Clinion, S. C., Thursday, October 17, 1949

Clinton Men at Annual Club Dinner

This group of Clinton men were caught by the photographer enjoying dinner last Thursday evening at the annual Laurens County inter-club barbecue at the fair grounds. Governor

Donald S. Russell was the speaker. Left to right, they are Russell Cooper, R. L. Paxico (standing), W. R. Anderson, Goyne L. Simpson, Phil Rogers, and Wyatt Ledford .- Photo by Eargle.

To Cost $1,100,000 PC Trustees Authorize Start on Three Buildings

Presbyterian College trustees | 000 for the women's dormitory. have authorized the start of con- to be known as Clinton Hall. It struction on three new buildings will be built to accommodate 120 simultaneously to be ready for girls. Cost of the new science hall in Durham, N. C., to serve over use by September, 1965, President Marc C. Weersing announced today.

He said $1,100,000 will be spent to provide Presbyterian College with a new science hall, new dining hall and its first women's dormitory. Construction bids will be taken as soon as the architects have completed detailed sketches of the proposed buildings.

Board action came on recommendation of the trustee building Shoot October 22 committee and with special emphasis that no Federal funds will be sought as loans to help finance shoot at John T. Young's Clinton Community Chest and of the South Carolina Synod last p. m. to 5:00 p. m. year and secured subscriptions totaling $1,900,000 for endowment on these pledges thus far have and $409.412 now in hand for building purposes.

ternational. District convention held recenlty is estimated at $500,000. And the a 13-county area of the South new dining hall, with a maxi-Carolina Piedmont during 1964. mum capacity of 800, will cost The Ninth Division encompasses $300,000. Robert M. Vance, Clinton banker-industrialist, serves as chair man of the Presbyterian College board of trustees. Its building ligious leader of his community committee is headed by J. L. for many years. A member of Bruce of Cornelia, Ga.

Wild Life Turkey The Laurens County Wildlife

Association will hold a turkey the project. PC conducted a Spring on October 22 from 1:00 the Chamber of Commerce, and service on the board of trustees

Vol. 64 - No. 41

STREET STREET STREET

Governor Reminds Public Servants Of Responsibilities

Public servants should not for get "public office is a public trust," Gov. Donald S. Russell told approximately 400 Laurens County civic club members Thursday night. The occasion was the annual county civic club barbecue at the fair grounds.

Referring to the recent John Profumo scandal in England. the governor emphasized it is vitally important that public servants measure up to high standards of integrity not only in their private lives, but when they discharge the duties of their office."

J. C. Thomas Named He said we are being told today that this country is facing a Lieutenant-Governor great crisis as Congress debates Of Kiwanis District tax and civil rights issues. Many J. C. Thomas, Clinton business- predict no action will be taken man, has been named lieutenant- this year. "We don't want a government that can act speedily.' governor of the Nineth Division, he said, "we could have that with Carolinas District, of Kiwanis In- a Hitler."

When governmental powers both executive and legislative, He was elected at the Carolinas were set up in the United States. he said, "we were seeking freedom . . . our constitution was not designed to insure quick right of minority . . . it was set up to accord that minority a right to will hold revival services beginbe heard."

15 local Kiwanis clubs. Thomas, the owner of J. C. Thomas, Jewelers, in Clinton and tax cut, he said the national gov- according to an announcement by Joanna, has been a civic and reernment is now spending "almost the pastor, the Rev. M. Floyd the same as when we were carry- Hellams. ing the burden of a world war." the local Kiwanis Club here for more than 20 years, he served as tax cut if it is to grow, but he the remainder of the services its president in 1953 and has been a member of the board of directors on several occasions. His civic activity also has in-the taxpayer.

to go on the appointed day. Sunday, Oct. 27, Is The Day Revival Services

To Begin Sunday At Davidson St. Church

ing Sunday, Oct. 20, and continu-Regarding the proposed federal ing through Saturday, Oct. 26, The Sunday services will begin

He said the United States needs a at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and lio Sundays." said federal expenditures also will begin each night at 7:30

tion is to be effective. He said teller, pastor of the Union Baptist both the federal and state gov- Church of the Laurens Baptist ernments have a responsibility to Association, as guest evangelist. Mr. Mosteller is a graduate of

The chief executive concluded, Furman University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Se owever, that he felt the country

Library To Close

For Concert

Concert Association.

