County Teachers Hear Of Meetings
 Laurens, Oct. 6.—The first meeting of the new Laurens County Teachers' association was held Saturday at the city graded school building. After the meeting it was announced that 200 of the 206 teachers in the county had signed up for membership in the county, state and national educational associations, and it is expected that the remaining number will become members at the first opportunity, as it was understood that bad roads or other causes prevented their presence at Saturday's membership rally.

The first meeting of the teachers was devoted principally to reports from the N. E. A. conference in Atlanta last June by the delegates from Laurens, C. K. Wright, Mrs. Belle Sumeral and Mrs. H. A. Copeland, and in an informative address on the Geneva conference on education by Miss Kate V. Wofford, who was a delegate along with half hundred other American representatives.

The next meeting of the Laurens association will be held Saturday, October 26.

Watts Mill Will Have Annual Fair
 Laurens, Oct. 6.—Extensive preparations are going forward for the annual community fair at Watts mill, to be held Friday, October 11, in the community house at the village.

Exhibits, as usual, will be assembled and put on display from the various departments of the textile plant, the school, kindergarten, flowers and fancy work, canned goods, consisting of fruits and vegetables, in addition to exhibits of plain and fancy sewing and of cooking as done by the women and girls of the community.

Prizes are to be given for the best exhibits. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged, and the proceeds go to the library.

One of the special features for the annual show will be a popularity contest. The entrants have been announced as follows: Miss Bernice Hertzell, from the Watts mill school; Miss Clara Bramlett, from the spinning room; Miss Gladys Taylor, from the cloth room; Miss Agnes Taylor and Miss Evalde Wade, from the silk room; Miss Louise Cogsdill, from the weave room, and Miss Mary Alice Stewart from the drawing in room.

Children Collect 7,000 Wrappers

The campaign in Clinton to collect Octagon soap wrappers for the Thornwell orphanage, came to a close a few days ago with a total of 7,341. These wrappers have been turned over to the institution to assist in their effort under way to secure an electric refrigerator for the Lesh infirmary.

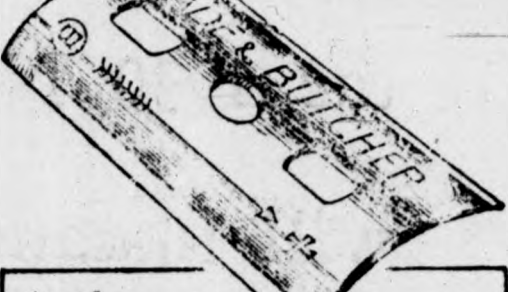

The Mothers' club in sponsoring the campaign, offered a $2.50 gold piece to the school pupil bringing in the largest number of wrappers. It was won by Mildred Whitten who secured 1135 and was followed a close second by Jamie Little with 1130. Florida school pupils collected 3920, Academy 1488, high school 1277, Providence school 224, and Mrs. W. A. Moorhead of Goldville, 432.

McDill Meeting Comes To Close

With a union congregation that taxed the church to overflowing, the special evangelistic services in progress last week at the A. R. P. church came to a close last Sabbath evening.

Throughout the week two services were held daily with Dr. T. H. McDill of Gastonia, doing the preaching. The meeting grew daily in interest and many expressions of appreciation have been heard of the eloquent and earnest sermons delivered by the visiting minister while in the city.
