Laurens Has Two-Game Lead Over Wato

City Preater slammed out two homers and Joe Landrum turned in a four-hit pitching masterpiece in the Saturday afternoon game at the polo ground.

Preater accounted for all of the Laurens runs in the first and third innings, each with a homer as he hit for the city club.

A crowd of 2,000 fans turned out to see the start of the series between the in-city rivals.

James and Clinton lost out in the elimination match before the hitless legions.

Again Monday afternoon Laurens raked up a 4 to 2 win over Wato with George Blackwell's chinking and Larry Campbell's hitting prowess with strong combination for their opponents.

The teams were scheduled to continue their battle for the playoff championship at Laurens this afternoon in the third inning at the city club.

Joe Landrum was slated to pitch for Laurens, with Lefty Hutchinson in the lineup for Wato. A tie game was expected.

Lineman Joseph Jones Electrocutted While At Work On Pole

Joseph W. Jones, 31, city lineman, was electrocuted Saturday afternoon at 3:30 from an electric shock received while working on a high voltage line near the city.

He was rushed to a hospital, but died on arrival.

According to Supt. B. R. Austin of the water and light department, his work was putting in new larger wire for the housing project under construction at the college when the tragic accident occurred.

Lineman Jack Baker was on the pole making a cut-in on a line carrying 2200 volts when the wire touched his arm between his job and elbow. Baker tried to get away, but he was electrocuted.
