PAINS In Side and Back

"I HAD BEEN miserable for a long time. My health was poor, and I suffered a lot from weakness. At times, my strength was so little that I could not stand on my feet. I would have to give up and go to bed. My sides and back hurt dreadfully.

"I grew discouraged, for I could do so little. I worried about myself, and almost gave up hope of ever being strong and well. I could scarcely lift a bucket of water. My house work went undone, for I was not strong enough

"After I had taken Cardui for little while, I began to feel better. I grew stronger, soon found that I could do my work with less effort, and the pains in my back and sides left me. I think Cardui is a wonderful medicine. My health has been excellent since then."—Mrs. D. L. Beckner, W. Main St., Salem, Va.

SOWERS RESIGNS SHOP POSITION

Retires From Orphanage Staff After 19 Years Faithful Service. To Open Up-Town Shop.

O. A. Sowers, head of the carpentry and wood shop at the Thornwell orphanage, has resigned his position effective next month. He will move into his home on Florida street and open an up-town repair shop in which he will serve the general public. Mr. Sowers came to Clinton 19 years ago from Statesville, N. C., during which time he has formed hundreds of friends who are pleased to know that he is to continue to reside here.

Our Monthly of the past month, carried the following article on Mr. Sowers' retirement:

Mr. O. A. Sowers Resigns "For nineteen years Mr. O. A. Sowers has held an important place in the organization at the orphanage. He has been in charge of the carpentry and wood shop. Few institutions of the kind ever had a more faithful or better workman. It seems to have been contrary to his very nature to turn out a shoddy piece of work. What a fine trait and splendid example to set before many who might be inclined to do slip-shod work. Mr. Sowers is just near his three score and ten. His health has not been vigorous for some time. So it became necessary to put on a man who is able to carry the heavy work on the campus.

Dr. Burrus testified to giving King later in the day several other kinds of narcotics, none of which put him to sleep.

In telling of the autopsy Dr. Burrus said there was no corrosion on the lining of the stomach but that he and Dr. Saye had detected the odor of a "coal tar preparation" which made them believe she had taken poison. He said that in taking poison there would have resulted a struggle and that there was no evidence of any such Tom Fulton, Kings Mountain undertaker, testified he had sent the embalming fluid to Clemson college authorities. He was used by the defense to make the statement that the odor the physicians smelled in Mrs. King's stomach was not the same odor as the embalming fluid he used.

Herbert Thompson Has First Bloom

Herbert Thompson, colored, farmer, drayman and churchman, brought to The Chronicle office early Monday morning the first cotton bloom of the season. Herbert picked it from his farm, on Bell street, and is optimistic over a good crop outlook. The second bloom, brought in an hour later than the first, was furnished by Teague Harris, local Cotton Co-op represen-

UNCLE SAM HAS GOOD BALANCE

Government's Finances In Fine Shape At Close of Fiscal Year. Has $190,000,000 Left Over.

Washington, June 29.-Uncle Sam wound up the 1929 fiscal year tonight, and after a special payment of $45,-000,000 in favor of railroads for extra mail hauling charges, was approximately $190,000,000 on the right side of the ladger.

Detailed figures for the last two days of the year will not be compiled until tomorrow, but data on finances of the 12 months indicated the following approximate results:

1-Public debt reduction of $846,-000,000, reducing the public debt to $16,758,000.

2-Receipts of $4,042,000,000, substantially the same as last year. 3—Customs receipts of $601,700,000, a gain of $32,700,000. 4-Income and corporation taxes, $2,329,700,000, a gain of $156,700,000. 5-Miscellaneous internal revenue.

$606,100,000, a slight loss. 6-Expenditures of $3,848,000,000, an increase of about $200,000,000.

The outstanding feature of the governments' year was the remarkable collection of income and corporation taxes, which pulled the treasury out Nearly nine hundred years ago, with a surplus, where as six months when Abelard taught logic and theo- ago a substantial deficit was predict-
