YOUNG MINISTER TO WED SOON

Announcement has been received here of the approaching marriage of Rev. R. Matthew Lynn of Charleston, W. Va., to Miss Nona Thomas Joyce of Kansas City, Mo., the wedding to be solemnized on October 15th.

The groom is the eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. L. Ross Lynn of this city, a graduate of Presbyterian college and Union Theological seminary at Richmond, Va. Since completing his theological training, he has been located in Charleston, W. Va., as assistant pastor of the Bream Memorial Presbyterian church. He has numerous friends here who will be interested in the announcement and unite in extending sincere best wishes.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Joyce of Kansas City, and is in charge of the girls work at the First Presbyterian church in Charleston where Mr. Lynn resides.

DAVIS-JONES WEDDING

Mrs. Mary Griffin Davis of this city, announces the marriage of her daughter, Emily Jean Davis, to Lewis Bragg Jones of Macon, Ga., on Thursday, September 5th, in Atlanta, Ga.

The wedding, which was a very quiet event, took place at the home of Dr. W. H. Boggs, pastor of Druid Hills Presbyterian church, and a close relative of the bride. The ring ceremony characterized by exquisite simplicity was performed by Doctor Boggs.

Strikingly effective were the decorations in the living room and dining room, the color motif of pink, white and green being emphasized in the beautiful dahlias and phlox. Tall, graceful palms and ferns formed a background. On either side of the altar were flower baskets filled with handsome pink dahlias. Silver candlesticks with tall pink burning candles cast a soft radiance over both rooms. The candles were lighted by Wade Boggs, Jr., dressed in an afternoon suit of white.

Preceding the ceremony, "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" was sung by Paden Jones, brother of the groom, accompanied by Mrs. Paden Jones.

The bride was lovely in an exquisite ensemble of black chiffon velvet with a blouse of eggshell chiffon. She wore a black felt and chiffon velvet hat with slippers of black kid and patent leather. She carried a bouquet of pink bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip through the mountains of Tennessee and other points.

DUNLAP-COOLEY WEDDING

The following account of the Dunlap-Cooley wedding taken from the Washington Evening Star, will be read with interest by the many friends in the county of the bride. Miss Dunlap is a daughter of Mrs. Annie H. Dunlap of Mountville and a sister of Thornwell Dunlap of this city:

Miss Margaret Hunter Dunlap, daughter of Mrs. Annie H. Dunlap, and the late Mr. Rufus Dunlap of Mountville, S. C., and Lieut. John Baylis Cooley, U. S. A., son of Mrs. John Baylis Cooley of Anderson, S. C., were married at noon today in the home of the bride, 1730 M street, the Rev. Albert F. Vaughan, army chaplain at Fort Myer, officiating.

Tall white vases filled with pink and white gladioli against a background of palms made a charming setting for the wedding party and cathedral candles in silver candlesticks were placed on the piano.

The bride wore a golden brown transparent velvet ensemble, with a blouse of eggshell color chiffon. Her hat was of felt and velvet and she wore a corsage bouquet of Pernet roses and lilies of the valley. She had no attendants.

Maj. Elias E. Cooley of Baltimore, was best man. Mrs. Dunlap, mother of the bride, wore a gray crepe de chine ensemble. Assisting in receiving the guests were former Gov. and Mrs. Robert A. Cooper, Miss Laura Ruff and Miss Mabel Ezell, and presiding over the guest book were Miss Hattie May Dunlap, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Cooper.

Lieut. Cooley and his bride left after the reception for a wedding trip and will be at home after September 15 at Camp Holabird, Md., where Lieut. Cooley attends the transport school.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. R. S. Cunningham of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Annie H. Cooley, sister of the bridegroom, of Anderson, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of Winthrop college, S. C., and was an assistant in the circulation department of the public library and served as parliamentarian of the President Monroe chapter of the D. A. R. The bridegroom is a graduate of West Point.

