

The Clinton Chronicle

Vol. 65 — No. 35

Clinton, S. C., Thursday, August 27, 1964

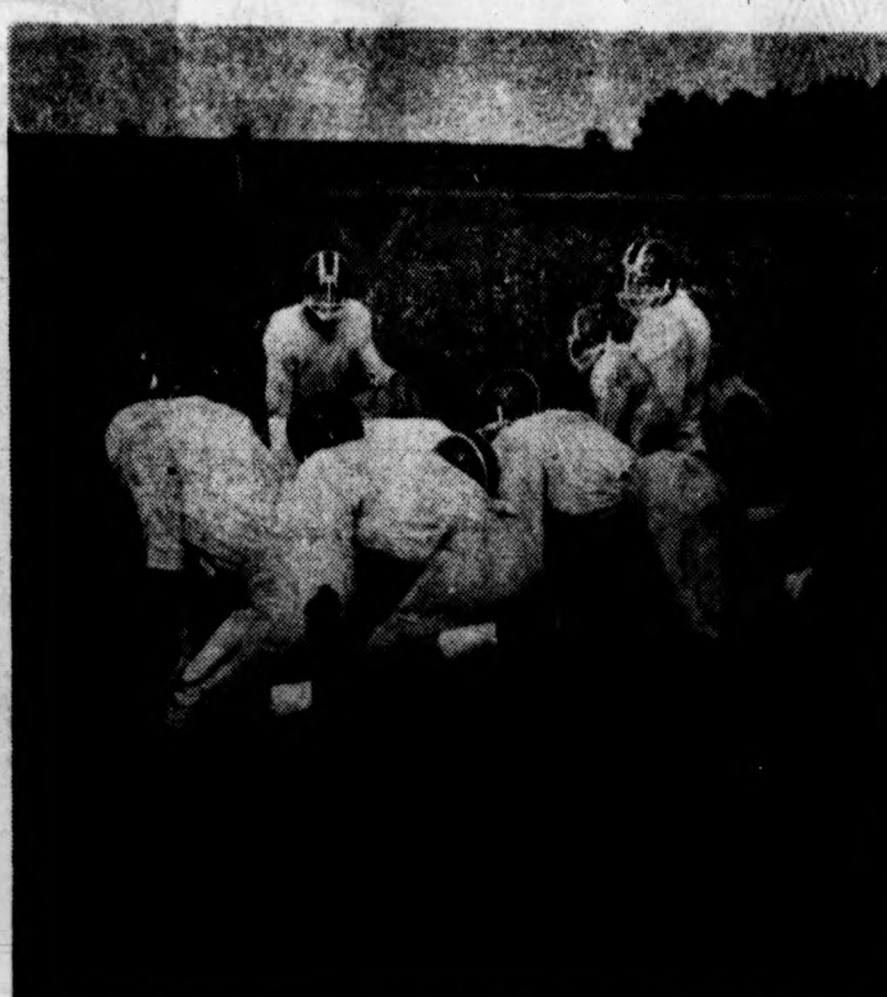

The 1964 football season is almost here—as these photos show. The Clinton High Red Devils have been engaged daily in practice sessions since Aug. 10, and are pointing to Sept. 4, date of the season's opener here with York High. The first photo shows the backs practicing plays, next the tackles and guards, and the ends in the third photo. On the right are the coaches, James Cox and Herman Jackson.—Yarborough Photo

Clinton High Football Team Goes Through Paces As Opening Game Nears

14 Lettermen Return

Clinton High Red Devils Prepare for '64 Season

The Clinton High School Red Devil football team is pointing to the Sept. 4 opening game of the up-coming season as they go through their paces in practice sessions.

Much grunting and groaning has been heard daily on the field since members of the team reported for conditioning drills on August 10.

Coach Claude Howe and his assistants have been busy getting their charges in shape and teaching them plays and formations.

Also returning are Coaches Herman Jackson and James Cox.

Thirty-eight varsity players — 14 of them being lettermen — are vying for positions; 35 junior varsity boys complete the Clinton roster.

Howe expressed guarded optimism in speaking of prospects for the coming season, saying they are in fairly good shape as to depth and size, with good speed. Only one man on the team weighs over 200 pounds.

Howe said the Red Devils will go up against some good teams this fall, with the opposition being as good or better than last year. The opening game will be with York High on Wilder Field here.

The 14 returning lettermen include:

End—Joe Fuller.

Tackles—Wayne Boland, Terry Fuller.

Guards—Tommy Copeland, Elbert Rice, Frank Spoope, Roger Miller.

Center—Binky Wingard.

Backs—J. W. Davis, Joel Whittell, John Willingham, Don Hanback, Kenneth Cathy, Darrell Hampton.

Coming up from the JV squad this year are backs: Gary Laney, Mike Sanders, Darrell Godfrey and Ken Allman; Linemen: Neil Hall, Randy Rushton, Roy Hauptfear, Steve Lanford, Harvey White and Carroll Barker.

THE SCHEDULE
Sept. 4—York here.
Sept. 11—Rock Hill there.
Sept. 18—Abbeville there.
Sept. 25—Chester there.
Oct. 2—North Augusta here.
Oct. 9—Lexington here.
Oct. 16—Union here.
Oct. 23—Winnboro here.
Oct. 30—Newberry there.
Nov. 6—Laurens there.
Nov. 13—Woodruff there.

