ROTARIANS HOLD "LADIES NIGHT"

The Mary Musgrove tea room was the scene of great jollification on last Friday evening when the local Rotary club had as guests for their annual ladies night banquet the Rotarians Rotary-Annes of Laurens, who turned out one hundred per cent strong. The Clinton Kiwanis club was represented by its president, W. D. Copeland, and Mrs. Copeland.

The banquet hall was gaily bedecked for the occasion in garlands of flowers of every hue. Sprays of roses suspended from the chandeliers blended pleasingly with the pastel-tinted sweet peas and candles which in a background of winter ivy and rose leaves adorned the two long banquet tables.

Due to duties of the president, Barrie Parrott, as a member of the legislature, the program was arranged by the vice-president, Marshall Brown, who presided. About one hundred guests enjoyed the program, which included vocal solos by Mrs. Rhoda Wade, Mrs. William Jacobs, and Bruce Galloway; vocal duets by Misses Sadie Riddle and Margaret McCravy of Laurens; and violin solos by Jack O'Neal. Accompaniments to these numbers were played by Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Cecil Roper and Jimmie Reid. The musical program included also a generous sprinkling of Rotary songs which were led by William Jacobs. Bob Roper and Barrie Parrott, George Cornelson, posing as a bandit, and William Jacobs as a lecturer on Dramatic Moments in the History of Laurens County, proved beyond doubt that a man can be clever though married. The speakers of the evening, Albert C. Todd and Rev. John McSweeney, with their ever-ready wit, furnished a merry climax to an evening of mirth.

That the Laurens neighbors might the better remember the personnel of the club, each guest was given in story form a roll of Clinton active members, which is as follows:

Honorary members: W. J. Bailey, J. F. Jacobs, Sr., D. M. Douglas.

Roll of active members:

There was once a Young Cad who could not take Adair. One day he was a little Fuller that he should be and, going to the Barn he mounted his Brown Saddle and rode like Ravenel into the Woods where Polly lived. "Ge, Ralph," he said to a friend, "I'm going to steal my Galloway and then find Uncle Davie. Altho I am no Workman and have not a single Bill, I'll marry her in spite of old Harry. Sumerel soon be here and we can live on love. The thought of living without my Polly fairly Bowles me over."

Polly was willing, but as they started to Wade Bush river, the horse shied at a big Bo-cat and dashed them against a passing Coach. When the Hays cleared from his eyes, our Young hero's first thought was of Polly. Finding her lying in the Walter, he felt her pulse and realized that she was lifeless. Just then young Jacobs, who had heard the commotion from College View, dashed up bottle in hand. "Cornelson," our hero cried, "bring me a doctor and a Sexton and the undertaker's Coach and Carter away." The next time I go honeymooning, I'll Brad myself to the saddle. Is it an angel I hear singing or a Swan-song?

A pretty accessory for the bedroom is the gown bag which looks like some luscious flower in full bloom and may be hung on the wall or on the foot of the bed.

Two circles of colored straw are used for centerpieces and a puff of harmonizing taffeta gathered around them to form a circular bag. A wreath of ribbon flowers is applied on the front circle of straws, and a silken cord used for hanging.

"Cyclone Sally" Comes Next Tuesday Night

The Dramatic club of the Clinton high school will present "Cyclone Sally" at the Florida Street school auditorium on Tuesday, February 26, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the athletic association. Admission will be 25c and 35c.

Those who saw "Hurricane Hal" will be especially interested in this comedy of three acts. This play is in no respect a sequel to "Hurricane Hal." Although given by practically the same cast, it is by far the superior of the two plays.

CARD OF THANKS

I greatly appreciate the magnificent vote given me by the people of Clinton February 12th, and expect to serve the town faithfully during this administration as your mayor.

JACK H. YOUNG, Mayor-elect.

The Professor's Precaution

The rather absent-minded professor had called on a friend, and on leaving was horrified to discover that his car had disappeared.

A policeman listened to his tale of woe and made copious notes in a little black book.

"Did you take any precautions against the car being stolen?" he asked presently.

"Well," returned the scholarly one, "I padlocked the wheel."

"Ah," said the officer, "but which wheel?"

Light dawned on the professor.

"My stars!" he gasped. "It was the spare wheel!"

A Danish Relic

Place names in New York are so predominantly Dutch and English, after the nationalities of the city's early overlords, that the contributions of folk of other countries are seldom brought to mind. Yet one of the city's biggest areas bears a name acquired not from the Dutch nor from the English, but from a Danish pioneer. He was Jonas Bronck, who settled on the mainland north of Manhattan Island with a party of settlers from Denmark in 1639, and his colony, known first as Bronck's land, is now the Borough of the Bronx.

True Pessimist!

"The real pessimist is he who thinks everything is as good as it can be," says a prominent man of science. It is interesting to make a surmise as to the mental processes which brought the scientist to such a conclusion. Perhaps he was thinking what our condition would be today, were it not for the hopeful men who labored to improve upon the past for the benefit of all mankind. No wonder he declares that the real pessimist is he who thinks everything is as good as it can be.

General Election Next Tuesday

Only fifteen voters qualified to participate in the general election to be held next Tuesday to ratify the primary of the 12th. The election was called for the purpose of electing a mayor of Clinton to succeed the late E. B. Sloan. Dr. Jack H. Young, well known business man, was the winner in the primary, and after Tuesday's election will immediately assume the duties of the office to which he has been elected.

The election will be held at the police station, the polls opening at 8 a. m. and closing at 4 p. m. S. W. Sumerel, J. Hamp Stone and W. H. Simpson have been named by council as managers of said election.

Wake Forest-P. C. Game Saturday

Another big basket ball game is on P. C.'s menu for Saturday night. The Wake Forest team will furnish the opposition and this promises to be a lively battle. The North Carolina Demons have an unusually strong team this season and the Presbyterians are expecting a fast and interesting game from the blow of the whistle. The game will be played in the Leroy Springs gym beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. An admission of 25c and 50c will be charged and it is hoped that the record-breaking crowd of the season will be present.
