CENTURY CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The Century club will meet on next Tuesday, January 7th, at 4 p. m. with Mrs. A. E. Spencer.

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY

On New Year's eve Miss Martha Whitten entertained about twenty friends at a lovely party. A salad course was served. The late evening was spent in enjoyment of fire works and watching for the New Year.

D. A. R. CHAPTER MEETS MONDAY

The Musgrove Mill chapter, D. A. R., will meet with Miss Clara Duckett on January 6th, at three o'clock, with Mesdames J. F. Jacobs, Jr., and J. W. Finney as assisting hostesses. A short business session will be held followed by an address by Mrs. John C. Coulter, state regent.

U. D. C. TO MEET FRIDAY

The local U. D. C. chapter will meet Friday afternoon in the library, at the high school building. Dues for 1930 have been raised from $1.00 to $1.50 which amount is due in January. Hostesses for the meeting are Mesdames E. J. Adair, C. M. Bailey, T. D. Copeland, G. C. Pitts, E. G. Fuller and Miss Julia Ferguson.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

On Friday evening Miss Mary Howze Dillard entertained a few friends. Assisted by Irene and Emily Dillard, a sweet course was served to the following guests: Misses Caroline Martin, Copie McCrary, Nannie Sue Adair, Elizabeth and Katherine Blakely, Frances Bailey, Mary Emma Speake, Elmore Martin, Billy Owens, Fred Oxley, Dill Ellis, Henry Dillard and John Glenn.

INVITE FRIENDS TO DINNERS

On Monday and Tuesday evenings Mr. and Mrs. John T. Young entertained about fifty friends at course dinners. Pink carnations were used throughout the house as decorations and also adorned the separate tables. Misses Bessie Jones, Mary Howze Dillard, Sarah Copeland and Margaret Jones assisted Mrs. Young.

ACTAEAN CLUB WITH MRS. ADAIR

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. J. Adair entertained the Actaeon club. Festive decorations adorned the home and a salad course followed by cream and pound cake was served to the guests of the afternoon: Mesdames John McSween, Bothwell Graham, T. L. W. Bailey, J. F. Jacobs, M. J. McFadden, R. B. Vance, Guy Pitts, W. J. Bailey, G. A. Copeland, J. L. Wright, J. H. Witherspoon, B. H. Boyd, J. L. Carter, J. L. Longshore and L. B. Dillard.

COLLEGE GIRLS AT BREAKFAST

Mrs. L. R. Lynn and Miss Janie Lois Lynn entertained several of Thornwell's former daughters, who are now attending different colleges, at breakfast on Saturday morning. Those enjoying this delightful occasion were: Misses Mildred and Clifford Harris of the Woman's college of Florida, Sarah Coyle of Agnes Scott, Henrietta Jones of Chicora, Ruby Conrad and Alma Tanner of Maryville, Clemmie Jamison of Queen's college, and LaVerne McQuiston.

NABORS-SIMPSON

A wedding of interest, and one that came as a complete surprise, was that of G. R. Simpson and Miss Banna Nabors on Christmas day. The ceremony was quietly performed in Laurens at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. R. T. Major.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Nabors and the late J. M. Nabors of the Hurricane section, and is an attractive and much admired young woman. The groom has made his home here for a number of years, being connected with the Milling Grocery company as bookkeeper. He is a popular young business man of sterling worth and character.

INTERESTING MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

The following announcement will be of much interest in the city where the groom has many friends, being the son of Dr. T. L. W. Bailey:

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Morris announce the marriage of their daughter Annie Mae to

Mr. Thomas L. W. Bailey, Jr. on Sunday, December twenty-second Nineteen hundred and twenty-nine Florence, South Carolina At Home Washington, D. C.

DAVIS-WORKMAN

A very quiet and attractive wedding of the Christmas season took place on Friday afternoon, Dec. 27th, at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Claude F. Inman on Pendleton street in Greenville, when their niece, Miss Virginia Davis, was married to Hugh Bofds Workman.

The wedding, which came as a delightful surprise to their friends, was attended by only immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The home was simply and beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, baskets of pink carnations, and white branched candelabra holding white cathedral candles.

A pre-nuptial program of appropriate music was rendered by Miss Mary Inman, of Greenville, on the violin, accompanied by Miss Frances Williams of Clinton, at the piano.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Wash Watts of Greenville.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of black and wore a corsage of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple departed for a brief tour to unannounced points, after which they will be at home in Clinton.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis of Clifton. She was a popular member of the sophomore class of Winthrop college.

Mr. Workman is a well known farmer of the Hopewell section. He is a son of the late J. Floyd Workman, and Mrs. Workman.

NEW PRESIDENT TAKES OFFICE

Gilbert Blakely Becomes Directing Head of Kiwanis Club. Plans for New Year Outlined.

The regular meeting of the Kiwanis club Tuesday night marked the annual transfer of officers for the new year. The retiring president, W. D. Copeland, turned over the affairs of the club to Gilbert Blakely, recently elected as the '30 leader.

In retiring from office, President Copeland thanked the club for the splendid cooperation extended him and asked for the incoming president the same loyal support. Mr. Copeland has made one of the most popular and successful leaders in the club's history, and was heartily thanked by the membership for his valuable services.

In assuming the president's chair, President Blakely thanked the members for the honor bestowed upon him and asked the same united cooperation of the members for the coming year. John McSween responded for the club and expressed the delight of the membership in the selection of the former secretary for the new year's leader and pledged the club's interest and support.

It was shown by the Carolina Kiwanian of the Carolinas district, that the Clinton club for the past two months has lead the 6th division in attendance. The secretary announced four members with 100 per cent attendance records, B. L. King, F. C. Pinson, B. S. Pinson and Goyne L. Simpson.

The club voted to hold its annual "ladies night" celebration on the evening of January 23rd.

Officers to serve with President Blakely for 1930 are: Rev. C. Bynum Betts, vice-president; D. C. Heustess, secretary; W. D. Copeland district trustee, and the following board of directors: W. H. Simpson, W. W. Harris, B. H. Boyd, Rev. John McSween, Dr. L. R. Lynn, J. B. Hart and John Holland Hunter.
