ANDERSON CLUB WITH MRS. McSWEEN

The Courtland club of Anderson, met on Tuesday with Mrs. John McSween. Luncheon covers were laid for fifteen visitors from Anderson and for Mesdames A. V. Martin, John Spratt, H. E. Sturgeon and W. A. Johnson. The McSween home was beautiful in its decoration of garden flowers.

FOR MRS. BAILEY AND MISS YOUNG

On Friday morning Mrs. J. H. Witherspoon entertained at a bridge party in honor of Mrs. L. M. Bailey of Spartanburg, and Miss Elizabeth Young. A series of progressions were enjoyed, after which a salad course was served to about fifty guests. The honorees and Miss Margaret Copeland were presented with attractive souvenirs of the occasion.

FOR YOUNG-DICK WEDDING PARTY

Last night before the rehearsal the Young-Dick bridal party, together with relatives and a few friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. H. A. Copeland, aunt of the bride. A buffet supper was served to the seventy guests. The custom of cutting the wedding cake was remembered as a feature of this delightful social function.

LOVELY TEA IN LAURENS

Outstanding among the social events of Laurens and Clinton was the tea given by Misses Ada Holmes and Janie Holmes Davis in Laurens on Saturday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Thompson of Columbia, Miss Grace Young of Laurens, and Mrs. Benet Townsend of Clinton. In addition to Misses Ada Holmes and Janie Holmes Davis, Young, Thompson and Mrs. Townsend, the receiving line consisted of Misses Elizabeth Young, Margaret Copeland, Eunice Patton, Emmie Lou Washington, Ida Mae Parker and Helen Asbill. A color scheme of green and white was effectively carried out both in the arrangement of flowers and in the refreshments served. More than one hundred seventy-five guests called during the afternoon.

GODFREY-ASBILL BRIDAL PARTY ENTERTAINED

After the rehearsal Friday evening the Godfrey-Asbill wedding party together with a few intimate friends were entertained by Mrs. Bessie Godfrey, mother of the bride. Cutting the bridal cake proved a source of exciting amusement for the guests. Mints and ice cream were served by Mrs. W. T. Rutledge assisted by Mrs. Ansel Godfrey and Miss Janie Lois Lynn.

Prior to the Godfrey-Asbill wedding Mrs. Ansel Godfrey entertained the wedding party on Saturday at high noon. Four tables of bridge were arranged for the players. After the game a refreshing ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Young.

WILLIAMS-AYCOCK

The following announcement appearing recently in the Montgomery, Ala., Advertiser, will be of interest to the Clinton friends of the groom, a former resident of this city:

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Anderson Wilson of Dothan, Ala., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Williams, to Charles Brantley Aycock of Birmingham, the wedding to take place late in June.

Mr. Aycock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ruffin Aycock of Jonesville, S. C., and has made his home in Birmingham for the past several years. He was educated at the Presbyterian college, Clinton, S. C., and at the University of South Carolina.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Alabama Womans college, Montgomery, with the degree of bachelor of arts, from Hood college, Frederick, Md., with the degree of bachelor of music, and from Columbia university with the degree of master of arts.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF CLINTON GIRL

York, June 16.—Hundreds of people in York county and other parts of South Carolina will be interested in the announcement from Clinton, by Mrs. H. F. McQuiston of the engagement of her daughter, Ruth, to George W. Williams, Jr., of York, the wedding to take place in August.

Miss McQuiston is teacher of piano in the city schools here, is organist at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church and is a highly accomplished musician. She is a graduate of Chicora college. A young woman of exceptionally winning personality, she is liked by all who know her.

Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams of York. While holding a position in Rock Hill, he still makes his home in York. He was educated at Erskine college. He is a young man of many admirable qualities and is popular with a wide circle of friends.

SIMMONS-BLAKELY WEDDING

A wedding of cordial interest to a host of Clinton friends was solemnized last Tuesday when Miss Myrtle Simmons and Gilbert Blakely were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in Montrose, Ga. The bride was formerly a teacher in the city schools and during her residence here established a host of friends who are pleased that Clinton is to be her future home. The groom is associated with his father in business and is one of the city's enterprising and successful young business men.

