

SOCIETY EVENTS

OF
INTEREST TO WOMEN

Miss Isabel Witherspoon, Society Editor. Telephone 306

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Jacks announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida, to Dr. Rufus C. Morgan of this city, the wedding to take place in July.

CHICORA ALUMNAE TO MEET IN LAURENS

The Laurens County Chicora Alumnae association will hold its regular meeting in Laurens on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Ruth Sullivan. All present Chicora students, graduates and former students, are invited to attend the meeting.

MRS. BLAKELY IS HONORED

In compliment to Mrs. Gilbert Blakely, Mrs. R. W. Phillips was hostess to a bridge party on Friday morning. Artistic vases of gladioli and daisies beautified the home.

Eight tables were arranged for the players. The hostess, assisted by Mesdames Felder Smith, John W. Finney and Horace Payne, served a salad course. A mayonnaise set was presented to the honoree.

PICNIC AT HORSESHOE FALLS

Among the social events of the week which have assembled the young people of the city was a picnic given at Horseshoe Falls on Monday evening. More than fifteen couples enjoyed this festivity which was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cornwell.

THIRTEEN CLUB WITH MRS. JACOBS

The Thirteen club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr. Beside the club members Mesdames Morgan Todd and Harvey Brannen enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Jacobs. A salad course was served to the guests.

MRS. SIMPSON HOSTESS TO MOTHERS' CLUB

Mrs. Hugh Simpson was hostess to the Mothers' club on Thursday afternoon. Each of the members observed the roll call with the name of an artist. The following papers were read: "American Music," by Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey.

"The Language of Painting" by Mrs. R. E. Jones. "Modern Drama," by Mrs. A. J. Milling.

The hostess served a salad course with iced tea.

MRS. SHEALY ENTERTAINS AT COUNTRY CLUB

Mrs. F. K. Shealy was hostess at a seven table bridge party at the country club on Tuesday morning. The spacious rooms in which the game was played were beautified by artistic arrangements of garden flowers. A salad course was served to the guests by Misses Sadie Chandler, Collette Davis, Medora Browning and Agnes Shealy. Again on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Shealy entertained at the club with a rook party.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR VISITOR

In honor of Miss Elizabeth McCants of Ninety-Six, the guest of Mrs. Frank F. Hicks, Miss Emma Little entertained on Tuesday morning at a bridge party. Summer flowers were arranged throughout the rooms in which the game was played. Those enjoying the social hour were: Misses Elizabeth McCants, Ellen Copeland, Christine Peake, Jeanette Crawford, Willie Rudd Fuller, Cleon Pitts, Nena McSwain, Clara O'Daniel, Isabel Witherspoon, Grace League and Hazel Boland. A salad course was served by Misses Kate Milam and Jamie Little.

LYNN-CRISP WEDDING

A marriage of interest to their many friends was that of Miss Julia Vivian Lynn to Jesse Roy Crisp, which was solemnized yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lynn on Owens street. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Long, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, in the presence of a few close friends and relatives.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crisp left for a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Nashville where the groom holds a responsible clerical position with the Washington Hosiery company.

The bride has made Clinton her home for a number of years and is a lovely young girl of charming personality and by her sweet disposition has won a wide circle of friends who regret that her marriage carries her elsewhere for her future home.

IN HONOR OF MISS COPELAND

Miss Margaret Copeland was honored at a miscellaneous shower tendered by Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Jr., on Thursday morning. Gladioli was arranged throughout the house. Four tables of ruck were arranged for the following guests: Miss Margaret Copeland, Mesdames H. A. Copeland, J. I. Copeland, G. A. Copeland, W. D. Copeland, D. J. Woods, W. H. Shands, A. O'Daniel, J. W. Dillard, T. L. W. Bailey, A. T. Wilson, F. D. Jones, B. O. Whitten, Misses Whitten, Irene Workman and Essie Young.

After a salad course had been served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Ellen Copeland, Miss Margaret Copeland was asked to come into the dining room. As she entered, she was met by a shower of rice. In spite of the rice shower, a table laden with beautiful gifts for her was visible.

