Our Duty And Others

It is the duty of the banker to keep the need of THRIFT before the people of this nation. It is your duty to practice THRIFT by putting aside regularly some part of your income. Increase it in prosperous times, but always save something.

Every courtesy is shown by this bank to both small and large depositors alike.

Our Unswerving Purpose

Just as in any other business, we depend not upon the number of customers we can get but upon how many we can HOLD. That is the real test.

The aim of everybody in our bank, therefore — right down the line from the president on — is to give you a service that will make you want to "keep coming."

We regard every customer as a possible friend.
