BRIDGE CLUB WITH MRS. ADAIR

Mrs. R. C. Adair entertained the Thursday Bridge club and had as an honor guest, Miss Grace Young of Laurens. Nine tables were arranged for the players and a corsage of sweet peas marked the honoree's place. Sweet peas, hydrangias, pink and blue larkspur were most artistic in arrangement. After a salad course, Mrs. Adair remembered three bride-lect with beautiful gifts, Miss Grace Young, Miss Elizabeth Young and Miss Margaret Copeland.

Mrs. Adair had as tea guests: Mesdames T. J. Blalock, H. D. Rantin, H. M. Young, Frank Adair, D. W. Mason and Miss Janie Lois Lynn. The following were also present from Laurens: Misses Sara Eliza Swygert, Eloise Clardy, Mesdames Ross Young, Frank Cain, Booth Knight, Gus Mason, Douglas Gray, Tom Easterby, Charles Fleming, Wolf Moore and Marchant. Mrs. Raymond Pitts, Mrs. Bannie Parrott and Mrs. B. O. Whitten assisted the hostess in entertaining.

IN HONOR OF HOUSE GUESTS

On Monday evening Billy Owens entertained with a lawn party in honor of his house guests: Misses Dorothy and Mary Scott of Easley, Mary Smith of Greenville, Margaret Moorhead of Goldville, George Hagood, Jerome Finley and Robert Martin of Easley. About fifty guests were present. Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Sadler and Miss Nancy Owens assisted in their entertainment. Irene Dillard and Peggy Sprunt served punch.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. R. E. Sadler entertained in honor of Billy Owens' house guests. Five tables were arranged for rook and a tempting salad and sweet course were served to the following guests: Misses Mary Smith, Dorothy and Mary Scott, Margaret Moorhead, Patricia Giles, Mary Howze Dillard, Copie McCrary, Caroline Martin, Frances Spratt, Mary Emma Speake, George Hagood, Jerome Finley, Robert Martin, Billy Owens, Allen McSween, Bobby Copeland, Guy Pitts, Bob McLees, Robert Vance and Bailey Williams.

CAMPING AT RIVERSIDE

Prof. and Mrs. A. V. Martin are chaperoning a party of campers at Riverside for the week. On Tuesday evening the guests of Billy Owens' house party in addition to Allen and Bill McSween, Henry Dillard and Bobby Copeland, Fred Oxley and Lamar Nelson, joined forces with the campers and a delightful picnic supper and weiner roast were enjoyed.

The camping party is composed of Prof. and Mrs. Martin, Edward Martin, Caroline Martin, Patricia Giles, Mary Emma Speake, Copie McCrary, Frances Spratt, Kathryn and Elizabeth Blakely, Myrtis Holland, Nannie Sue Adair, Willis Mae Wilson, Mary Ella Bailey, Mary Howze and Irene Dillard.

IN HONOR OF MISS YOUNG

On Saturday Mrs. J. I. Copeland honored Miss Elizabeth Young with a course luncheon. Sweet peas and delphinium lent touches of beauty. Each guest was presented with a cup towel to hem and embroider and these were later presented to the honoree. Misses Margaret Copeland and Marion Copeland assisted the hostess. Those present were: Miss Elizabeth Young, Mesdames Jack H. Young, G. A. Copeland, H. A. Copeland, J. Lee Young, A. O'Daniel, H. D. Henry, W. D. Copeland, Myrtle Hunter, Maggie Hays, Lee Hunter, A. M. Copeland and W. H. Shands.

Miss Elizabeth Young was attractively entertained on Wednesday morning when Mrs. W. H. Shands and Mrs. Roger Coe honored her with a butterfly luncheon. Most artistic was the table carrying out this scheme, and particularly pretty were the places marked for the two brides, Miss Elizabeth Young and Miss Margaret Copeland. Both were presented with exquisite handkerchiefs. The following were guests on this occasion: Misses Elizabeth Young, Margaret Copeland, Edith Mills, Willine Spann, Mesdames Marshall Brown, DeSausure Edmunds, D. J. Woods, Howard DuBose, Horace Payne, Jack H. Young, Bynum Betts, and Lonnie McMillian, Mrs. A. O'Daniel and Miss Essie Young assisted the hostesses.

FOR MISS COPELAND

Miss Lena Copeland was honored on Monday evening when the choir of the Methodist church entertained at the home of Mrs. B. C. Blalock. All brought a lovely gift for the honoree. Block cream and cake were served to the following guests: Misses Eden and Green, Lois Blakely, Mrs. Stanley Pitts, Messrs. G. W. Hollingsworth and B. M. Arrington.

Miss Mattie L. Copeland of Renno was hostess at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon, complimenting Miss Lena Copeland, popular bride-elect, whose marriage to Russell Cooper is to take place at the Methodist church this afternoon at five o'clock.

The guests were entertained with music and by a group of children who presented an interesting program from a stage arranged in the yard. Following the program, Miss Copeland was ushered into the dining room where she discovered a table spread with beautiful and useful gifts from the guests present. The dining room was lovely with its color note of pink and white. Most attractive was the dining table with a cover of Venetian lace. A salad course with iced tea was served.

On Thursday evening Mrs. L. L. Copeland entertained with a dinner party in honor of Miss Lena Copeland. Gladiola and sweet peas were effective decorations. A corsage of sweet peas marked the bride's place. Those present were: Misses Lena Copeland, Mary Lizzie Owens, Mattie L. Copeland, Esther Holland, Aline Eden, Alma Ruth Cooper, William McMillian, Clair Pitts, P. M. Pitts, Jr., Clayte Ray, Posey Watts Copeland and Russell Cooper.

McKNIGHT-MELTON

The following taken from The Spartanburg Herald will be of interest to many friends and relatives in Clinton: "A marriage which came as a great surprise, and is of interest to their many friends throughout the two Carolinas, was that of Miss Virginia Copeland McKnight and Robert Cooper Melton of Charleston, who were married yesterday afternoon at the manse of Rev. W. L. Mullikin. "Mrs. Melton, who attended the Frank Evans high school, is the charming and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McKnight of Norwood avenue.

"Mr. Melton is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Melton of Blackstock. He is a graduate of the class of 1926 of Wofford college, and for the past three years has been teaching in Charleston."
