THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1929

THE CLINTON CHRONICLE, CLINTON, S. C.

PAGE THREE

SOCIETY EVENTS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN Miss Isabel Witherspoon, Society Editor. Telephone 306

THIRTEEN CLUB WITH MRS. COPELAND

MISS McQUISTON HONORED IN GREENWOOD

on Friday morning. Misses Nannelle for a Garden." Blalock, Ruth McQuiston and Mrs. L. M. Bailey motored to Greenwood for this event.

IN HONOR OF MRS. BLAKELY

Mrs. Felder Smith was hostess at five table bridge party on Wednesday morning and a four table bridge party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Gilbert Blakely.

The home was made beautiful with a profusion of gladioli. Green was carried 'out as the predominant' color. A salad course was served by the hostess on both occasions. Mrs. Blakely was presented with attractive gifts.

MRS. HAYS ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

12.

10

N

On Saturday morning Mrs. S. C. Hays was hostess to a number of her friends. Beautiful garden flowers tastefully arranged formed the setting for this charming bridge party. After cards were laid aside, a salad course was served. Among the out-oftown guests enjoying Mrs. Hays' hospitality was Mrs. W. S. Glenn, Jr., of Spartanburg, and Mrs. James Sprunt of Dillon.

EASTERN STARS MEET TOMORROW

of Eastern Star, will meet Friday

GRIFFIN-McMEEKIN

Cross Hill, June 23 .--- A marriage of Mrs. G. P. Copeland delightfully en- interest was that of Miss Josie Griftertained the Thirteen club on Friday fin to Albert McMeekin of Monticello, morning. A salad course followed by on Tuesday, at the home of the bride's an ice course was served to the guests. parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Griffin.

Previous to the ceremony Harry B. Kilgore of Woodruff, accompanied by Miss Della Parks, also fo Woodruff, Miss Ruth McQuiston was the honor sang "Because." Griffin Pinson, nephguest at a beautiful bridge party giv- ew of the bride, sang "At Dawning," en by Mrs. Pete Royal in Greenwood and Mrs. R. L. Crisp sang "Thank God

> To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Connie Turner, the bride and groom entered and stood before the altar of ivy and Queen Anne's lace. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. McKinnon, the bride's pastor.

> Mrs. McMeekin is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Griffin. She was educated at Agnes Scott college. Decatur, Ga., and has taught in Cross Hill for a number of years. She is a young woman of refinement, modesty and beautiful character.

The groom is a son of the late F: R McMeekin, of Fairfield county. He is a graduate of Clemson college, and served as an ensign in the U.S. navy during the World war. He is manager of the Monticello Mercantile Co.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for a wedding trip through the Shenandoah valley and other points.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Hon. J. J. McSwain and Mrs. McSwain, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Mc-Swain, and Dixon D. Davis, all of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mc-Swain of LaFram, Harry B. Kilgore and Miss Della Parks of Woodruff, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Seymour.

BOOZER-SEASE

Ala.

Jas. B. Parrott chapter No. 9, Order friends, was the marriage in Prosperi-Of cordial interest here to their In honor of Miss Peggy Sprunt of Dillon, Miss Jamie Little entertained ty last Saturday of Miss Margaret Boozer of Silverstreet, and Thomas M. Sease of this city. The bride was a member of the Clinton high school faculty for the past year and has many friends here who are glad to know that Clinton is to be her future home. The groom is connected with the C. N. & L. railway and likewise is esteemed by many friends. The following account of the wed-In honor of Miss Julia Lynn, bride- ding is taken from a Newberry paper daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Ben Fraser of Georgetown and Rob- long, sweeping veil of silk net made | Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ross D. Patton of this city, to the Rev. Wil- ert Fraser of Florence. At the con- cap fashion and decorated with many Young and daughters, Misses Doris liam H. Dendy of Andrews, N. C., clusion of this number the organist, orange blossoms, in her grace and and Grace, Mrs. Haskell Sanders, Mrs. which was solemnized Wednesday Mrs. J. F. Jacobs. Jr., accompanied by sweetness which characterizes her. Homer Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. vening at the manse.