Community Chorus

Practice Tonight

inary. Before moving to his pres-

The public is cordially invited

Clinton, S. C., Thursday, October 17, 1963

The Clinton Chronicle

Area Nurses to Aid in Massive Oral Polio Vaccine Immunization

Registered nurses of this section will be out in force on Oct. 27 to aid in administering the Sabin oral polio vaccine to the thousands of men, women and children at schools of the distrct. They will be at every designated school in the area, together with physicians and others who will join in the huge undertaking to wipe out polio. The local program has been well organized and everything and everybody will be ready Front row, left to right: Mrs. Charles Burnett, Mrs. Margaret Merchant, Mrs. Onnie Chisholm, Mrs. Essie Johnson, Miss Kitty Moseley, Mrs. Johnnie Haskins, Mrs. Janie Workman; second row: Mrs. Mary Lamb, Mrs. Ruby Gossett, Mrs. Grace Pearson, Mrs. Carolyn Davidson, Mrs. Marion Nabors, Mrs. Kate Willard, Miss Betty Watts, Mrs. Mrytle West; third row: Miss Peggy Dunaway, Mrs. Jean Rivers, Mrs. Billie Campbell, Mrs. Nell Haggert, Mrs. Nora Pigg.-Photo by Yarborough.

Oral Polio Vaccine Drive Set to Go

Davidson Street Baptist Church

must be decreased if the reduc- o'clock, with the Rev. Glenn Mos-woman and child over the age noon to 6:00 p. m., at various of three months in Laurens schools in the section. They are school.

All workers in the campaign are requested to meet for a training program at 4 p. m. Sunday, October 20, at Clinton of the vaccine will be an- disease.

The massive campaign, re-sections of the county and 10 phasized. He pointed out that cently announced, to immunize other counties of the up-state, older persons, while less likely against polio for every man, on Sunday, Oct. 27, from 12 to get polio, are frequently "carriers" of the disease. County will begin on Oct. 27 Clinton High School, Bell Street Therefore, he said, it is necin the first of three "Stop Po- High School, Joanna School, essary to give these persons Woodson School (Joanna), the Sabin vaccine so they will The campaign, under the Cross Hill School, and Midway not unknowingly give polio to sponsorship of civic lcubs of School (Cross Hill-Mountville), others. Polio still hits many the area, on the advice of the Doctors, nurses, and assist_ persons in the United States, he ants will be stationed at each said. While the Salk vaccine has reduced the number and Two other dates for adminis- severity of polio cases, it has tering the two subsequent doses by no means wiped out the

The steering committee

Dr. Weersing said the trustees expect the remainder of the funds pldeged for the building program to be paid during the next two years. They will explore no source other than what can be secured through the gifts of friends.

All three of the new buildings to continue the colonial Georgian architectural design of the erecting these new structures on grams for this winter. an east plaza, to be developed The versatility of the Green- the four artists. athletic fields.

The three proposed buildings into one of the most strikingly a reciprocal agreement with 1962 development drive. The Clin- in many seasons. ton community subscribed $300,- The group is made up of Her- 25.

Including $200 in Cash

Days" trade festival.

A turkey will be given away of the Laurens County public to the holder of the lucky ticket schools. He is past president of and plant additions. Payments on October 22 as also on suc- the South Carolina Retail Jewelceeding dates Nov. 13 and Nov. ers Association. reached $821,879, with $412,467 of 2 Owhen turkey shoots will be J. C. Thomas is a deacon of the this earmarked for endowment held. At the last shoot a rifle Clinton First Baptist Church, is will also be given to the win- married and has three daughner. ters.

Quartet Opens Concert Series Monday Evening

The Greenwich Quartet will ap- bert Rogers, pianist; Guy Lumia, pear at Belk Auditorium at 8:15 violinist; David Everhart, cellist, are to be air-conditioned and are Monday night, October 21, in the and Myron Rosenblum, violinist. Their programs usually consist first of a series of performances of the piano quartets of Mozart, college facilities. Plans call for in the Community Concert pro- Schubert, Brahms, Beethoven as well as solo groups by each of in the same pattern as the pres- wich Quartet is widely known Following the Greenwich ent west plaza. The two avenues and admired by music lovers Quartet will be the Schola Canof the east plaza will extend throughout the United States. The torum, November 6, and Whitteacross the campus area now quartet is a group of young musi- more and Lowe January 31. Subused for intramural and practice cians who first played together scribers to the Greenville Cominformally, and later emerged munity Concert series, which has were major objectives of PC's interesting ensembles to appear Clinton, may hear the Royal Philharmonic of London October

next year. Presbyterian Men's Session Set For Tonight

session.

Blakely Is

Hospital Patient

ville.

for the event.

the invocation.

