PAINS Went Away

"I was very much run-down in health. I had a dreadful ache across the middle of my back. I had a dull, tired feeling, and I dreaded the thought of having to do my household tasks. I was tired when I got up in the morning. I got no rest from my sleep, and I was sleepy all day long."

"My husband got a bottle of Cardui for me. It was not long before I began to show a decided improvement. My strength began to return and I felt much more like myself. The sleepless spells gradually quit and the pains in my back and sides disappeared."

"Cardui is a splendid tonic for women. I proved it for myself."—Mrs. J. E. Sibbey, Box 22, R. F. D. 1, Elmore, Texas.

SARGON ENDS 10 YEARS TROUBLE

"Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills are the most wonderful medicines I have ever used. I say this because they have brought back my health after I had been trying for ten years to find something that would relieve me of my suffering. My principal trouble was with my liver, for my complexion was always sallow and I often said my color was as yellow as gold. I believe my entire system was filled with poison, resulting from chronic constipation and liver trouble. I became dreadfully nervous. I did not sleep well and was losing my strength and energy rapidly.

"I always had to be careful about my diet, but I would suffer with indigestion just the same. Gas would form and extend up around my heart and cause severe palpitation. I also had severe pains in my abdomen. Pains in my chest and shoulder also bothered me a great deal, and I was in a badly run-down and weakened condition.

"After taking two bottles of Sargon and one bottle of Sargon Soft Mass Pills I noticed a remarkable improvement in my condition. My appetite is splendid. I can now digest and assimilate food I hadn't dared touch before in months. I no longer suffer from indigestion but the greatest blessing of all has been the relief from constipation from which I suffered for so many years. My complexion is now clear and healthy. I have gained weight and feel greatly strengthened in every way.

"The Sargon Mass Pills are wonderful. They are so gentle and yet so thorough and cause no bad after effects whatever."

The above statement was made by Mrs. Alexander Malcott, 1405 West 6th Street, Oklahoma City. Sadler-Owens Pharmacy, Agents.—Adv.

Tots Are Burned To Death In Barn

Columbia, Nov. 2.—While in a barn playing with matches, George Andrew, Jr., 4, and Loman, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Swygert, Sr., of Balentine, were burned to death this afternoon.

The terror-stricken parents discovered the barn afire after the children had gone there to play. With flames blazing high on all sides, the father rushed into the main entrance of the structure, but was unable to find the children. They had crawled through a partition separating the stables from the place where hay was stored. Attempts to enter the stables were balked, as the entire building was aflame.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D., Associate General Secretary of the World's Sunday School Association.

International Sunday School Lesson for November 10 WORLD PEACE THROUGH MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING

Isaiah 2:2-4; Acts 17:22-28; John 4:20-21

In addition to the above Scriptural audience in Athens. He sought to impress them with the idea of the brotherhood of man through the Fatherhood of God. As such they should not lift menacing arms against each other. There is culture in the pursuits of peace even more than in the conquests from wars. Manhood is advanced in other ways than by acquiring skill in murder.

Jesus startled the woman of Samaria at the well of Jacob when he proposed kindly dealings between the Jews and the Samaritans, who for generations had been at bitter enmity. War is too often caused by national ambition which is fostered by national boasting about superiority. This Teacher of Peace asserted that place of worship had no value: it was a heart condition as the individual spirit sought communion with the Supreme Spirit. Being greatly interested in a common cause does away with local pride and self-interest. The Christian is indeed a world citizen and as such he sees the true worth in his brethren in all parts of the earth.

Paul advances the teaching as he addresses the cultured and philosophi-

Here's How BY E. W. HOWE "The Sage of Potato Hill" GOOD BEHAVIOR — STRANGE HABITS — SHAKESPEARE

Old Silerius, the Roman who wrote his memoirs so candidly, said: "In early youth I was ordered to behave, and this command was enforced in manhood, I was resentful until I discovered there was reason in command, and that I could, in considerable measure, obey to my profit. As common soldier and officer I early discovered that the best behaved armies were most efficient; most frequently victorious. This was the rule, likewise, in households, neighborhoods, commonwealths, senates and individuals. So thereafter I did not resent the command, as many do; my observation has been that the ill-behaved are usually so because of rebellion; they do not understand that good behavior is for their interest as well as for the interest of the commonwealth. . . . I as sincerely believe in good behavior as I believe in any other human policy that has turned out to be better than a bad one.

The delays, quibbles, expense, and corruption in our courts is disgraceful, compared with the courts of other countries; yet the people have taken no steps to reform the courts and the lawyers. . . . On the other hand, our railroads are better in every way than the railroads abroad. Our service is better, and charges lower, our privately owned railroads are better than the government managed railways elsewhere. Yet our attempts to reform the railroads amount to persecution; we are even willing to damage ourselves that we may cripple the railroads. . . . Of course we are the greatest and noblest people ever known, but I am coming to believe that even we have a lot of strange habits and need doctoring.

If Shakespeare's writing could be simplified, probably it would be found he originated more wit, more original and agreeable forms of expression, than any other hundred men of ancient or modern times. This man deserves his literary reputation; many others do not. But his writing is cast in such an ancient and difficult form that -have you driven a Chevrolet Six?

Have you felt the thrill of its six-cylinder performance—so smooth, quiet and vibrationless that you almost forget there's a motor?

Have you known the satisfaction of its six-cylinder reserve power—ready to shoot you ahead at the traffic light, to carry you over the steepest hills, or to speed you along the highway?

And do you know that anyone who can afford any car can own a Chevrolet Six?

If you have never driven a six-cylinder car, it is impossible for you to form any idea of Chevrolet performance from your imagination alone.

Smoothness! No rumble in the body—no tremble in the steering wheel—no vibration to loosen windows and doors!

Flexibility! Power that flows in a silken stream—and never a trace of "lugging"!

Quiet! Hardly a whisper from the motor. You can drive it for hours without the slightest noise fatigue! But why try to tell you the story when only a ride can give you the facts? Come in. There's a car waiting for you . . . Now!
