in any large way. Importers are buying more cotton goods and yarns abroad. Fancy goods are in active demand but mills do not care to add to present orders at this time. A demand for higher wages has been made in New England mills to become effective December 1 and the matter is now under consideration by manufacturers.