Did you know—it's the thing now to have bath towels in different colors, one for each member of the family? And that most exquisite pastel colors are available—colors that make the bathroom seem like the end of the good fairy's rainbow, with peach, orchid, jade, maize, turquoise, rose, all hobnobbing together in delightful harmony.

In sanitary interests the idea was begun, the motive being to make it easy for each member of the household to detect instantly his or her own towel. For differences in color are comprehended with much greater ease than variations in shape, size or location.

All in all, we think it a charming innovation. Not only does it enliven those old-fashioned dead white bath rooms that are so woefully out of date, but it relieves us of our job of supervisor of the racks. When Bobby gets used to his jade towel, he never thinks of reaching for Eleanor's in peach; nor does he dare to besmirch the big, fluffy maize towel that belongs to Dad alone.

Strange that color should settle this annoying family problem without a single word of argument.

To Cook Ham
 Prepared as follows, ham will have a tenderness and juiciness that can be obtained in no other way: Cut a slice of ordinary thickness; take off a few pieces of fat and place in a frying pan over the fire, allow fat to fry for a few moments, then put in ham and cook five minutes, turning once. Pour enough boiling water in pan to cover ham, cover with lid and cook from 8 to 10 minutes, turning ham once.

Peach Salad
 Scald, peel and halve ripe peaches; chill them; fill centers with chopped blanched almonds and tiny cubes of mild yellow cheese. Dust with paprika, serve on iced lettuce leaf with French dressing.

Almond Sticks
 Roll puff paste or short pie crust 1 inch thick; brush with white of egg and sprinkle with shredded almonds and powdered sugar. Cut in strips 1-2 inch wide and 3 inches long. Chill and bake in quick oven.

Packing Bottles for Traveling
 To prevent possibility of leaking liquid when packing bottles in the traveling bag—pull over the top of each bottle a rubber finger stall or finger from an old kid glove. Then if stopper is inserted firmly it will not work loose or permit leakage.

Renewing Old Brass Beds
 Painted metal furniture is quite the vogue just now, and the smartest finish is one in pastel colors. So treat shabby iron or brass beds to a coat of good metal paint in some shade harmonious with your color scheme.

BLUE HOSE LACK GOOD PASSER

Reserves Also Missing. Presbyterian Squad Will Be Heavier Than Last Year, However.

(By Jake Wade, in a series of articles on prospects of South Carolina football teams.)

Like most other South Carolina coaches this fall, Walter Johnson, at Presbyterian college, faces a shortage of experienced, seasoned talent.

He has practically no reserve strength, as one can understand, the school matriculation being around but 250. He has no great passer, a serious handicap, since over the years the Blue Stockings have been famous for their passing attack.

On the other hand, Jimmy Green is back to cavort in the backfield. The team will have a little more weight than last season. It is an ambitious squad, hustling and working in the tradition of P. C. teams of past seasons.

Also the team is equipped with athletic facilities that are astonishing for a school of its size. No college in the state has a more modern and up-to-date athletic plant. As Coach Johnson points out, this has a fine psychological effect on the boys. The P. C. spirit is right up to par. Every man on the squad is laboring with that well known vim, vigor and vitality.

Lynn and Bennett likely will guard the flanks this fall. Both are light men. None in the lot will weigh more than 145 pounds.

Blakely and Cheatham are two husky tackles. The former tips the scales at 195 pounds. The latter, a freshman last year, weighs 170.

McQueen weighs but 150 pounds, but is a scrapping little guard. Captain Beckman will play the other guard. Ketchin and McNaull are the center candidates.

Besides Jimmy Green in the backfield there is Dick Green and Dunlap as alternate fullbacks, and Ritchie and "Skeet" Galloway as halfbacks. All of these are astute performers and, given a break by the line, ought to gain much ground this fall. Dunlap will do the passing and probably Galloway the kicking.

Walter Johnson has been coaching at P. C. for 15 years. He is assisted by Coach McMillian, who has been here for the past six years.

The squad they are working with this season numbered 25 the opening week. But seven letter men are among the number, nine being missing. There is much talk of the freshman material here this season. It is said to be of unusually fine calibre.
