

SOCIETY EVENTS

INTEREST TO WOMEN

Mrs. Larry B. Dillard, Society Editor. Telephone 154

OPPORTUNITY

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in,
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you awake, and rise to fight and win.

Will not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped
To vanished joys be blind and dead and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never blind a moment yet to come.

Though deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep;
I lend my arm to all who say, "I can!"
No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be again a man.

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell;
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven;
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to Heaven.

—Walter Malone.

IN HONOR OF MOTHER

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Mary Lou Bell entertained a few friends in honor of her mother, Mrs. S. H. Bell of Staunton, Va. Two courses were served by Misses Livingston, Stilwell and Booser. The guests were: Mesdames J. I. Copeland, D. J. Woods, Rutledge Fuller, A. V. Martin, Edward Long, J. F. Jacobs, Sr., and Miss Clara Duckett.

IN HONOR OF VISITOR AND BRIDE-ELECT

On Wednesday morning Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., entertained with a party in honor of Mrs. Clarence Happ of Fort Madison, Iowa. A salad and a sweet course were served to the following guests: Mesdames Clarence Happ, Clair Hays, Pringle Copeland, B. H. Boyd, J. A. Chadler, R. W. Phillips, Oliver Burroughs, J. W. Finney, D. C. Heustess, H. M. Wilkes, C. E. Galloway, J. B. Parrott, C. E. Giles, Goyn Simpson, W. D. Copeland, A. N. Taylor, Frank Kellers, George Cornelson, W. A. Johnson, Wm. Bailey Owens, W. P. Jacobs. Mrs. Happ was presented with an attractive gift. Mrs. John McSween and Mrs. C. M. Bailey called for a social hour.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Jacobs entertained in honor of Miss Carrie Fuller. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a miscellany of gifts to Miss Fuller, a bride-elect of April. A salad course, punch, and a sweet course were served to the following guests: Misses Carrie Fuller, Cafa Fuller, Clara Duckett, Collette Griffin, Mary Lou Bell, Sybil Burdette, Ina Curry, and Mesdames J. F. Jacobs, Sr., W. J. Bailey, Thomas Jacobs, Wade Sperry, John W. Little, L. B. Dillard, Raymond Pitts, J. J. Cornwell, Lonnie McMillan, Reese Young, A. W. Brice, R. E. Sadler, J. H. Witherspoon, John T. Young, W. C. Oxley, Glenn Fuller, Hubert Pitts, Rutledge Fuller and G. A. Copeland.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. S. C. Hays entertained the bridge club and had as honor guests Mrs. Clarence Happ and Miss Carrie Fuller. At the conclusion of the games both guests were presented with attractive gifts. A salad course, iced tea, hot rolls, and a sweet course were served to the following guests, in addition to the honor guests: Mesdames Thomas Ja-

Baby's Colds
Best treated without dosing—Just rub on
VICKS VAPORUB
FOR COLDS OF ALL THE FAMILY

The Woman's Exchange

We wish to announce that The Woman's Exchange will open next Wednesday, April 3rd, in the office now occupied by the Clinton Hatchery. All members are urged to send in their consignments not later than Monday.

The patronage and interest of the public are cordially solicited.
MRS. JOHN SPRATT.

cobs, A. N. Taylor, J. J. Cornwell, W. A. Johnson, C. E. Galloway, R. C. Adair, J. B. Parrott, A. J. Swansen, Wade Sperry, Wm. Bailey Owens, Frank Kellers, R. W. Phillips, J. A. Chandler, Glenn Fuller, John W. Little, George Cornelson, Reese Young, R. E. Sadler, J. W. Finney, W. J. Bailey, Misses Elizabeth Young and Dorcas' Mason.

INTERESTING SESSION FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

On Monday afternoon the Woman's club held an interesting meeting with the division of the Garden club in charge, Miss Clara Duckett presiding. Mrs. W. J. Bailey gave some helpful hints about the planting of seeds, and Mrs. A. E. Spencer also gave interesting garden notes. Mrs. W. D. Copeland read a poem on "The Old Fashioned Garden" and Miss Mary Lou Bell, with Miss Sybil Burdette as accompanist, sang Joyce Kilmer's "Tree."

