Little Girl Has Party

Mrs. H. J. Puckett was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the community center celebrating the fourth birthday of her little daughter, Geraldine.

The rooms were decorated in a motif of green and red, suggestive of the Christmas season. Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Cumble led the children in singing and playing several games.

Later in the afternoon they were invited into the dining room and served cake and fruit punch. Happy Birthday was sung as the lighted birthday cake was brought in. Favors of small candy canes were given by Mrs. Puckett and Mrs. S. B. Snelgrove. Geraldine received many gifts from the twenty-two little friends present.

Christmas Party Enjoyed

Employees of the cloth room entertained with a lovely Christmas party Friday night at the community center. The rooms were decorated in seasonal colors of red and green. In the library a lighted Christmas tree adorned a table filled with gifts. Mrs. Burton Reeder, Mrs. Eloise McElven, Mrs. Lou Whitmire and Mrs. Wallace led in the recreation. In the parade of Christmas gifts Mrs. G. C. Parrish, Jr., won the prize, a huge candy cane. Burton Reeder won a corsage of red carnations which he presented Mrs. Reeder.

As the guests assembled in the library a knock on the door was heard and Santa Claus came in to distribute the gifts. An artistically wrapped gift was presented to Harold Hairston. When opened it proved to be a pair of long red flannels, which Mr. Hairston donned and wore during the evening.

From a beautifully laid table Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams served refreshments of hot dogs, potato chips, fruit cake and coffee. About forty guests enjoyed this lovely occasion.
