CHILDREN OF CONFEDERACY NAME NEW OFFICERS

The Children of the Confederacy met at the home of Mrs. C. M. Bailey Wednesday afternoon, April 3rd. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Hazel Boland, president; Marguerite Boland, vice-president; Emmie Adair, secretary; Sadie Chandler, treasurer; Caroline Martin, press agent. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, and Miss Florence Bailey assisted her mother in serving refreshments.

IN HONOR OF MISS FULLER

On Friday afternoon Mrs. W. P. Jacobs and Mrs. Elliott Hall, Jr., entertained with a party in honor of Miss Carrie Fuller. The home of Mrs. Jacobs was artistically adorned with azaleas, isis and bridal wreath. About sixty guests were present. A salad course and block cream were served.

On Friday Miss Carrie Fuller was guest of honor at a course luncheon given by Mrs. L. S. McMillian. Four courses were served to the following guests: Mesdames C. E. Galloway, J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Horace Payne, J. J. Cornwell, George Cornelson, Wade Sperry, Glenn Fuller, Goynne Simpson, Thomas Jacobs, J. H. Hunter, H. M. Wilkes, R. E. Sadler, Misses Carrie and Caffa Fuller, Elizabeth Young and Dudley Cozby.

LOVELY TEA FOR FRIENDS

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Bailey, Miss Ruth Bailey and Miss

Maude Sumarel entertained about one hundred and twenty-five guests with a tea. Bridal wreath, red bud, spirea, and lilacs, all lent beauty in decoration. Particularly arresting was the dining table with a cover of Venetian lace and a silver basket of purple iris and graceful sprays of bridal wreath.

Meeting the guests were Mrs. J. A. Bailey and Mrs. B. H. Boyd. Mrs. Spurgeon Sumarel introduced the receiving line composed of Miss Ruth Bailey, Mrs. George Cornelson, Mrs. R. L. Bailey and Miss Maude Sumarel. Entertaining in the living room were Mrs. W. R. Anderson and Mrs. Edward Long.

A salad course, punch, wafers and nuts were served by Mesdames W. C. Oxley, Glenn Fuller, Miles Hunter and Miss Mayme Leake. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. G. W. Bailey and Miss Essie Young.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNERS

Two dinners of the past week were given by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pitts. Quantities of spring flowers arranged with beauty graced the home. Misses Mary and Jeanette Pitts and Madeline Adair assisted the hostess in serving. The guests on Tuesday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilkes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sperry, Mr. and Mrs. John Little, Mr. and Mrs. George Cornelson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fuller.

On Wednesday evening the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Young, Mr. and Mrs. Irby Hipp, Mr. and Mrs. William King, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. ### School Election Is Unanimous

The Goldville school bond election held Tuesday, was unanimously car-ried, not a voice of opposition being raised against it.
 With the rapidly growing popula-tion of the Joanna mill village, pres-ent school facilities have been com-pletely outgrown. The election now carried to relieve the crowded condi-tion, work on a handsome new brick building will begin at once and it will be ready for occupancy when the new session opens next September.
