Ever-Ready Class To Meet

Members of the Ladies Ever-Ready class of Epworth church will have their quarterly business meeting Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the assembly room. Mrs. Lester Longshore will present the devotion and meditation thought. Following the meeting, a social hour will be enjoyed with each one bringing a covered dish for refreshments.

Miss Bozard Honored

Miss Mildred Bozard, January bride-elect, was delightfully entertained with a tea on Saturday afternoon at the lovely Waits home on the Columbia-Greenville highway. Mrs. W. K. Waits and daughter, Mrs. Bernard Nabors were the gracious hostesses. The lovely home was decorated throughout for this enjoyable occasion. Formal arrangements of white mums, gladioli and fern in crystal containers were used at points of vantage. The refreshment table was beautiful in white. Flanking the large floral centerpiece were low silver candleholders with tall burning tapers. Punch, individual wedding cakes and salted nuts were served.

Assisting in the courtesies of entertaining were Miss Ruth Hair, Mrs. Robert Wren, Mrs. Elvin Abrams, Mrs. Harold Murphy, Mrs.

Mack Brown, Mrs. Pat Bowers, Mrs. Francis Goodlin, Mrs. J. B. Hart, Mrs. Alec Crawford, Mrs. Milton Waits and Miss Linda Waits of Greenwood and Mrs. G. N. Foy.

The receiving line was composed of the hostesses, Miss Bozard, Mrs. Helen Bozard, Mrs. Richard Cash of Cowpens, Miss Dorothy Goldson of Columbia and Mrs. James von Hollen.

The honoree was gowned in a mint green velvet dress with a waist corsage of white carnations.