Prior to the ceremony a lovely pro- passed into the strains of the bridal usual in its antique beauty, a gift all of Laurens, Miss Mildred Hope of gram of nuptial music was rendered, chorus to which the bridal party en- of the groom. This brooch had adorned Mrs. M. L. Roper, pianist, and David tered as follows: First, four dainty generations of Frasers, maternal an-Burnside, violinist, gave a number of little girls, Linda Copeland of Colum- cestors of the groom. Her bouquet was and Mrs. W. H. Mills of Clemson, and instrumental selections; after which bia, Frances Simpson of Clinton, Alli- of bride roses and valley lilies. The Rev. and Mrs. John Davis of Kingsthe Rev. M. B. Dendy of Haleyville, son DuBose of Andrews and Louise Ja- bride was met at the altar by the tree. Ala., sang "Until," and Mrs. Annie cobs of this city, dressed in rosebud groom and his best man, Hugh Dick,

Parker of this city, sang "All for You" maline, wearing dainty maline wreaths his brother, of Charlotte, N. C., where on their heads and carrying wee show- the impressive ring ceremony was and "O Promise Me." The ceremony was performed by the er bouquets, passed down the side performed by Bishop Kirkman Fin-Rev. J. G. Patton of College Park, aisles. Through the center aisle came lay of Columbia, assisted by Dr. D. J.

who used the ring ceremony.

reception was held. The receiving line Copeland and Leland Young of Clinwas composed of members of the wed- ton. Next came the bridesmaids and is a son of Mrs. Margaret Fraser Dick ding party, Mrs. E. D. Patton, the groomsmen as follows: Miss Mary and the late James McDowell Dick of bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Frances Jones of Newberry, and Jack Dendy of Hartwell, Ga., the bride- Meadows of Kingstree, Miss Emmic grooms' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. L. Sullivan of Laurens, and Bill Cooper Ross Lynn of Clinton, the Rev. P. L. of Kingstree, Miss Agnes Fraser of Grier of Greenwood, and four brides- Charleston, and Julius Chandler of elect of this city, Miss Emmie Lou Sumter, Miss Edith Mills of Clemson Washington, Miss Grace Young, Miss and Karl Kinard of Sumter, Miss Katherine Bolt and Miss Mary Sue Frances O'Daniel of Clinton and Le-Bolt. The bride's book was presided land Edmunds of Asheville.

over by Miss Janie Lois Lynn of Clin-The bridesmaids were lovely in their dresses of pink maline made with

The Rev. and Mrs. Dendy left on a long bodices and bouffant skirts honeymoon trip to Richmond, Wash- reaching the ankles, with graceful tafington and Virginia Beach, after which feta bows draping the back, carrying they will be at Courtland, Ala., where armfuls of lovely Columbia roses. the bridegroom has accepted a call to After these entered the dame of the First Presbyterian church. Out-of-town guests for the wedding ville, wearing an exquisite dress of orwere as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. chid taffeta made more effective by Dendy, Miss Sara Dendy, Mr. and the lovely pink roses which she car-

Mrs. A. B. Harper, all of Hartwell, ried. Ga., the Rev. M. B. Dendy of Haleyville, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wright and Miss Jean Wright of Great Falls, the Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Patterson of Clover, Mrs. H. B. Laws and Mrs. William Stack of Greensboro, N. C., the Rev. Charles Cureton of Converse, Elmer Alford of Charlotte, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. L. Ross Lynn, Miss Janie Little Reese Young of this city, Lois Lynn, and Miss Elizabeth Lynn of Clinton, the Rev. Lonnie McMahan of Canton, N. C., the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert L. Laws of Alexander City,

