STUDY CLASSES FOR EASTERN STAR

The chapters of the sixth district, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet at the Masonic Temple Friday evening, April 26th, at 8 o'clock, for a school of instruction. All Eastern Stars are cordially invited to attend this school.

MRS. ELLIS ENTERTAINS "IDLE MOMENTS"

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. G. H. Ellis entertained the members of the Idle Moments club. Beautiful roses adorned the home and those enjoying the afternoon were: Mesdames W. D. Copeland, J. A. Chandler, W. A. Moorhead, J. W. Dillard, Irby Hipp, F. C. Pinson, Spurgeon Sumerel and Gary Dillard. A salad course was served.

PARTY FOR FRIENDS

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. N. Taylor and Mrs. G. W. Gignilliat entertained with a lovely party. A salad course was served to the following guests: Mesdames Roger Coe, J. H. Stone, W. H. Shands, H. M. Young, H. D. Rantin, N. P. Dow, E. J. Adair, Marshall Brown, J. I. Copeland, H. A. Copeland, A. V. Martin, John McSween, A. E. Spencer, H. B. Workman, E. G. Fuller, and Miss Irene Workman. Mrs. Edward Long called for a social hour.

D. A. R. HOLDS APRIL MEETING

The April meeting of the local chapter of D. A. R., was held Thursday afternoon in the chapter room at the public library, twelve members being present. In the absence of the regent and vice-regent, Miss Clara Duckett, ex-regent, presided. Farewell messages from the president-general and the state regent were read by Mrs. D. J. Woods and Mrs. H. D. Henry. Mrs. W. J. Bailey presented an interesting article on the early history of Laurens county, with especially attention to the early post roads in the county. A social half hour followed, during which Mrs. H. D. Henry, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Mrs. Julia Griffin and Mrs. Wm. Bailey Owens served tea and sandwiches.

THIRTEEN CLUB WITH MRS. PITTS

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Raymond Pitts entertained the members of the Thirteen club and a few additional friends. Covers were laid for sixteen guests, and the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Pitts and Mrs. Hubert, served a salad course and punch. The guests were: Mesdames Wade Sperry, Wm. Bailey Owens, R. W. Phillips, Irby Hipp, J. W. Finney, Reese Young, Thomas Jacobs, Bennett Townsend, George Cornelson, Ned Anderson, T. J. Peake, Pringle Copeland, L. B. Dillard, R. C. Adair, Glenn Fuller and Miss Collette Griffin.

IN HONOR OF MISS YOUNG

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Pringle Copeland and Mrs. Horace Payne honored Miss Elizabeth Young with a lovely party. The home of Mrs. Copeland was graced with sprays of rambler roses and wiegelia. A salad course and tea followed by cream and puffs were served to about fifty guests. Mesdames G. A. Copeland, Jack H. Young, Roger Coe and T. P. P. Carson were tea guests. Miss Young was presented with a box of dainty tea napkins.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Clara Duckett and Mrs. Ferdinand Jacobs, Jr., entertained with a lovely party in honor of Miss Elizabeth Young. Wiegelia, roses and gladioli all lent beauty. Two courses were served. About forty were guests for the delightful occasion. Miss Young was presented with an attractive gift.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS GREENVILLE LIBRARIAN

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey presiding. Officers for the music division were nominated and elected with the following result: President, Mrs. W. P. Jacobs; vice-president, Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, Miss Ruth Bailey.

Mrs. Bailey introduced Miss Charlotte Templeton, city librarian of Greenville, and in a most interesting and instructive manner she told of the library work of her city and county. Greenville is the only county in the state that has the extension plan so thoroughly organized. Miss Templeton stated that the day of small paid libraries had passed, and urged general patronage minus minimum subscription fees. Quite a large audience heard Miss Templeton and in her honor a social hour followed when the library committee served sandwiches and tea.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT ROOK AND TEA

On Thursday morning and afternoon Mrs. William King and Mrs. R. W. Johnson entertained a number of friends with rook. In the morning twelve tables were arranged and in the afternoon ten tables. Snapdragons, roses and wiegelia evoked much admiration. A salad course and tea were served to about a hundred guests.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. King and Mrs. Johnson entertained with a tea. They were assisted in entertaining by Mesdames L. L. Copeland, J. W. Finney, Felder Smith, J. B. Parrott, John W. Little, Misses Ina Curry, Eunice Robertson, Maeline Adair, Jeanette Pitts and Joyce Pitts. A salad course and tea were served.

MR. AND MRS. McSWEEN ENTERTAIN CLINTON FRIENDS

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. McSween were "at home" to the people of Clinton. The home recently given to the Presbyterian college by Mr. John H. Young was the scene of this lovely occasion. Wiegelia, roses and sweet peas were beautiful in arrangement. Those assisting Mr. and Mrs. McSween were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gignilliat, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoy, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Woodworth, Dr. J. B. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McMillian, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell Graham, T. H. Grafton, Mr. and Mrs. John Spratt, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Copeland, Mrs. H. A. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunter.

Punch and wafers were served by Miss Louise Simmons, Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Mrs. Bothwell Graham and Mrs. Myrtle Hunter, assisted by Virginia and Frances Spratt, Martha Whitten, Alice Glasgow, Caroline Martin, Julia Bailey, Irene Dillard, Allen and William McSween.

BOLT-PARKER BOLT-DOTTERER
Laurens, April 21.—Wide and cordial interest centers in the announcement by Mrs. J. Warren Bolt of the engagement of her daughters, Miss Katherine Bolt to Oscar DeWitt Parker, and Miss Mary Sue Bolt to William A. Dotterer of Charleston. The weddings will take place in the early summer.

Miss Katherine Bolt is a graduate of Limestone college and has taught in schools in this state and North Carolina, being at present a member of the high school faculty at Florence.

Miss Mary Sue Bolt, since her graduation from Winthrop college three years ago, has been teaching in the Laurens city schools.

Mr. Parker has been a resident of Laurens for several years, coming to this city from Royster, Ga., his native town. He holds a position with the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company.

Mr. Dotterer was educated at the Citadel and is a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is district manager of the Gulf Refining company of Charleston.

McSWEENS HOLD OPEN HOUSE FOR STUDENTS

(From The Blue Stocking)
One of the most colorful and altogether delightful affairs of the academic year in Clinton came on Thursday evening last when President and Mrs. McSween received the faculty and students of Presbyterian college, and the young people of Clinton. The doors of the mansion were thrown open to the guests at nine o'clock and the host and hostess entertained a large representation of both faculty and student body. The house itself is a spacious one, having been presented to the college as a home for the president through the munificence of Mr. John H. Young of this city, as a memorial to his late brother, George W. Young. The home was tastefully decorated with smilax and lovely cut flowers for the occasion and made a most entrancing scene.

After passing through the receiving line the guests were conducted to the anteroom where delightful refreshments were served. The President and Mrs. McSween were assisted in the receiving line by members of the faculty and their wives, who were as follows: Professor and Mrs. A. V. Martin, Professor and Mrs. M. W. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoy, Professor and Mrs. Bothwell Graham, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Spencer, Coach and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Coach and Mrs. L. S. McMillian, Professor and Mrs. Roger L. Coe, Prof. and Mrs. G. W. Gignilliat, Miss Louise Simmons, Dr. D. J. Brimm, and Dr. James B. Kennedy.

On Friday evening an equally pleasant evening was spent in entertaining the older people of Clinton. The reception lasted from 9 to 11 P. M. There was a large attendance from among the many friends of the college.
