ROMANCE A-WING

I saw a golden aeroplane
Late yesterday; it sailed
Out through the gates of chrysopease
The sunset had engrailed.

Its wings were edged with platinum
And, tilted toward the north,
Threw back each shining ray for ray
The sun was sending forth.

The whirling blades close lined with gems,
Carved out broad aureoles,
The amber fuselage was pied
With gleaming girasoles.

I wonder whence and where its course
And where the country lies
With hangars high enough to house
Celestial argosies.

GANDY-WATKINS

The following announcement will be read here with interest, Miss Gandy having formerly been a member of the Clinton schools faculty:

Darlington, July 27.—Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Gandy of Dovesville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Gandy, to Laurens Hayne Watkins, the wedding to take place August 6.

FOR MISS COPELAND

Miss Ellen Copeland was hostess on Friday morning at a bridge party of two tables given in honor of Miss Margaret Copeland, bride-elect. After several progressions of bridge had been enjoyed, a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Marion Copeland.

The players were: Misses Margaret Copeland, Marion Copeland, Clara Louise O'Daniel, Katharine King, Fredna Shockley, Isabel Witherspoon, Cleon Pitts, and Emma Little. Miss Ellen Copeland presented the guest of honor an attractive tea cloth as a souvenir of the occasion.

PARTY FOR YOUNG VISITORS

In honor of their cousins, Misses Mildred and Marion Hipp of Newberry, Misses Copie and Ella Little McCrary entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon. Those playing were: Misses Mildred and Marion Hipp, Margaret Jones, Sarah Copeland, Elsie Little, Margaret Norwood, Collette Davis, Bessie Jones, Medora Browning, Florence Hindman, Georgie B. Blakely and Reginald Peake. The hostess served a salad course.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR MRS. SNOW

A lovely bridge party was that given on Thursday morning by Mrs. G. P. Copeland and Mrs. Wm. Bailey Owens in honor of Mrs. Lee Snow of Columbus, Ga., the guest of Mrs. T. J. Peake.

The Owens home was attractively decorated in summer flowers. Amid this setting six tables were placed for bridge. The hostesses, assisted by Miss Ellen Copeland, served a salad course to the guests.

INFORMAL TEA FOR FRIENDS

On Saturday afternoon Miss Margaret Copeland entertained a dozen of her friends at an informal tea. A salad course was served to the following: Misses Marion Copeland, Ellen Copeland, Cleon Pitts, Dudley Cozby, Selina Cozby, Irene Workman, Katharine King, Alma Davis, Zelime Davis, Janie Lois Lynn, Isabel Witherspoon, Rosalie Jones, and Mrs. J. J. Cornwell.

IN HONOR OF VISITOR

In honor of her niece, Miss Florence Hindman of Richburg, Mrs. Heyward Hindman entertained at an enjoyable prom party on Friday evening. Those enjoying the evening were: Misses Margaret Jones, Bessie Jones, Sarah Copeland, Ella Little McCrary, Collette Davis, Agnes Shealy, Medora Browning, Georgie B. Blakely, Elsie Little, Florence Hindman, and Messrs. Wallace and Darrell Franks, Venable Martin, Bothwell Graham, Will and Jim Davis, Robert Lynn, Ralph Rampey, Grady Adair, Dorsey McFadden, Joe Pitts, Carol White

Copeland, Frank Burroughs, John William Dillard.

CELEBRATES EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Aileen Copeland, daughter of Mrs. L. L. Copeland, celebrated her eighth birthday on Monday afternoon at a lawn party.

Mrs. L. L. Copeland, assisted by Mrs. John G. Pitts and Mrs. David Copeland, served ice cream and cake to the little guests, who were: Tobe Adair, Sterling Pitts, Virginia and C. W. Weir, Jean Copeland, Billy Pitts, Lewis, Harold, Fred, Joyce, Martha, Reme, John G., Peggy and Marion Pitts.

"FRIENDLY DOZEN" WITH MRS. SHANDS

Mrs. W. H. Shands was hostess to the "Friendly Dozen" on Wednesday at a luncheon. Mrs. John McSween, who has accepted the membership made vacant by Mrs. E. L. Glasgow, was welcomed as a new member.

The rooms in which Mrs. Shands received her guests were very attractive with arrangements of summer flowers. A three-course luncheon was served to the following members: Mesdames R. Z. Wright, J. A. Bailey, H. A. Copeland, J. I. Copeland, John McSween, D. J. Woods, John Spratt and Miss Connie Bailey.

BELTON BRIDE HONORED

The "Idle Moments" club and four additional tables of rook players enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Spurgeon Sumerel on Thursday morning. The party was a compliment to Mrs. Vivian Vaughan, a June bride of Belton, sister-in-law of Mrs. Sumerel.

Artistic arrangements of marigolds made a charming setting for the rooms in which the games were played. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Gary Martin and Mrs. W. C. Shealy, served a salad course with tea to the guests. Attractive gifts were presented the honoree, Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Gilbert Blakely and Miss Margaret Copeland.

The out-of-town guests for the occasion were Misses Annie and Josie Vaughan of Belton, Mesdames Jerome Collier, Gus Mason, and C. K. Wright of Laurens.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Sumerel was again hostess at a seven-table rook party in honor of Mrs. Vivian Vaughan.

JACKS-MORGAN WEDDING

A wedding of simple beauty was that of Miss Ida Jacks and Rufus C. Morgan which was solemnized on Thursday afternoon at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac C. Jacks, parents of the bride, at Hickory Tavern. The Rev. Edward Long, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The ceremony room was in bridal green and white and the vows were spoken before an improvised altar arranged in front of the window where baskets held Queen Anne's lace, tied with white tulle. To enhance the beauty, ferns and pedestal candles were used. At effective places in the hall were baskets of sunflowers and fern.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. O. B. Burroughs, Jr., sang "Sweet Mystery," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ellis Gains. "Perfect Day" was softly played during the ceremony.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bridal party descended the stairway which was beautifully draped with garlands or asparagus.

I. C. Jacks, brother of the bride, and Russell Jacks, a nephew, lighted the candles. Little Alameda Jacks and Elizabeth Madden, nieces of the bride, descended as ribbon bearers.

The bride entered with her sister, Miss Susie Jacks, the maid-of-honor. Miss Jacks carried a bouquet of pink roses. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Jesse Morgan, brother of the groom.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a navy blue suede crepe three-piece ensemble suit with grey accessories. Her flowers were of sunburst roses showered with swansonia.

Immediately after the ceremony the guest were invited into the adjoining room where cream and cake was served at an informal reception.

Mrs. Morgan is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac C. Jacks of the Hickory Tavern section. She is a graduate of Clinton high school and has been connected with Blakely Bros. Shoe Store for several years.

Mr. Morgan's home is in Springfield. He received his A. B. degree from the College of Charleston and his Ph. G. from the medical college, also of that city. For the past few years he has been connected with Sadler-Owens Pharmacy of this city as pharmacist.

After the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be at home to their friends after August first in Clinton.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morgan of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wilson, Mrs. Oliver Burroughs, Rev. and Mrs. Edward Long, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Blalock, Misses Arva Henry and Esther Holland, Messrs. P. M. Pitts, William and T. J. Blalock, Jr., all of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Shaw Madden and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Jacks of Mountville; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jacks of Baton, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacks of Simpsonville, and Mrs. T. O. McKeown of Chester.