Yesterday morning Miss Rosalie Jones entertained at an enjoyable linen shower as a favor to Miss Margaret Copeland. The guests were requested to write favorite recipes in a cook book which was later presented to the bride-elect. After the book had been filled, Miss Copeland was given a string whose goal she was asked to find. She was pleased to discover at the end of her search numbers of handsome linen gifts.

The hostess, assisted by Misses Margaret and Catharine Jones, served a salad course to the following guests: Misses Margaret Copeland, Alden Bailey, Zelime Davis, Alma Vance, Christine Peake, Rosanna Vance, Amy Sloan, Cleon Pitts, Marion Copeland, Isabel Witherspoon, Ellen Copeland, Catharine King, Margaret Finley, Nell Clapp and Mrs. J. J. Cornwell.

Mrs. Jack H. Young entertained on Tuesday evening with a seated tea in honor of Miss Margaret Copeland. Tables were arranged on the porch which was made attractive with baskets of Queen Anne's lace. The bride-elect's chair was marked by a large white maline bow. After refreshments had been served by Mesdames Jack H. Young, J. Lee Young and J. D. Cozby and Miss Kitty Davis, each guest was presented with a dish towel which she was asked to hem for Miss Copeland. The guests who called were: Misses Margaret Copeland, El-

Engagement Has Been Announced

MISS EMILY JEAN DAVIS

Mrs. George McDowell Davis announces the engagement of her daughter, Emily Jean, to Lewis B. Jones of Macon, Ga., the date of the wedding to be announced later.

Miss Davis is a beautiful and charming girl and her engagement is of wide interest.

The engagement announced Sunday of Miss Emily Jean Davis to Lewis B. Jones is of widespread interest in both South Carolina and Georgia.

Miss Davis is the eldest daughter of Mrs. George McDowell Davis, of Clinton, and is an exponent of many of South Carolina's and Virginia's proudest families. Paternally she is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Creswell Davis and great-granddaughter of Dr. John Hanie Davis and Dr. John J. Dorroh, both eminent in the medical profession in South Carolina.

Maternally Miss Davis is the grand-daughter of Major and Mrs. Richard Simpson Griffin and great-granddaughter of General Thomas Foster Jones and Congressman John King Foster, of South Carolina.

Miss Davis has enjoyed professional success both in Columbia and Macon where she was recently attached to the Oglethorpe infirmary as superin-tenent of nurses. Her beauty and charm have won for her much social popularity.

Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Jones, life-long residents of Macon. He was born and reared in Macon. He was educated at Lanier high school and Mercer university. While at Mercer he was initiated into the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is popular and prominent in business and social life of Macon and is active in fraternal and civic circles. Mr. Jones is a contractor, being associated with his father under the firm name of Chas. W. Jones and Son.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. C. A. Owens is on an extended trip to Tampa, Fla., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stiller were called to Kanapolis, N. C., yesterday on account of the death of Mrs. Stiller's father.

Misses Mary Rogers of Belton, and Frances Cobb of Ware Shoals, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Phillips.

Miss Lena Thomas of Lake City, is the guest of Miss Cora Richey.

Mrs. H. B. Kilgore and Miss Iola McEntire with a class of small girls from the Presbyterian Sunday school at Woodruff, were visitors at Thornwell orphanage on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Pitts leaves Saturday for Milwaukee, Wis., where she will spend several weeks visiting her son, James Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Phillips, Carrie Mae Phillips, and Misses Mary Rogers and Frances Cobb motored to Chimney Rock on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Lynn of Detroit, Mich., arrived Tuesday for the Lynn-Crisp wedding, and a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lynn.

Club Meetings In County

According to Miss Mary Shaw Gilliam, home demonstration agent, various sections of the county have readily responded to the organization of clubs in their communities. Several meetings have been held this week and Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Brevington school, a similar conference will be held. Miss Gilliam is anxious to have a club in every community in the county and those who are interested in this work are requested to get in touch with her.

