CIRCLE MEETS

WITH MRS. MURPHY
The Ella Riddle circle of Thornwell Memorial Auxiliary met with Mrs. R. G. Murphy on Monday afternoon. An interesting program on Mexico was rendered. Little Miss Caroline Murphy assisted her mother in serving delightful refreshments.

IN HONOR OF

MISS YOUNG
On Wednesday afternoon Miss Elizabeth Young was again honored with a beautiful party when Mrs. Oliver Burroughs and Mrs. A. T. Wilson entertained. About forty guests were present and a dainty salad course followed by a sweet course was served. At the conclusion of the afternoon of bridge Miss Young was presented with an exquisite hand made crepe-de-chine trossseau gift.

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

AT PARTIES
On Thursday and Friday afternoons Mrs. Wade Sperry and Mrs. George Cornelson entertained a number of friends at lovely parties. Roses were used in decoration and ten tables were arranged for the guests who enjoyed several rounds of bridge. A salad course with attractive modernistic sandwiches and tea were served. Mesdames C. M. Bailey, J. L. Carter, B. L. King and Eugene Pinson were tea guests.

CALLED MEETING

OF WOMAN'S CLUB
On Friday afternoon there will be a called meeting of the Woman's club. Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, the president, is calling the meeting at the request of Mrs. J. B. Parrott, who has an important matter to place before the organization. A large attendance is urged.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

TO ENTERTAIN
On the evening of the twenty-third the children of Academy Street school will present their annual commencement entertainment. At eight o'clock "The Kitchen Clock" will be given by the pupils from the first grades through the seventh. The public is cordially invited.

CENTURY CLUB

WITH MRS. WOODS
On Tuesday afternoon the Century club met with Mrs. D. J. Woods, this being the final meeting of the club year. Two splendid papers were prepared and read by Mrs. A. V. Martin and Mrs. W. A. Johnson on "Christian Womanhood" and "Outstanding Women of Today in America." The following were present: Mesdames Marshall Brown, A. M. Copeland, H. A. Copeland, J. I. Copeland, E. L. Glasgow, Bothwell Graham, W. E. Hoy, W. A. Johnson, F. D. Jones, Edward Long, L. R. Lynn, A. V. Martin, A. E. Spencer, John Spratt, H. E. Sturgeon, A. N. Taylor, M. G. Woodworth.

MRS. ELLIS HOSTESS

TO MOTHER'S CLUB
Mrs. G. H. Ellis was hostess to the regular May meeting of the Mother's club and the following program was enjoyed:

"Susan B. Anthony," Mrs. H. M. Young.
"Anna Howard Shaw," Mrs. R. F. Adair.
"Queen Elizabeth," Mrs. John T. Little.
"Queen Victoria," Mrs. W. A. Moorhead.

Mrs. Ellis served sandwiches, doughnuts and tea to the following guests: Mesdames R. F. Adair, T. L. W. Bailey, J. W. Finney, J. H. Hunter, J. T. Little, A. J. Milling, H. E. Sturgeon, J. Lee Young, H. M. Young, Roger Coe, and W. A. Moorhead.

ANNUAL BANQUET

THORNWELL HI

The Thornwell orphanage graduating class of '29, was delightfully entertained by Dr. and Mrs. L. Ross Lynn on last Friday evening in their beautiful new home on South Broad street. Covers were provided for twenty-one. The class colors, pink and white, were effectively carried out in the decorations, with lovely roses, gracilis and ferns adding beauty to tables, nooks and alcoves. The class motto is, "Esse Quam Videri." The seniors dub themselves the "Lucky Thirteen," and are:

Collis Land, Roberta Starke, Ralph Rampey, Evelyn Bobbit, Vera Butler, Margie Morgan, Ruby Conrad, Beatrice Campbell, Mildred Coggins, Corrinne Watson, Howard Stamps, Edward Graham, Louise Frowein.

After a very enjoyable banquet served by the teachers and pupils of the tenth grade, several clever toasts were given with Prof. B. S. Pinson presiding as toastmaster. The program was as follows:

"High-Ways," Dr. L. Ross Lynn.
"By-Ways," Rev. S. P. Bowles.
"We," Collis Land.
"Ride," Louise Frowein.
"Speed," Howard Stamps.
"Race," Vera Butler.
"Fly," Margie Morgan.
"Whither?" Rev. John McSween.

The honor guests were Rev. and Mrs. John McSween, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris, Prof. and Mrs. B. S. Pinson, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. L. Ross Lynn, Rev. Samuel P. Bowles, Miss Dorothy Wright, Miss Sue Spencer, Mrs. Anna Cary and Miss Cora Richey, and Miss Melba Barber of Sumter. Music during the evening was furnished by Miss Eleanor Keels.

Garage Moves Into New Building

The well known firm of Coleman & Anderson is now occupying their attractive new home on Gary street adjoining the D. E. Tribble company plant. The building just completed for this concern, is of brick construction, well lighted and especially adapted for garage purposes.

In their new location, with improved machinery and equipment, they are better prepared to serve the public than ever before. The entire force invites their friends and customers to call and inspect their new plant.

Clinton Hi Defeats Whitmire Team

The boys of Clinton high school won from Whitmire Tuesday afternoon in a baseball game, the score being 10 to 8. Keith Adair pitched a good game and shared batting honors with Marvin Ott, each getting three hits. Thompson of Whitmire, also go three.

The game was rather loosely played, both teams making several errors. The return game will be played at Whitmire this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The team has played five games, winning them all.
