herself. She never lost sight of her goal. Years of hard study followed, and then one night in 1926 Mary Garden fell ill in Chicago and Miss Jackson was called upon to sing Carmen in her stead for the Chicago Civic Opera company. Miss Jackson's triumph was instantaneous and complete. Her ambitions had been realized. Other operatic triumphs followed and her fame is nation-wide.

Her appearance here last night was a distinct musical event. Miss Jackson presented a varied program, featuring a number of "Carmen" selections in costumes.

The program for the remainder of the week, follows:

Thursday Afternoon
Concert — Edna White and her Trumpeters.

Lecture — "England to India by Light Plane" — Captain Denis Rooke. Admission 50c, Children 25c.

W. G. King To Leave Clinton

William G. King and family, will leave next week for Duncan, near Spartanburg, where they will make their future home. Mr. King will enter the mercantile business at Lyman, carrying a complete stock of dry goods, notions, and men and women's wearing apparel. He has been quite busy within the past few days purchasing his new stock and hopes to be able to open the latter part of next week under the firm name of King's. He has sold his home on Centennial street to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. King, and they expect to occupy this residence as soon as it is vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. King and their attractive children, have numerous friends in Clinton who will learn with genuine regret that they are leaving the city. As they go to their new home they will carry the best wishes of these many friends who wish them every possible success.

James Wright Wins High Jump Medal

James Wright of this city, student at Asheville Agricultural school, won the medal the past week offered for the high jump in Asheville. Twelve schools entered the contest and James was winner over all his opponents by a good margin. The medal offered for this athletic event was awarded by the National Business club of Asheville.