The following account of the wedding is taken from The Atlanta Journal of Sunday past:

Montrose, Ga.—Centering the interest of a large circle of friends and relatives was the wedding of Miss Myrtle Simmons, of Montrose, to Gilbert B. Blakely, of Clinton, S. C., which was quietly solemnized Tuesday evening, June 11, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. E. D. Gelly, of Woodville, former pastor of Montrose Baptist church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

An altar was arranged in the living room for the scene of the wedding, and the house was tastefully decorated throughout with ferns and Shasta daisies.

The bride, a lovely blonde, was becomingly gowned in navy blue—with accessories to match.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Blakely left for a trip through Tennessee and North Carolina, and upon their return will make their home in Clinton.

Mrs. Blakely is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Simmons. She is a graduate of the Georgia State College for Women.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr.

and Mrs. John T. Blakely, of Clinton, S. C., and is prominent in business and social circles there.

MANY FAVORS FOR BRIDES-ELECT

A lovely affair was the four table bridge party given on Saturday morning by Miss Nannelle Blalock honoring Misses Elizabeth Young and Ruth McQuiston. The home was most attractive with a profusion of Queen Anne's lace. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Pete R. yal of Greenwood, Misses Emmie Lou Washington, Sarah Dunlap, Doris Young and Grace Young of Laurens. Miss Janie Lois Lynn, Mrs. H. D. Rantin, and Mrs. Henry Young assisted the hostess in serving a salad course. Each of the four brides-elect were presented with a gift.

On Tuesday morning Miss Emmie Pitts entertained in honor of the summer brides. After several interesting bridge progressions, a salad course was served. Misses Elizabeth Young, Grace Young, Ruth McQuiston and Margaret Copeland were honored on this occasion.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Reese Young entertained in honor of Miss Elizabeth Young and Miss Margaret Copeland. Four tables were arranged for rook. Each of the honorees was presented with a box of correspondence cards.

Complimenting Misses Margaret Copeland and Elizabeth Young, Mrs. John T. Young entertained with nine tables of bridge on Wednesday morning. A pink and green color scheme was carried out both in the flowers arranged in the house and also in the refreshments served. Mrs. Young was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ansel Godfrey, Mrs. J. H. Hunter and Mrs. Reese Young. The hostess presented a vase to Miss Young and a bell to Miss Copeland.

Mrs. Lonnie S. McMillian was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a bridge party honoring Miss Elizabeth Young. Nine tables were arranged for bridge. Mesdames J. Lee Young, A. O'Daniel, W. H. Shands, Jack H. Young, A. M. Copeland, H. A. Copeland and Miss Essie Young called after cards. The hostess served a salad course. Handsome cut glass vases were presented to Miss Young and Miss Margaret Copeland.

On Thursday morning Miss Emmie Sullivan entertained at her home in Laurens with a four table bridge party, complimenting Miss Elizabeth Young. Mesdames Ansel Godfrey, Horace Payne and Miss Margaret Copeland were among the guests. Miss Sullivan presented a dainty handkerchief case to the guest of honor.

Misses Elizabeth Young and Ruth McQuiston were honored with a five table bridge party given in Abbeville by Miss Mary White. Miss Margaret Copeland and Mrs. Ansel Godfrey were also guests of the occasion. A salad course with mint shербert was served to the players. The two honor guests and Miss Copeland were presented attractive gifts.

Misses Ruth McQuiston and Elizabeth Young of Clinton, and Misses Mary Sue and Marion Bolt of Laurens, were honored by Miss Doris Young with a bridge party given at her home in Laurens on Tuesday morning. A two-course luncheon was served the twenty-four guests.

Among the many charming social events of the week was the six table bridge party given on Thursday by Misses Clara and Frances O'Daniel, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Young. The rooms were artistically decorated in pink ragged robins, larkspur, and rosebuds. After cards were laid aside Mesdames Jack H. Young, H. A. Copeland, J. Lee Young, Frank Kellers, W. H. Shands, D. J. Woods and J. H. Hunter called.

Miniature corsages of pink roses marked the places of the guests. Miss Young was presented two dainty guest towels and Miss Margaret Copeland a salad set.
