

Ground-Breaking for Lydia Methodist Church

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Lydia Methodist church in that community were recently held and work begun at a cost of $28,000. Case Lumber company of Fountain Inn, is doing the construction. The lot, valued at $1,500, was donated to the church by Lydia Cotton Mills.

Broad Street Methodist church is responsible for the Lydia church. It is stated by the pastor, through the efforts of Mr. Garrison and members of the sponsoring church, the new project now under construction, has received considerable financial help, the officers state.