YOUNG VISITOR IS HONORED

Atlanta, grandfather of the bride, little Eva Gary Copeland of Columbia, Woods, pastor of the bride. who untied the ribbons for the junior Immediately after the ceremony a bridesmaid and groomsman, Sara honor, Mrs. Ansel Godfrey of Abbe-

Following next was Miss Margaret

Copeland of this city, maid of honor, in her dress of green maline fashioned carried pink roses. Then the tiny flower girls, Byrd McMillian and Henrietta Young, of this city, in pink, deep in a rose.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack H. Young of this city. The Rev James McDowell Dick Sumter, and is rector of Christ Episcopal church of Pulaski, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick have a host of friends who wish for them sincere happiness.

Mrs. Dick is the only daughter of Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride on Broad Street in honor of this happy couple. The beautiful presents, a wide assortment of silver, glass and china, acclaimed the popularity of this young couple.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. Ben Fraser, Jr., and son, of Charleston, T. P. Mc-Gill of Pulaskia, Va., H. F. Dick of Charlotte, Frank Harrison and Thomas Maxwell of Abbeville, Hallie Buchanan of Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Abbaly of Greenville, Miss Martha Speer of Piedmont, Sam Jones and Misses Marion and Frances Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Copeland of Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Copesimilarly to the bridesmaids. She also land and daughter, and N. A. Young Hulls, per sack 90c of Columbia, Jack Meadors and mother of Kingstree, Bill Cooper of Kingstree, Rev. and Mrs. Hawkins of Sanscattered petals from their baskets. ford, N. C., Dr. and Mrs. DuBose and Miss Allison DuBose of Andrews, Mrs. brought in the wedding ring buried Mary B. Copeland and Miss Daisy Bowen of Laurens, Miss Mildred Ev-Then came the bride on the arm of ans of Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe her father, Dr. Jack Holland Young, Little and Miss Ferguerson of Abbecharming and beautiful in her gown ville, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Todd of of soft clinging chiffon, wearing a Simpsonville, Mr. and Mrs. L. B.

the Rev. Frank Hawkins on the violin, She wore a brooch of pearls un- Copeland and Miss Buford Copeland, Jonesville, Miss Edith Mills and Dr.

BOUNDLESS ENERGY

Can be yours to enjoy and make the most of if your eliminations are free and natural.

LIQUID ALBOLENE The original, genuine Russian mineral oil, is an internal lubricant which aids Nature-taken regularly it prevents constipation and all the evils which follow in its wake and enables you to retain the energy and zestfulness of youth. In quarter pint sizes at 35 cts and pints at $1.00.

Sadler-Owens Pharmacy Corner at Union Station Phones 377 and 400

OUR PRICES ARE ALWAYS RIGHT Meal, per sack $2.00 Bulk Hulls, per 100 lbs. 80c

SUBSCRIBE TO THE CHRONICLE

night at eight o'clock for its regular meeting. All members are urged to be present as meetings during July and August will be suspended and it is the desire of the chapter to close all pending matters, and to arrange for the regular yearly picnics.

SHOWER FOR MISS LYNN

elect, a miscellaneous shower was giv- of Tuesday: en at the home of Miss Margaret Hollis on Wednesday evening. After ener in less than an hour."

Among the guests were Misses Violet cousin, the Rev. J. V. Long. and Blanche Crisp of Mountville.

LUNCHEON FOR YOUNG-DICK BRIDAL PARTY

pretty luncheon.

For the remainder of the wedding live, after a wedding trip. party miniature bridesmaids and groomsmen were appropriately placed. sister, his brother, Elton Sease, and A yellow and white motif was car- A. P. Pugh, a close friend, went to ried out in every detail.

Mesdames J. H Hunter, Eugene Bethea, L. D. McCrary, W. H. Shands, PATTON-DENDY guests.

