Home Demonstration Notes

Miss Mary Shaw Gilliam, Agent

During the month of June each year the State Short Course is held at Winthrop college for club women and girls. Each county is allowed twelve representatives—6 club girls and 6 club women—to be entertained by the college for ten days. The delegates leave June 13th to be away until June 21st.

The girls from Laurens county were selected from the results of their projects conducted under the county agent during 1928.

The women were selected on the basis of cooperation in curb marketing and interest shown in home demonstration work.

Next year the representatives will be selected from communities where organized clubs have been conducted by the home demonstration agent. This is a goal toward which each club member may strive for the 1930 trip to Winthrop.

The following will represent Laurens county this year:

Club Women:
Mrs. C. L. Waldrep, Lanford Station.

Mrs. C. W. Stewart, Fountain Inn, Durbin section.

Miss Alice R. Poole, Laurens.

Miss Ruth Todd, Barksdale.

Mrs. T. P. Brown, Laurens.

Miss Rosa Sumerel, Gray Court, Hickory Tavern section.

Club Girls:
Katherine Roper, Laurens, Hickory Tavern section.

Virginia Phillips, Ware Shoals, Hickory Tavern section.

Margaret South, Ware Shoals, Poplar Springs section.

Edith Coggins, Laurens, New Prospect section.

Katherine Langston, Barksdale.

Genevieve Jones, Waterloo.

The county home demonstration agent will accompany these delegates and remain at Winthrop throughout the entire time.

WHY HE OPPOSES TEXTILE UNIONS

A. L. Crowder of Goldville, Says Organizers Are Wreckers of the Industry.

The following communication from A. L. Crowder, mill operative of Goldville, appeared in The Greenville News a few days ago:

The announcement was made in your paper recently that over 16,000 mill people had organized in the Textile Workers union. Now to begin, I am no mill owner nor do I own any mill stock, but to be plain, I am a speeder, work for my living as thousands here do, but that statement telling of the progress made in securing members to the textile union interested me quite a bit.

Now, Mr. Mill Worker, will you listen to reason by one who has watched these so-called emancipators and have noted what they have done toward bettering our conditions and raising wages. Don't think for a minute that they are really interested in us or our conditions, for they are not. Or at least they have not been in the past.

I will be brief and state only facts as they are and can't be denied. We will take Columbus, Ga. Some years ago what did they do there? Here is what happened. They kept lying and scheming till they had a total membership of 8,600 at $1.50 per and 25 cents a week dues. Now figures won't lie. Multiply 8,600 by $1.50 and see what it makes. Then add 25 cents a week for a year, or $13.50 for each of the 8,600 members. Then see what you have. Well, they pulled a strike there; every mill was closed down tight and for ten weeks there was riot, bloodshed and shame heaped on the otherwise good people and did they win? Here is what happened. The leaders, I mean Dean, Collan, old lady Kelleher and a few others called a meeting on Sunday at Skeeter Flat theatre and told those poor betrayed people to go to their jobs if they could and if not seek other work. The whole bunch left town at once and it was good that they did for the ire of those people was stirred up when they saw they had been fleeced by those so-called angels of mercy. So even till yet the folks remember and talk about it. Columbus has never gotten over it nor will it soon.

My sole interest in this is, as I said, that of a mill worker and anything pertaining to one mill worker surely interests another. Now these are facts and can be proven. Take the last big strike they pulled in New Bedford, Mass. last year. Did they win or not? They had nearly a hundred mills shut down and quit cold and told those poor devils as they did in Columbus, Ga., to go back to work or go to hell. That is their policy. So, now in New Bedford if they would mention union they would be lynched almost. South Carolina mill worker, don't be a goat and feed these radicals and buy their wine and then get the horse laugh.

I think that if the real truth were known these folks really don't want to do a thing but wreck the industry here so their fellow men, the Negro, Bohunk, Dago, Portuguese, Bull Dogs, etc., who are the majority of the New England mill workers, can have a job, as the industry there is "shot." There are only about one-third of the mills running up there and if these radicals can wreck and demoralize the Southern mills those in New England can start up once more and work those poor devils thirteen hours a day or night as they do in New Bedford, Mass. That is where they say the short hours and long wages are, but I will bet McMahon a dime to a ginger cake that his union or any other can never fool even those ignorant Bohunks up there. So South Carolina mill workers, look before you leap and as you know, it is better to be safe than sorry.

A. L. CROWDER.

Goldville.

FELT BAD AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS ago, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation.

"I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."—Mrs. G. C. Leary, 108 North Alston Ave., Durham, N. C.
