

On Jaycee Christmas Shopping Tour

The annual Christmas shopping tour was held by the Clinton Jaycees last Wednesday, when twenty-one children filled their bags with gifts for family and loved ones. Leaving the Armory at 3 p. m., they were each given $10.00 with which to make their purchases, and returned at 5:30 for wrapping and refreshments. Assisting the Jaycees in this heart-warming tour were the Jaycettes and the Campfire girls of Clinton. Shown accompanying the children are George Whitehead, president of the club, and Clyde Nelson, Jr.—Photo by Dan Yarborough.

A Christmas play will be presented at Shady Grove Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. Sunday night, Dec. 18, Fairview Baptist Church presented a Christmas program in the form of a playlet betraying the true meaning of Christmas.

Ladies of the Shady Grove Home Demonstration Club served a Christmas supper to members of the workers of Joanna Mills who work with James Evans.

About sixty-five guests attended. The devotional was given before supper. Immediately following supper the group exchanged gifts.

Mrs. Richard Boland and Mrs. Newman Shouse attended the Laurens County Teachers Christmas banquet at Clinton High School Thursday, December 15. Miss Sally Pitts was among the members of the home economics class that assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Hack Todd will spend Christmas with their son, Earle Todd, in Tennessee.

Friends of Mrs. B. W. Cooper will be sorry to learn he is a patient at Hays hospital.

The junior and intermediate GA's and Sunbeams of Fairview Baptist Church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Friends of Mrs. Alvin Tinsley will regret to know she has been confined to Joanna hospital due to a fall in which she suffered a broken arm.

Rush! Rush! Rush! That's all I hear now that the Christmas holidays have begun. Do you realize that in just four more days Christmas will have come and gone? During this Christmas rush we seniors are having to make frequent trips to the college library. There is no use putting off those research themes any longer.

Last Friday during chapel the awards were presented to four outstanding senior players. Philip King, captain of the football team and co-captain of the basketball team, was awarded the trophy for the most valuable player. The best sportsmanship trophy was presented to George Sease. Judge Vaughan and Jerry Hall received the best defensive player and the best blocker trophies, respectively. Each of these senior boys have improved the CHS football team and, at the same time, playing football has helped them adjust to life.

For the past week or so each student at CHS has been asked to bring some food to fill baskets to give to the cooks and janitors at school and also to needy families. Each homeroom decorated a basket and the students in the room brought a variety of food to fill the basket. During the chapel program Monday morning these baskets of food were distributed to the cooks and janitors. The remainder was given to a needy family by the Student Council representatives.

Recognition should be given to Louise Speake, who has been recently selected as Student of the Month for December. She has held various offices in the junior and senior national honor societies. This year Louise is the capable co-editor of The Clintonian.

Marvin Sanders, who won honorable mention in the first period judging of the Story of the Month contest, was recently notified that he had won second place in the second period judging. This state-wide contest is sponsored by the Winthrop College Journalism Department.

I would like to express my sincere hope that each of you have a joyous Christmas and a most prosperous New Year.

Scene At Woodruff

A living nativity scene is being presented nightly in Woodruff from 7:30 to 9:30. The schedule will continue through Saturday.

Churches in the Woodruff area are sponsoring the project.

Funeral Rites Held For Mrs. C. B. Smith

Mrs. Leila Strickland Smith, 80, died Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ola Meadors, after several years of declining health.

She was a native of Pomaria, but had made her home in Clinton for a number of years where she was a member of the Lutheran church.

She was married twice. Her
