Trammell Hurls No Hit, No Run Game

Topping the Mid-State Textile league Saturday in brilliance was the no-hit, no-run game Trammell pitched for, Clinton against Lydia, shutting out his opponents by 4 to 0. Not a ball got out of the infield, and only one man registered his name at first base, being furnished free transportation by the Clinton marvel.

Trammell was rapped for 10 hits in the opening affair with Mollohon the preceding Saturday, allowing that team to run away with a 5 to 3 score. Saturday it was a different tale as Trammell toiled through nine innings with only a single base on balls to mar a perfect day.

Owens, Thornton, and O. Howard each collected a pair of safe blows for the Clintonites, but their deeds were so far overshadowed by Trammell's hurling performance that they didn't seem to count. The six blows were the biggest portion of the day's work with the willow, however.

Score: R H E
Clinton ..... 4 10 1
Lydia ..... 0 0 2

Trammel and Mitchell, Griffin; Scales, Drummonds and Knight.

Blakely Opens Filling Station

The East End Service Station, headed by A. Ross Blakely as owner, is now open and serving the public. It is located on the corner of North Adair and East Florida streets in a new building just erected. In addition to handling gasoline, oils, and accessories, he will carry a complete line of tobaccos, candies, fruits, etc. Mr. Blakely has been connected with filling stations in the city for several years, and his numerous friends wish him every success in his new venture.

RE-NAMED AS OFFICER

At the annual meeting of the Third district council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held last Friday at Ware Shoals, Ed Stevens of this city was re-elected district deputy councillor for the coming year.