WHAT DO

P. S. JEANES

DO?

You can work longer and better when you pause and refresh yourself

GREENWOOD COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.

OVER 8 MILLION A DAY

IT HAD TO BE GOOD TO GET WHERE IT IS

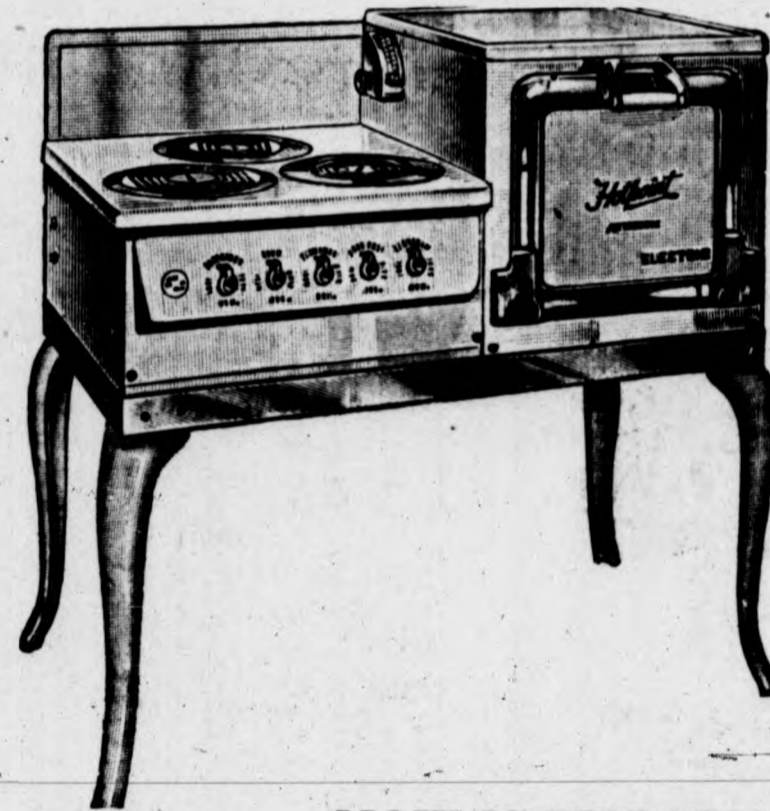

KOTEX

30cts Package

Regular Price - 45cts

Sadler-Owens Pharmacy
Corner at Union Station Phones 377 & 400

Most Women Like To Cook!

BUT NONE LIKE TO STAND OVER A Hot Stove

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY A

Hotpoint

ELECTRIC RANGE

HERE ARE SIX GOOD REASONS WHY—

- 1 BETTER COOKING results—more palatable food—a healthier, happier home.
- 2 A COMFORTABLE KITCHEN even in the hottest of weather. No wood, coal or drudgery.
- 3 THE RELEASE OF THE HOUSEWIFE from countless hours of kitchen duty, through the heat control and other Automatic features.
- 4 A SAVING OF MONEY through lower cost of cooking, and a further saving of food because of better preparation.
- 5 ABSOLUTE CLEANLINESS—no ashes, soot or fumes—just heat.
- 6 MORE OF THE OLD TIME FRESHNESS and energy for Dad and the children—and a more constant atmosphere of cheerfulness in the home.

We invite all present and prospective housekeepers to call at the City Clerk's Office and make an intelligent, careful investigation of the HOT POINT Range. Prompt deliveries made, easy convenient terms if desired. Any wanted information gladly furnished.

INSTALLATION INCLUDED IN PRICE

City of Clinton

Water and Light Department Phone 83 Display Room, City Clerk's Office

AT AND BELOW Cost Sale

We are offering our entire basement stock at and below New York cost—

Glassware Hardware Household Necessities, all kind

Chinaware Enamelware Bargains In All Straw Hats and Light Weight Summer Suits.

Take advantage of this special week

Come—See! Investigate! Buy!

THE BEE HIVE