AT AND BELOW Cost Sale

Prosperity, June 24 .- A marriage tertaining contests had been enjoyed which came as a surprise and of wide for an hour, little Martha Lou Blake- interest is that of Thomas M. Sease ny dressed as a dainty fairy, informed of Prosperity to Miss Margaret Booz-Miss Lynn that "there will be a show- er of Silverstreet. The young couple, accompanied by a few close friends.

An ice course was served by the drove to Gilbert Saturday morning, hostesses Misses Bernice Owensby, where the ceremony was performed at Margaret Hollis and Mrs. J. A. Slice. the Lutheran parsonage by the bride's MISS COPELAND

Sidney Boozer of Silverstreet. She luncheon at high noon on Tuesday. was educated at Newberry college and At one o'clock Thursday Mrs. J. Lee the past session she taught school at Miss Grace Sease, the bridegroom's J. Cornwell.

Gilbert to witness the marriage.

J. L. Davidson and Misses Essie | Laurens, June 22 .- Of cordial inter-Young and Clara O'Daniel served a est to a large circle of friends throughfour course luncheon to the forty out the Carolinas and Georgia was the For the sixteen other guests cupid wedding of Miss Eunice Patton, placecards were arranged.

at a rook party on Wednesday morning. Louise Jacobs assisted the hostess in serving a salad course to the following: Misses Peggy Sprunt, Carrie Mae Phillips, Mildred Whitten, Catharine Graham, Nancy Young. Irene Dillard, and Letitia Jones.

Miss Peggy Sprunt was again honored at a rook party on Tuesday morning at which Miss Carrie Mae Phillips was hostess. Thos who enjoyed the game were: Misses Peggy Sprunt, Florence Bailey, Frances Bailey, both of Augusta, Mildred Whitten, Jamie Little, Nancy Young and her guest, Sarah Wayland of Charlotte. After cards a salad course was served.

LUNCHEON FOR

As a lovely favor to Miss Margaret Mrs. Sease is the accomplished and Copeland, bride-elect, Miss Marion attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Copeland entertained at a beautiful Covers' were laid for seventeen members of the college contingent in-Young entertained the Young-Dick Clinton. Mr. Sease is the eldest son of cluding: Misses Margaret Copeland, bridal party and a few friends at a Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sease. He is a suc- Marion Copeland, Christine Peake, cessful business man of sterling quali- Fredna Shockley, Cleon Pitts, Alden The tables were arranged amid a ties and now holds a position with the Bailey, Nell Clapp, Margaret Finley, setting of garden flowers. A minia- Columbia, Newberry and Laurens rail- Rosanna Vance, Rosalie Jones, Alma ture bride and groom marked the way company, being stationed at Clin- Davis, Sarah Copeland, Katharine place of Mr. Dick and Miss Young. | ton, where the young couple go to King, Janie Lois Lynn, Ellen Copeland, Isabel Witherspoon and Mrs. J.

> The luncheon table was beautifully appointed with lace covers. A large white bell with festoons of white ribbons on which were tied cupids was suspended over the center. The place of Miss Copeland, the honoree, was marked by a large pink maline bow.

At the conclusion of a four course luncheon served by Mrs. J. I. Copeland and Mrs. H. A. Copeland, Miss Margaret Copeland was summoned to the front door where she found a large basket filled with trousseau presents -gifts from the guests.

YOUNG-DICK WEDDING A BRILLIANT EVENT

A wedding of outstanding interest throughout the state was that of Miss Sara Elizabeth Young and Rev. James church of this city.

Most attractive was the church on this occasion, made beautiful by Mrs. A. V. Martin and Miss Clara Duckett, where profusions of graceful ferns, palms and tall baskets of pink hydran-

Hot Weather Specials

REFRIGERATORS - ICE BOXES - ICE CREAM FREEZERS — WATER COOLERS — PORCH FURNITURE - JAR TOPS AND RUBBERS

High Quality – Low Prices

Alaska Freezers-Quickest and Best.

Glider Porch Swings.

WHITE MOUNTAIN REFRIGERATORS AND ICE BOXES