The men's organization of the Clinton First Presbyterian Church will open its fall season this Thursday evening with a stewardship training program in preparation for the church's annual Pre-Budget Every-Member Canvass.

will have, at all levels, a gov-by Allen Coleman, president of

F. P. Thompson, superinten-

The barbecue, a tradition here

pared by Walter Lynch of Mount-dent of School District 55, offered

The governor was introduced wood.

the Laurens Kiwanis Club, host to attend these special services.

lic responsibilities and duties."

The meeting is scheduled for 7 p. m. in the recreation room of the First Church. Robert Hamer, visitation chairman of the canvass, will be in charge of the Thursday night been planned for the evening.

Hall

AA's To Have W. B. Blakely, assistant chief

Greenville Speaker of police, is a patient at Bailey Memorial Hospital following an There will be a guest speaker attack at his home on Young from Greenville at the regular Drive Tuesday afternoon. His weekly meeting of the AAs to be condition was reported as satis- held Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. factory by hospital attendants as These meetings are held at the The Chronicle went to press. | Health Center on Woodrow St.

County Fair Opens Gates

Monday for '63 Showing

The annual Laurens County white school day; Wednesday, Fair will open on October 21 for children free accompanied by a six-day run at the Laurens adult (adult 50c); Thursday col-County Fair Grounds on the Lau- lored school day; Friday 1964 auto to be given away; Saturday, rens-Clinton highway.

The fourteenth annual exhibi- pony given away. tion, managed by John G. Gat-| Sam Power, Jr., is president of lin, is sponsored by the Laurens the Laurens County Fair; Richard Shell is vice-president, and Exchange Club. Two $50 bills will be given away each week during the course of the event. Other prizes A new 1964 Ford will be given Clubs will also present a standwill change weekly and will in-clude two more watches, nine more hams, two bicycles, a TV, given away at 5:00 p. m. on Sat-two heir dware the show will be "Trends and Echoes" of Changing Times."

Is Exhibits will inclu

High School Gymnasium, acrenment that will carry out pub- ent pastorate he was pastor of cording to an announcement made by Dr. James L. Walker, Central Baptist Church, Greenlocal campaign chairman.

> Laurens County Medical Soci- since each vaccine immunizes ety, seeks to reach 100 per against a different one of the cent of the county population three types of polio virus. Persons who have already had the with an oral polio vaccine de-Salk vaccine must also take the veloped by Dr. Albert Sabin. The Presbyterian College-Clin- The Sabin oral polis vaccine on a sugar cube, since the for more than a decade, was pre- ton . Community Library will has already been given to more close Monday evening at 8:00, it than 300 million people all over has been announced by the libra- the world. one type of polio virus. The Hickory Tavern Lions rian, Miss Marian Burts. The According to Dr. James L.

Club will sponsor the barbecue library will close each evening at Walker, chairman, and Dr. gram by the Clinton Community man, for School District 56, a polio vaccine," Dr. Walker em- pay.

successful immunization program will mean that polio will be permanently eliminated. Every person is urged to take will hold a rehearsal tonight in disease forever.

The Sabin vaccine is licensed Hotel Mary Musgrove. the Ladies Class Room of the nounced, probably in December and Jaunary.

man pointed out that the Sabin vaccine is perfectly safe for "It is necessary that every any person to take. Even diaperson take all three of the betics, pregnant women, and vaccines," Dr. Walker said, mildly ill persons can take this vaccine-and should by all means take it, he added. A well-organized program for administering the vaccine has been worked out by the local Sabin Vaccine, which is given committee.

from surplus funds on hand, city

A nominal charge of 25 cents Salk vaccine only immunizeswill be made for each dose, to and that temporarily-against help defray expenses, but it was especially pointed out that "All persons regardless of no one would be refused the 8:00 p. m. when there is a pro- Louis M. Stephens, co-chair- age should take the Sabin oral vaccine because of inability to

Community Chest at 70% of Goal

A total of $15,259.25 was re- each solicitor to complete all advantage of this opportunity to ported contributed and pledged contacts and call-backs before The Clinton Community Chorus remove the threat of this dread to the Clinton Community Chest the next meeting on Tuesday, at a meeting held Tuesday at the October 29, at 9:30 a.m.

Mr. Cornelson advised that no First Presbyterian Church, in by the U. S. Public Health Ser- Stating that this represented division is 100% complete, but the main church building at 8 vice. There are three types of better than 70% of the goal of felt sure this goal would be obo'clock. All members are urged the vaccine, and the first will $21,672.01, George H. Cornelson, tained as a result of untiring efto attend and bring a singing be aministered in School Dis- president, said the results were forts of workers and cooperation trict 56, as well as in other extremely gratifying and urged of the public.

