

FOR THOSE WHO LOVE FINE THINGS
—who can appreciate good music, good literature, good art, good candy—

Whitman's

FINE CANDIES ARE MADE.
Delicious, arranged in pleasing assortments, they tempt the most fastidious taste.
WE RECEIVE FRESH SHIPMENTS REGULARLY.

Established 1886

BANK WITH AND ON

"THE OLD RELIABLE"

A broad banking service for every member of the family.

DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY IN THIS STRONG BANK AND REST EASY

M. S. Bailey & Son
BANKERS
OLDEST STRONGEST

ACHIEVING SUCCESS

NOTHING SO SATISFIES A BANK AS THE SUCCESS
OF ITS CUSTOMERS. IT FEELS THE PART IT PLAY-ED. GROW GREATER WITH US. BE SUCCESSFUL THRU
OUR HELP.

"THE BANK OF PERSONAL SERVICE"

THE COMMERCIAL BANK
CLINTON, S.C.

Personal Mention

Mrs. J. N. Quinn and son, J. B. Quinn, of Blacksburg, are the guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. W. B. Tribble.

J. E. Plaxico of Blacksburg, is spending several days with his son, R. L. Plaxico.

Mrs. J. M. Cantey of Summerton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. O. Rhame.

Mrs. T. F. Wallace of St. Matthews, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Copeland.

Miss Elizabeth McCants, G. W. C. student, was the guest during the past week of Mrs. Frank Hicks.

Mrs. Mary Suber has returned to her home in Union after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Wilson.

Miss Alden Bailey, who is teaching this winter at Lanes, was at home with her parents for the week-end.

The friends of Mrs. Ben Townsend will be sorry to know that she is a patient at Dr. Hays' hospital.

Robert Dillard of Atlanta, joined his family here for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Little of Anderson, were the week-end guests of relatives in the city.

Miss Janie Lois Lynn, senior at Chiora college, was at home for the week-end with her parents.

Miss Alluwe Neighbors of G. W. C., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Neighbors.

Mrs. J. R. Little of Laurens, was the guest during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris.

L. M. D. Young, Walter Young, and Miss Lula Young were guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Kay in Honea Path.

Miss Verna Hill spent the week-end in Orangeburg with relatives.

Miss Lavinia Taylor of Greenville, was the guest on Saturday of Mrs. Gilbert Blakely.

Miss Kate Latimer was the guest of friends in Newberry for the week-end.

Thornwell Dunlap is in Greenville this week where he is serving in the District Federal court as a member of the jury.

Miss Virginia Neville of this city, and Miss Lucy McCracklen of Newberry, left the past week for Charlotte where they have opened the Carolina speech reading studio for the coming winter.

Miss Ada Barstow left Tuesday for Miami, Fla., where she will make her future home after faithfully serving the orphanage for several years past as matron of one of the cottages.

The Rev. T. H. McDill, D. D., of Gastonia, N. C., is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. C. Bynum Betts while in the city this week conducting evangelistic services at the A. R. P. church.

Miss Mary Pinson left this week for Gaffney to enter Limestone college as a member of the freshman class. She was detained from being present for the opening on account of illness.

Miss Margaret Finley, member of the Cross Hill school faculty, was the week-end guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Copeland, Jr. She had as her guest, Miss Isabel Patterson, also of the Cross Hill school.

Miss Louise Byars of this city, who has been stenographer at the Newberry high school for the past two years, has accepted a position with the Kendall Mfg. Company and is now connected with the office of the Mollohon mill of Newberry.

Miss Sarah Pitts left Sunday for Harrisonburg, Va., where she has accepted a position with the state's extension board in the department of home economics. She was accompanied by David Pitts and David Copeland who will go from Harrisonburg for a stay of several days in Washington.

The following Clinton people spent Saturday in Laurens attending the Baptist district W. M. U: Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, Mrs. Edward Long, Mrs. Hugh Workman, Mrs. W. A. Moorhead, Mrs. J. C. Sparks, Mrs. E. J. Adair, Mrs. W. R. Anderson, Jr., Mrs. J. T. Little, Miss Ruth Bailey, Mrs. R. L. Bailey, Rev. Edward Long and R. L. Bailey.

SERVICES GROW IN INTEREST

Gastonia Minister Delivering Strong Series of Gospel Sermons in A. R. P. Church Here.

The special evangelistic services begun Monday night in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church are growing daily in interest and attendance. Two services are being held daily, at 3:30 and 7:30 in the evening.

