HORSE SENSE

Abe Lincoln was not distinguished merely because he was President of the United States. There have been men who held the same high position whose names if mentioned would be recognized by but a comparatively small percentage of our population. But not so with Abe Lincoln. One of his distinguishing characteristics, a notable part of the equipment that caused him to be one of the best know of our Presidents, was his abundant supply of horse sense. Here is one of his sayings that is permeated with that horse sense—"Get ready and the chance will come." Being ready is a sure invitation to a chance to come, and there is no easier way to get ready than through practicing economy and regularly banking your resultant savings in a sound bank like this, leaving them to grow daily.

RED CROSS.

Clinton "fell down" on the Roll Call, in spite of the energetic work of about eighty of our ladies. Reports have not come in from all of the outlying districts. Up to today (18th) we can report only 489, which includes 55 from college students, making us for Clinton and vicinity only about half of our quota of 860. This quota is evidently a typist's error as Laurens was assigned 7,000, and that territory is only twice the size of ours. Our quota must have been 2,860 and that is what we should have rolled up to the credit of our town, irrespective of the merits of the Red Cross. Many who intended to join must have been missed by the canvassers. It is not too late yet to give your name and dollar to Dr. Rufus Sadler who is permanent chairman of the chapter's membership committee and who is desirous with the other members of his committee, of making Clinton chapter a banner chapter.

TO REMEMBER THE POOR ON THANKSGIVING.

The Young Ladies Circle of the Presbyterian church, of which Miss Mary Bean is leader, announce their intention of making a trip to the County Home on Wednesday afternoon preceding Thanksgiving, to carry remembrances to the unfortunate inmates of the home. Fruits, money, magazines, clothing, etc., will be accepted for this purpose in the hope of bringing some happiness and pleasure into the lives of these folks on Thanksgiving day. All contributions left at Simpson Grocery Company will be collected by Miss Bean and distributed by the young ladies who have taken the matter in charge.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Resolved, I. That although his unexpected death may be considered accidental, we humbly recognize in it the will of Supreme Ruler of the Universe who controls the events of our human lives, and we bow in submission under the almighty hand of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, II. That this Lodge expresses hereby its sense of loss in being deprived of a young and worthy member, and we would testify to our affection for our deceased member as a man faithful in his duties, kind to his fellow-men, a true Mason, a good husband and father and a valuable citizen.

Resolved, III. That we tender our sincere sympathy to the young widow of our brother Mason, and to his little child; praying that God may comfort them in sorrow; and we would assure them of our readiness to assist them in any way possible in their bereavement. To the other surviving members of our deceased brother's family we also extend our respectful sympathy.

Resolved, IV. That these resolutions be entered upon our book of minutes, that they be published in the Clinton Chronicle, and that copies be sent to the widow of the deceased and to the other members of his family.

Respectfully submitted,
