Bordua-Farmer Rites at Joanna

Miss Charlotte Bordua of Lake Butler, Fla., was married to PFC Elfred Ray Farmer of Joanna December 4 at 5:00 p. m. in Joanna's First Baptist Church. The couple is now living in Warrenton, Va., where the groom is stationed.

Mrs. Farmer, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bordua of Lake Butler, was graduated from Lake Butler High School. A Clinton High School graduate, PFC Farmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Farmer of Joanna.

Rev. James B. Mitchell officiated at the service, with music by Mr. and Mrs. James Riser, vocalist and organist, respectively. Marion Turner, Floyd Fuller, Mack Neighbors, and Frank Smith ushered and Shannon Long was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace sleeveless, scoop-necked, princess dress with Empire-height jacket featuring a Queen Anne collar. The chapel train was satin, attached at the back waistline in unpressed pleats. Her pearl-embroidered satin half-hat held a fingertip veil and her Bible held an orchid.

Attending the bride, Mrs. Shannon Long was attired in pastel blue taffeta and lace, her round-necked dress circled at the waistline with a deeper blue cummerbund. Her cap of blue rose petals held a circular veil. She carried a cascade of yellow chrysanthemums.

Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grantham and Miss Gabrielle Bordua of Greenville.

Holiday Theme For Bridal Party

Entertaining members of the club and additional guests, Mrs. C. W. Hogan was hostess for bridge on Tuesday afternoon of the past week assembling players for four tables.

The card rooms were beautifully decorated in a holiday motif. Garlands of pine over the mantel framed tall crystal vases of green and gold ornaments on either side and gold angels in the center. In the dining room a milk glass compote filled with gold fruit flanked by brass candlesticks and white tapers centered the table.

Between progressions refreshments of salad, sandwiches, and dessert were served.

Winners were, for the guests, Mrs. Judson A. Davis, and for club members, Mrs. A. B. Stump.

MRS. JAMES TERRY HUGHES —Shields Portrait

Baptist Ceremony December 17th Unites Martha Jane Horton, James Terry Hughes

After a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., and other points in the south, Mr. and Mrs. James Terry Hughes were at home at 600 East Ferguson St.

Mrs. Hughes, the former Miss Martha Jane Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Earle Horton of 600 East Ferguson St., and Mr. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Herbert Hughes of 401 Francis St., were married Saturday evening, December 17. The Rev. J. H. Darr, pastor of the bride, officiated at the 7:00 o'clock ceremony which took place at the First Baptist Church.

Miss Linda Bridges of this city, a sophomore at Furman University, as maid of honor; Mrs. Copeland Whitmire and Mrs. Iris Hughes, sister of the groom, bridesmaids, attended the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and Mr. Hughes served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Copeland Whitmire, Lewis Wallenzine, Shannon Long, Robert and Roy Horton, brothers of the bride, and Kenneth Nabors of Laurens, cousin of the bride.

James A. Orr, 3rd, organist, and Rev. B. A. Wesley, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Mr. Wesley sang, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," as a benediction. Organ selections included "Evening Star," "Angel Serenade," "Traumerai," Meditation from "Thais" and the traditional wedding marches.

Church decorations included an arrangement of mums and gladioli in the Baptistry above the altar, two seven-branched candelabras with white lighted tapers and at a lower level floor baskets of mums and gladioli on either side of a wedding arch.

The attendants day length dresses of blue taffeta were fashioned with dark blue cummerbunds of velveteen fastening in the back with two hand made roses. Their headpieces were matching taffeta crowns trimmed with bows and tiny veils and they carried nosegays of white mums and blue lilies of the valley tied with blue ribbons.

The bride's wedding gown of bouquet taffeta had a lace bodice styled with sabrina neckline, long lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt had lace motifs at the beginning of the chapel train. Her fingertip length veil flowed from a headpiece of hand made taffeta roses embroidered with pearls. She also wore a single strand of pearls and tiny pearl earbobs, a gift of the groom. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

For traveling the bride changed to a two piece beige wool jersey costume suit with brown accessories and wore the orchid lifted from the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Hughes, a graduate of Clinton High School, attends Jefferson School of Commerce here. She is also a secretary at the Charles H. Hughes Real Estate and Insurance Agency.

Mr. Hughes was also graduated from Clinton High School and is a ministerial student at Presbyterian College where he is a member of the junior class. He belongs to Theta Chi fraternity. He serves as supply pastor of the Lydia Presbyterian Church.

Holiday Drop-In At Pitts Home

Entertaining at her home on East Carolina Avenue on Saturday evening, Mrs. Raymond Pitts was hostess for a drop-in from eight until 10 o'clock.

The receiving rooms were beautifully decorated in keeping with the season. Pink gladioli and carnations were arranged in the living room with angels and other hand-carved figurines. In the dining room where guests were invited for refreshments served in buffet style, red carnations in a silver container and red tapers in silver candelabra centered the table overlaid with a white linen cover.

Assisting Mrs. Pitts were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hart, Mrs. Hubert Pitts, Miss Agnes Davis, Misses Lillian Hart, Jane Ann Davis, Jackie Pitts and her visitor, Miss Nancy Plapp of Stuttgart, Germany, and Stetson University.

The hostess' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Bultman, of Sumter, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Harris of Columbia, were out of town guests for the party.

Joint Hostesses Honor Bride-Elect

Miss Martha Jane Horton was honored on Saturday evening, the 10th, with a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Carson Nabors on Workman Street in Joanna. Joint hostesses were Mrs. Alvin Nabors, of Gray Court, Mrs. Luther Nabors, and Mrs. John Henry Nabors, of Joanna.

A number of the bride-elect's Clinton friends enjoyed the occasion. Upon arrival she was given a corsage. Games were played and later the hostesses served a salad plate, Russian tea and decorated cake squares, nuts and mints.

A seasonal setting for the party was effected with native greens, poiseities and red tapers on the mantel and a miniature ceramic Christmas tree.

Mrs. Benjamin Fetes Popular Bride-Elect

A lovely shower complimenting Miss Martha Jane Horton, popular bride-elect was given on Tuesday evening of the past week by Mrs. Arthur Benjamin at her home on Ferguson street. Miss Horton was married on Saturday to James Terry Hughes.

The honoree was given a corsage of carnations. Appropriate contests were enjoyed and later the odus of gifts presented. Mrs. Odus Young and Mrs. I. O. Ray assisted Mrs. Benjamin in serving sandwiches, cake and Russian tea.

For the occasion the hostess' home was attractively decorated in a green and white motif. Native greens were used with wedding bells and white tapers and an arrangement with a miniature bride was effective on the coffee table.

December Meeting of Wednesday Club

Mrs. R. E. Sadler was hostess to the Wednesday Study Club at her home on Broad Street recently for the December meeting.

An angel mobile, candies and holy were used in decoration.