The leader for the services is the Rev. T. H. McDill, D. D., pastor of the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Gastonia, N. C.; and one of the outstanding ministers of his state. Dr. McDill is recognized as one of the ablest and most influential ministers of his denomination and has made a profound impression upon all who have thus far been privileged to hear him.

Association Meets October 15-16

The Laurens Baptist association will meet with Henderson church near Hickory Tavern on the Laurens-Princeton highway, eleven miles west of Laurens, on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 15-16. The program calls for the association sermon Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. John H. Washington of Laurens, followed by organization, oral reports from the churches, and report on Sunday schools. Tuesday afternoon will be given to the consideration of missions and unified program. Wednesday morning reports on laymen's work, woman's work and benevolences will be heard and discussed. The final session will be held Wednesday afternoon when religious literature, education, both Christian and ministerial, B. Y. P. U. work, public morals and necrology, will call for consideration. Following these topics will come miscellaneous business, including various committee reports, election of officers, etc.

Heads of standing committees will have their respective reports ready when called for.

W. P. Culbertson, Clerk.
Cross Hill, S. C.
Sept. 23, 1929.

J. I. Copeland Ill At Hospital

The many friends of J. I. Copeland will regret to know that he is a patient at Dr. Hays' hospital. For several weeks past he has been confined to his home on East Carolina avenue until removed a few days ago to the hospital where he continues ill. Mr. Copeland is widely known in the community and has always identified himself with the best interests of the city. His numerous friends here and elsewhere, unite in the hope that he will soon recuperate and be returned to his place of usefulness in the community.

School To Give Minstrel Show

"The Dixie Blackbird Minstrels," a Wayne P. Sewell production, will be presented in the Florida Street school auditorium on Friday night, Oct. 15th.

The entertainment will be given here for the benefit of the high school athletic association. It will be a complete local talent presentation with a number of well known "stars" included in the personnel. There will be clever stunts, sketches, popular songs, etc., an up-to-the-minute production that is sure to please all who attend it. The school authorities are asking a liberal patronage from the public for the show, the proceeds to be applied entirely to athletic purposes.

HIGH PUPILS TO GIVE PROGRAM

First Open Meeting of Woodrow Wilson Literary Society To Be Held Next Tuesday.

The first open meeting of the Woodrow Wilson literary society of the Clinton high school will be held next Tuesday evening, Oct. 8, at 7:30, in the auditorium of the high school building.

The following program will be given:

Readings:
"A Fireside Caller," Margaret Moorhead.
"The Ruling Passion," Elizabeth Blakely.
"The Great Stone Face," Collette Davis.

Music.
Declamations:
"Hey Ma," Dill Ellis.
"Obeying Orders," Billy Owens.
"Lindbergh — The Ambassador," Frank Burroughs.

Music.
Debate: "Resolved, that the existence of the chain store systems is detrimental to the best interests of the American people."
Affirmative: Hugh Denson, Medora Browning.
Negative: Dorsey McFadden, Ella Little McCrary.

Rebuttals.
Decision of judges.

Death Claims
Mrs. Penland

Mrs. Pearl Penland died Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Land, near here. The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Honea Path and conducted by the Rev. V. MacK. Marlowe of this city.

The deceased is survived by her husband and three small children; her father and mother; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Willard and Mrs. G. W. Hill, of here; and two brothers, Joe E. Land of Union, and L. A. Land of this place.

It Will Have To Rain Harder Than
It Has Rained Yet To Flood Our Service —

PHONE
136 or 175
FOR FOOD!

Our pledge to render dependable service always means that you can expect the same quick service now as if the weather were normal.

Blakely's
TELEPHONES 136 AND 175

ALWAYS Serving You

Since the day this bank opened, it has held steadily to its task of helping to build up the prosperity, the success and the happiness of the people of Clinton.

Those who have come to deal with us here have benefitted in a very tangible way through helpful friendships with the personnel of this bank.

OUR SERVICE MAKES FRIENDS

First National Bank

"Clinton's Strongest Bank"

Telephone No. 7

A Clean Store

Ahead of anything else you want cleanliness and quality in your foods, groceries and meats. This store takes pride in the fact that it suits so many particular people on these points.

Just a trial will convince you.
USE YOUR PHONE DURING BAD WEATHER

BALDWIN'S GROCERY
"The Home of Good Things To Eat"
Phones 99 and 100

ALL PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED BY LICENSED PHARMACISTS

CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED PROMPTLY

SADLER-OWENS PHARMACY

"At Union Station"

Phones 377 and 400

Phones 377 and 400

DJERKISS TALC FREE

A large 35c can free with every dollar's worth of toilet articles purchased.

SADLER-OWENS PHARMACY
AT UNION STATION
Phones 377 and 400