The following have offered plants and will be disappointed if not called for by any one who would like to have them:

Mrs. Reese Young, Shasta Daisies.
Mrs. A. E. Spencer, physortegia, larkspur, small chrysanthemums (bronze), daisy, pink and white.

Mrs. W. J. Bailey, Sweet William, Easter roses, daisy chrysanthemums, golden glow.

Mrs. B. H. Boyd, white and pink daisy chrysanthemums.

Miss Clara Duckett, golden glow, Easter roses, larkspur, Confederate violets.

Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Sr., Dorothy Perkins, bronze and white chrysanthemums.

MRS. KNIGHT HOSTESS TO LIMESTONE CLUB

(From The Laurens Advertiser)
The Laurens County Limestone club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Graves L. Knight, Mrs. Ernest Bramlett, Mrs. J. C. Owings, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. C. K. Wright, Mrs. T. C. McGee and Miss Macie McCauley were assistant hostesses.

Robert Quillen, "South Carolina's very own, and one to be proud of," was the subject of the afternoon's program. The meeting was opened with the college song, written by Quillen. The roll call was answered with quotations from "Aunt Het." Miss Macie McCauley then gave an interesting life sketch of Quillen. Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, of Clinton, read a number of extracts from Quillen's sayings, "Correct this sentence." Miss Maggie Martin read a selection from Quillen, after which Mrs. Will Henderson gave Quillen's views on "Americanism."

After a business session, a social hour was enjoyed. Delicious ambrosia and angel cake were served.

PAN-HELLENIC BANQUET A COLORFUL AFFAIR

Pan-Hellenic, the major social function of the year at Presbyterian college, has moved from the future into the past. It has left the ranks of our cherished expectations to join the multitude of those memories that we love to review from time to time. The 1929 Pan-Hellenic celebration has been one of the most delightful and successful that has ever been conceived by the Greek-letter association in recent years.

At nine o'clock Friday night about seventy-five girls were escorted into Judd hall for the banquet. It was a beautiful scene. Never before has the campus of Presbyterian college seen quite the equal of that array of feminine beauty and subtle charm.

The decorations, over which the committee had been laboring for nearly a week, were in excellent taste, and provided a worthy setting for the evening's drama. The long tables, illuminated by the golden glow of scores of candles, were all that was needed to give the whole atmosphere the aspect of a dream. And when the Carolina Gamecock orchestra struck up with the opening notes of their first piece, it became at once apparent that the Pan-Hellenic council had not overlooked a single small point that might have added to the splendor of the occasion.

The menu was equal in every way to the difficult task of living up to the rest of the evening's program. Mrs. Wilson, of Hotel Clinton, showed that she has not lost the fine art of planning meals—and gave ample proof of the reason for having been awarded so many Pan-Hellenic contracts in the past. There was not a hitch, not a flaw. The evening was perfect.

When the curtain was just preparing to fall on the last act of the drama, President Spencer Elliott, of the Pan-Hellenic council, arose to inaugurate the short series of toasts. He spoke a few words of welcome, on behalf of both the council and the student body. Following this speech,

President John McSween, of the college, was called upon for a short toast. In a few words his rollicking good-humor had lightened the whole tone of the evening. After a number of anecdotes and fitting stories, Mr. McSween closed with a few serious words of welcome and of praise. One of his remarks was so fitting that it is passed on here. He complimented the P. C. student body on their excellent taste in picking women; but it was not an extravagant compliment, for even the modest students themselves could not help but agree.

The third and last response of the evening was made by Dr. A. E. Spencer, chairman of the faculty committee on fraternities. His words were few, but the thoughts they expressed were in perfect accord with the spirit of the occasion.

The Gamecocks put life into the whole affair with their excellent playing.

The menu follows:

- Fruit cocktail
- Chicken a la king
- Vermont Turkey
- Carolina rice
- Candied Apples
- Fruit salad
- Pickles
- Block cream
- Giblet gravy
- Spiced Dressing
- Green Peas en Roussette
- Georgia crackers
- Biscuits
- Pan-Hellenic cake
- Iced Tea
- Lemon
- Pan-Hellenic Punch

Local Manager To Attend Convention

A. J. Swansen, manager of the local J. C. Penney company, leaves this week for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the annual spring convention of the organization which will open April 1, in the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

The convention, which is one of fourteen, covering the entire country, will be headed by Lew V. Day, director of personnel, chairman; George H. Bushnell, vice-president; W. A. Reynolds, sales department, and E. C. Ruffner, district manager, will be present from the New York office.

