of historic importance.

Group one, under the leadership of Mrs. Myrtle McCumber will have charge of refreshments for the occasion.

At this time, the winners in the Christmas home decoration contest will be announced, three prizes being offered each year by the club for the most beautiful decoration, the most original decoration, and the simplest decoration.

Congress Has Spending, Tax Battles Ahead

Washington, Jan. 2.—Democratic and Republican leaders sparred cautiously today as they looked for an opening to land a political haymaker during the next Congress session starting yesterday.

With 467 of the lawmakers up for re-election this year, they aim to make every word and vote count toward a winning tally next November.

Senate Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois led off the preliminary word bout with a recommendation that Congress go slow in acting on proposals to repeal excise taxes. He indicated that although there is swell-
