

Home Demonstration Notes

Miss Mary Shaw Gilliam, Agent

Home Clubs Meet

The home demonstration agent announces three club meetings held during the week, at Hickory Tavern, Trinity Ridge, and Youngs. Youngs led all the other clubs in attendance, having 25 present at the meeting. The following officers were elected at this meeting: President, Mrs. H. H. Abercrombie; vice-president, Mrs. Richard Harris; secretary, Mrs. Gray Harris.

The program for each of the meetings consisted of a lecture demonstration on positive health and its influence on the individual. This was given as an introduction to the project in food preparation which all the clubs will study during the next six months.

4-H Clubs Organized
Two new 4-H clubs were organized in the county this week, according to Miss Gilliam, county agent. The first meeting was held at Barksdale, with the following officers elected to serve during the coming year: President, Dorothy Bramlette; vice-president, Mary Tumblin; secretary, Eugenia Burns.

The second club was organized at Hickory Tavern with thirty-two members enrolled. The officers elected were as follows: President, Alice Roper; vice-president, Elizabeth Baldwin; secretary, Annette Nash; cheer leaders, Eleanor Jordan and Pernice Knight.

Council Meeting in Greenwood
The Piedmont district meeting of the Farm Council, will be held in Greenwood on Saturday, Sept. 21. The meeting will open at 10:30 a. m. at the high school building.

Dr. E. O. Watson of Columbia, will speak to the group in the morning and Mrs. J. Whitman Smith, president of the State Council, will address the meeting in the afternoon.

Lunch will be served to all the visiting members by the Greenwood County Council.

Miss Gilliam and Mrs. Annie H. Dunlap, president of the Laurens County Council, urge that as many members as can possibly do so attend this meeting in Greenwood, especially all the officers of the Council.

THE GOING OF SARAH LOUISE LEAKE

Sarah Louise Leake finished her ministry of innocency and beauty, Wednesday, Sept. 4, 1929, at Saluda, N. C., where she had been carried for special treatment. She was critically ill for one week and all was done that could possibly be done to save her life. The dear Lord wanted her with him, so like a rose bud He plucked her early to beautify the house of many mansions.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Leake of Clinton, and by her charms and attractive personality had won many admirers both among the young and the old. She was the joy of the home, and drew attention wherever she went, whether at play or Sunday school.

She quickly finished her life's mission and now from the home over yonder beckons to all her loved ones to come and join her there.

We buried her beneath a bed of flowers in Rosemont cemetery where her little body will rest until the resurrection morning, then we hope to see her again. "A little child shall lead them." The loved ones here now have a treasure there which can not be taken away from them.

O. M. Abney, Pastor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our wife and mother, Mrs. Laura Abercrombie. Also for the lovely floral offerings.

J. H. Abercrombie and Children.

GIN NOTICE

Effective immediately, we will operate ONE BATTERY of our gins EXCLUSIVELY for COCKER NO. 5 cotton.

Our gins have been put into perfect condition and are as good as new.

We call your attention to the fact that we gin by STEAM and can operate at LONG STAPLE SPEED. We have government figures to show that our ginning was over 99% perfect last season, there being only 13 bales out of 1633 samples graded that were even slightly gin-cut.