The first two days will be devoted to business sessions in the morning and general conferences between store managers and department managers from the home office in the afternoon.

On Tuesday evening there will be a banquet at the hotel with a short program of inspirational nature followed by the initiation of new managers into the J. C. Penney company ranks.

A feature of the business sessions in the morning program of the first two days will be talks by store managers. Three managers will be selected for each of the fourteen convention points. Following the business sessions, four days will be devoted to spring buying. Special features have been developed in the presentation of ready-to-wear clothing, millinery and other style items of the general J. C. Jenney company lines.

RENNO

We had a real good sermon Sunday afternoon, attended by an unusually large congregation, due to the pretty spring weather which every one is glad to see.

Among the out-of-community visitors who attended service were Mr. John Thompson and daughter, from Newberry, Mrs. Mary Henry, Mrs. Ell Bell, Mrs. H. M. Gear and Horace Gear.

Mr. Will Bell of Greenville, was in Renno last week on business. Mrs. Pauline Chandler and son, Olen, and Mrs. I. A. Dixon were the guests of Mrs. H. V. Jennings Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Osborne has returned to her home near Laurens after visiting relatives here.

The ones who enjoyed a good time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bell Monday night were: Clair and Ray Pitts, Janella and Marguerite Boland, Fay Adair, Horace Gear and Posey Copeland, and Mrs. Maude Hampton.

Mr. Don Copeland went to Little Mountain Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Joseph Jennings was a visitor in Cross Anchor Sunday night.

Mrs. J. H. Bell and Mrs. J. M. Copeland were shoppers in Greenville Friday afternoon.

While doing that spring cleaning, re-cover that floor with Birds Neponset floor covering—the kind with the waxed waterproof back. Buy it by the yard or in rug sizes. Beautiful patterns to select from.

FULLER-SIMPSON FURNITURE CO.

BATH MATS AND TOWELS

Some understanding soul must have created the designs for new bath mats and Turkish towels—for not only have they backgrounds of green, mauve, maize or rose, but motifs themselves turn to all manner of sprightly themes for inspiration.

And we have rollicking dolphins disporting themselves across the bath towel; such subtle suggestions of spring and summer as the katydid and what we take to be the humming bird!

Pleasing color does indeed have power to sooth ruffled early-morning spirits; naive design is always amusing. And since most of us need as much help in this direction as possible—these decorative notes find themselves most welcome in the routine of making ready for the day.

Removes Grease From Wallpaper
Moisten a soft flannel cloth with alcohol and rub gently over grease spots on wall paper and they will disappear.

See us for Kirsch curtain rods and Hartshorn window shades, all colors and sizes.

FULLER-SIMPSON FURNITURE CO.

Free Demonstration Saturday
On Swift's Premium Hams

SANDWICHES WILL BE SERVED FREE

EASTER MARKET SPECIALS

- Swift's Premium Hams, lb. 33c
- Swift's Premium Half-Hams, lb. 35c
- Swift's Premium Sliced Ham, lb. 40c
- Swift's Box Bacon, lb. 47c
- Swift's Bacon, sliced on machine, lb. 43c
- Brookfield Butter, lb. 57c

FRESH FISH

- Silver Salmon Hallibut, lb. 35c
- Nordic Fillets, lb. 35c
- Roe Shad, lb. 40c

Prompt Delivery and Polite Attention.
We Appreciate Your Trade.

CATO'S MARKET

PHONE 287 WALL STREET

For Easter Sunday

To Wear In The Parade Of Fashion---

Easter Sunday... the day of days... that fashionable promenade... you, too, will be dressed in the smartest, for what woman does not display her charm on Easter Day! You'll find these new Frocks and Ensembles especially suited for this style occasion.

Dresses - Ensembles - So Ultra Smart
and So Reasonably Priced

The Frocks are gayer than ever. A comprehensive collection of styles that are copies of much higher priced creations. Every wanted material, color and pattern.

$6.75
to $24.75

The long Coat Ensemble Frocks or the short Jacket Ensemble will prove more popular than ever! Choice of materials fashion them, smartest shades color them and exquisite trimmings make them so utterly exclusive.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT

Copeland-Stone Company

Phone 47

"One Price To All"

Clinton, S. C.