City Gets $57,840 Sewer Work Grant

The City of Clinton has been | Total cost of the project is than that, the excess will be paid awarded a grant of $97,840 to estimated at $196,800. assist in financing the construc-The city recently sold a rev- officials said.

who announced the grant Thurs-

Education and Welfare.

tion of a waste stabilization pond enue bond issue of $125,000 to The city expects to receive offiand interceptor sewer, according apply toward the cost of the sew- cial notice of authorization to acto official notice received here er expansion program, which will cept bids on the work in probably also include extensions in two a week or ten days, it was stated, Monday.

First notice of the award came other sections of the city in addi- and time required for the refrom U.S. Representative Robert tion to the oxidation pond to be ceipt of bids probably will be T. Ashmore and Senators Strom built in an area southeast of the three weeks after that. Thurmond and Olin D. Johnston, city. Work on the project should be-

The bond issue, plus the federal gin about Dec. 1, barring any day by the Department of Health, grant, make a total of $182,840. unforseen circustances, local offi-If bids on the work are greater cials stated.

Shoppers in the Clinton area, No winners were obtained in held over from last week-plus will get a windfall Saturday eve- the limited number of drawings two watches listed to be given ning at 6:45 when the drawing is for each prize last week and last away this week. held for prizes in the Clinton Pro- week's prizes will be added to Shoppers in Clinton stores pargressive Merchants "Loyalty those scheduled for this week.

A total of 15 prizes will be up to! drawn for-and the promoters | Heading the list are four $50 state that drawings will continue bills-two for this week and the until someone produces a ticket two held over from last week. Also included are nine hams, for each of the prizes.

And what a bonanza they add

Prizes Galore in Merchants Drawing

ticipating in the "Loyalty Days" celebration will get all of the prizes if they present matching numbered ticket stubs as they are drawn from a box on the parking lot of M. S. Bailey & Son, Bankers, off W. Pitts St.

Saturday evening at 6:45. Ticket holders must be present to win the prizes.

Tickets may be secured from all participating merchants.

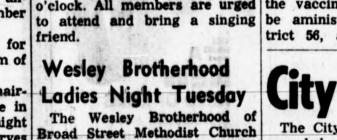

The "Loyalty Days" celebration began last week and will continue until Dec. 21. The sponsoring merchants will offer hundreds of special bargains during the course of the fall selling festival to show residents of the city and surrounding areas their appreciation for patronage accorded them over the years and to encourage the trade of new customers. two hair dryers, two radios and urday, October 26.

friend. Wesley Brotherhood program. John H. Hunter serves Broad Street Methodist Church

full attendance at this important Night Tuesday at 7:30 in Hodges An entertaining program has as canvass director and urges will have their annual Ladies

To Show Heifers at Fairs These Thornwell boys are shown here getting their heifers ready for showing at two fairs. Riley Fillin-name, left, is showing his Guernsey this week at the Spartanburg fair, while Larry Cockrell, right, will en-ter his Hereford in the Laurens County fair next week, October 21-26. Both boys are members of the Laurens County Singled out for a salute and merry go round, helicopter, new corps, beef cattle, dairy cattle, statement of appreciation each zoom ride, roloplane, meteor, junior show class, open show week will be schools, churches, scooter - coaster, tilt - a - wheel, classes and adult community exinstitutions, and industries of the scrambler, swingingym, 2 octo- hibits. area. Two industries included puses (one with new hydraulic Also women's divisions in canarea. Two industries included this week are C. W. Anderson Hosiery Co. and the Clinton Paper Box Co. Participating merchants are listed in an advertisement in The Chronicle today. The promotion is still open to any firm wishing to participate, it was stated. Merchants are requested to bring their tickets to the parking lot and T. Roy DeShields, Lanford, held crops and horticulture, jun-ior department. hy 6 p. m.

At Erskine Anniversary Dinner Here Monday

These area chairmen and speaker are shown at the dinner Monday evening at Hotel Mary Musgrove in celebration of the 125th anniversary of Erskine College which attracted many alumni and friends of the college. Left to right, front row, are Mrs. Joe Simpson of Whitmire; Miss Betty Blakely, Laurens-

11114

Clinton area; Mrs. Margaret Blakely, Laurens chairman. Back row: Charles Carlisle, business manager of the college, speaker; Mrs. S. C. Gambrell, Gray Court chairman; Bob Gettys, dis-trict chairman; and Mrs. Eimer Shealy, Newberry chairman .-- Photo by Yarborough.