Home Demonstration Notes

Miss Mary Shaw Gilliam, Agent

Laurens county was well represented at the district council meeting held in Greenwood on Saturday, having nineteen present. Of this number four were officers of the local council.

Miss Gilliam, home agent, is greatly encouraged at the keen interest manifested by the home demonstration clubs in the various sections of the county.

A very varied and beneficial program was led by Mrs. J. L. Williams, director of the Piedmont district. Reports were given by each of the county council presidents. Mrs. Annie H. Dunlap, speaking in behalf of the Laurens council, stated that although the organization in this county was less than a month old, it hoped to work through the cooperation of every home demonstration club in the county and to have a splendid report next year.

An address by Dr. E. O. Watson, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, on "The Farm Woman in the New Farm World," and a talk by Mrs. J. Whitman Smith, state president of the Farm Council, were the outstanding features of the program.

New Prospect Club Meets

An interesting meeting of the 4-H club of New Prospect was held Friday afternoon with Mary Culbertson, at Madden Station. Miss Nelle Moore, president of the club conducted the devotionals, after which Miss Gilliam gave a demonstration in the care and decoration of the girl's bedroom.

Several new members were enrolled, making a total of 21 interested members.

At the conclusion of the meeting, watermelon was served by the mother of the hostess, Mrs. J. D. Culbertson.

Hickory Tavern Club Leads In Membership

The 4-H club at Hickory Tavern leads all the other clubs in the county in membership, having 40 girls enrolled in their club for the coming year. A very enthusiastic meeting was held at the school house on Friday morning.

Miss Alice Roper, president of the club, had charge of the meeting, during which time an interesting program was carried out. Miss Gilliam gave a demonstration in room improvement, after which the group spent a short while in learning new club yells.

Handy Salad Moulds

Use muffin pans to mould the salad; they make just the right individual portions, and save space in the ice box, too.

Backing for Rugs

When rugs have become limp or curled, try coating the under side with very thin cooked starch to which is added five cents worth of gum arabic dissolved in a little water. Apply with a paint brush and allow to dry thoroughly before reversing the rug.

DJERKIS TALC FREE

While they last, a can free with each dollar's worth of toilet articles purchased.

One of the lesser luxuries that each woman may enjoy without thought of extravagance is that dainty little personal habit—the perfumed bath. Certainly, after hours of housework, nothing adds more to the day's comfort than does this bit of grooming.

Famous perfumers tell us that the increasing popularity of the shower bath is changing our perfume habits from the use of bath salts—which are not so convenient in connection with the spray—to delicate toilet waters which form an excellent base for the body dusted on afterward.

The demand is for the lighter flower scents that leave only a trace of perfume. Among them lavender stands well toward the head of the list; violet, lilac, mimosa, jonquil, orange blossom—all the simple, unblended flower perfumes are especially refreshing—and do so much to make pleasant the home-maker's work-a-day.

Goodies for the school lunch—how important—but how difficult to think of in the early morning rush when every minute counts! Perhaps no other dainty appeals to children quite as much as does a fruited gelatin or a charlotte. Yet few mothers recall this when planning these desserts for family meals.

Keep on hand a supply of ice cream containers (they cost only a cent or two) so that next time you prepare a fruit loaf or a charlotte jelly, a Bavarian cream or charlotte, you may pour part of it into this safe container and set aside for the school lunch the following day.

And make it a surprise—never even hinted until the box is opened. At best the cold lunch leaves much to be desired, when appetites are finicky. It is surprising to see how much these little "extras" do to keep children satisfied.

BORAH HEADS FARM BLOC

Group Formed In Senate Will Fight To Limit Tariff Revision To Agricultural Items.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Coincident with a decision by the senate today to meet an hour earlier on Monday to speed action on the tariff bill, a group of 12 western Republicans perfected an organization aimed to eliminate the proposed industrial rate increases and to confine the revision to agricultural products.

Headed by Senator Borah, of Idaho, the Independent group assessed its strength at 14, a number which it feels will give the organization the balance of power as between the Democrats and Republican regulars in the tariff controversy.

The group also is expected to stand as a unit against the flexible provisions granting the president power to raise or lower customs duties. These provisions are liberalized in the pending bill. While the finance committee Republicans have decided to eliminate the proposed amendment and virtually to restore existing law. Many senators favor complete repeal of the clause which congress gives exclusive power to change rates.

Those attending today's Independent gathering were Senators Borah, Norris, Howell, McMaster, LaFollette, Blaine, Nye, Frazier, Brookhart, Cutting, Schall, and Pine. It was the first time Senators Cutting of New Mexico, and Pine of Oklahoma, had entered the group's meetings.

The votes of Senators Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota, and Norbeck, Republican, South Dakota, are counted on by the farm bloc.

Developments in the senate touching upon the silence of President Hoover in the tariff controversy brought the official assertion today that the executive still adhered to the tariff ideas expressed in his message to the special session, which proposed a limited revision confined primarily to agriculture but extending also to suffering manufacturing industries.

The request that the senate convene at 11 o'clock Monday instead of noon was presented by Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, who said it applied only to that day. A similar motion would have to be approved, he said, if the longer day was to be made permanent.

Democrats and Republican Independents, while not objecting to the request, served notice that they would not approve of holding the senate later than 6 o'clock in the evening as they wanted ample time to prepare for debate. Senator Watson assured them that there was no present intention to hold night sessions, although no tariff measure ever had been passed without them.

Rheney Opens Feed Store Here

Establishment of a new enterprise for Clinton in the opening by H. G. Rheney of a feed and seed business in a warehouse on West Main street opposite the Ford agency was announced this week.

For the past two years Mr. Rheney has been manager of the Augusta branch of the B. B. Kirkland Seed company of Columbia. For several years prior to that time he was office manager for Jacobs & Company of this city, and is well known to many residents here and in the county.

In his new business, he will act as distributor for the American Milling company of Peoria, Illinois, and as special representative in the Piedmont section of South Carolina for the W. H. Mixson Seed company of Charleston. Later, he expects to install seed fixtures in the local warehouse and to carry a complete stock of vegetable, flower and field seeds.

Products manufactured by the American Milling company, which will be sold at both wholesale and retail, include dairy feed, poultry feeds, mule and horse feeds, hog feeds, alfalfa meal, shorts and meat scrap.

Mr. Rheney, who before becoming connected with Jacobs & Company, was engaged in the seed business in Charleston, contemplates the installation of machinery for cleaning and grading small grain and cotton seed, it being his belief that a profitable seed breeding industry can be established among the farmers in the Clinton territory when he provides a market outlet for them.

In speaking of his plans, he declared that the reception already accorded by local dairymen was highly satisfactory and that he believes the prospects in this section for a business of the type he is establishing are splendid. One day's work, he added, resulted in the sale of a large car load of feed.