Dr. Walton Joins College Faculty

Dr. Donald F. Walton is being added to the Presbyterian College faculty as an associate professor of education and psychology. Dean Joseph M. Gettys announced today.

The new professor comes to PC directly from Baylor University, where he recently received his doctorate in education and where he has been teaching as a graduate assistant for the past three semesters.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., Dr. Walton received his BA degree from Southwestern at Memphis in 1949 and his master's from Baylor in 1952. He has had seven years of teaching experience — five years in the high schools of China Spring, Tex., and Waco, Tex., and two as a teaching fellow at Baylor.

During World War II, he served for five years (1940-45) in the US Air Force and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Walton is married to Laura Gardner Walton, who will teach science at the Clinton Junior High School this year, and they have a son and daughter. They are members of the Presbyterian Church.

Power To Be Off Sunday Morning For Few Minutes

Electricity in the city will be cut off for a few minutes Sunday morning from 7 to 7:10.

The interruption is scheduled to enable Duke Power Company to make adjustments in their lines which feed into the city system, it is stated.

Miss Hairston With Welfare Department

Miss Carolyn Hairston of this city has joined the staff of the Laurens County Welfare Department in the capacity of case worker. Miss Hairston is a graduate of Clinton High School and the University of South Carolina.

Rev. W. F. Mitchell Accepts Cross Hill And Presbytery Posts

The Rev. William F. Mitchell, pastor of the Upper Long Cane Presbyterian Church for the past five years, has accepted the call extended by S. C. Presbytery and will become Executive Secretary and State Clerk effective Sept. 1.

In connection with this work he will also serve as pastor of the Liberty Springs Church at Cross Hill. He will succeed the Rev. Roy W. Coker who is to become Secretary of Church Extension for Lexington Presbytery in Virginia.

Since coming to Abbeville from Charlotte, N. C., Mr. Mitchell has been active in the local ministerial association and is currently serving as President. He is also Chaplain of the Abbeville County Soil Conservation District, and holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve.

He has recently served as Moderator of S. C. Presbytery, and is now Chairman of the Church Extension Committee, a member of the Home Missions Committee, and Camp Fellowship Committee of the Presbytery. He is also a member of the Commission on the Minister and His Work.

Mrs. Mitchell is the former Miss Mary Gilbert of Rodman, and they have three children, Mrs. Charles Tucker of Spartanburg; Franklin, 16 yrs. old and Kathryn, 8 yrs.

George W. Clark Receives Doctorate

George W. Clark, associate professor of history at Presbyterian College, has received his doctorate degree in history from the University of North Carolina, it was announced today.

Dr. Clark has served on the PC faculty since 1956. He came directly from the University of North Carolina, where he had completed residence requirements for his PhD while also serving as an instructor. He had received his MA from that institution in 1954 after obtaining his BA degree from Baylor University in 1947.

Two tours of duty as a navigator in the U. S. Air Force interrupted his education. Clarke served for more than four years during World War II and for more than a year during the Korean War.

A native of Memphis, Tenn., Dr. Clark is married to the former Gertrude Sowell, and they have four children.

Crafts Exhibit By Lydia Hobby Club

The Lydia Hobby Club will sponsor a crafts exhibit at the Lydia Community Building on Tuesday, September 1. Included in the exhibits will be new Christmas decorations. The community building will be open to the public from 9:00 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., and from 2:00 p. m. till 5:30 p. m.

Miss Nellie Osborne, instructor for the Hobby Club, has announced that fall classes will begin on Tuesday, September 8. The morning classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:00 till 11:30. An evening class will be held each Tuesday evening from 7:00 till 9:00 p. m.

These classes will be offered to families of Clinton and Lydia Mills employees.

Dr. Keisler To Be Installed On Sunday

At the worship service in St. John's Lutheran Church next Sunday morning, the Rev. Dr. Karl W. Kinard, President of the Lutheran Synod of South Carolina, will conduct a service of induction for the Rev. Dr. E. B. Keisler into his office of interim pastor of St. John's. Dr. Kinard will also preach the sermon at that service.

Dr. Keisler's father, the Rev. J. D. Kinard, served the congregation in its early years while he was pastor at Greenwood.

Dr. Keisler, in making the announcement concerning next Sunday's service, expresses the hope that all the resident members will be present and cordially invites any others to attend.

Leesville Members Attend Conference

The South Carolina annual conference of the Southern Methodist Church was held in Orangeburg August 20-23.

Those attending the conference from this area were Rev. Legrand Adams, pastor of Leesville Southern Methodist Church, George W. Dailey, and E. A. Jacks, all members of the Leesville church.

Throughout the conference it was emphasized again that the Southern Methodist Church is opposed to the National Council of Churches of Christ and also the apostasy that is prevalent today.

The Rev. Adams was assigned to the Leesville church for another year.

Welfare Council To Meet Tuesday

The Community Council of the Welfare Department will meet Tuesday, September 1, for a luncheon meeting at 1 o'clock in the Laurens Federal Savings and Loan Hall. Members are asked to call Calvin Cooper for reservations.

Earle Griffith of the South Carolina Alcoholic Rehabilitation Staff will speak.

Mrs. Bunker Returns

Mrs. E. C. Bunker has returned from a visit with her son, Edmund C. Bunker, and Mrs. Bunker, in New York. She will resume the teaching of her piano pupils the middle of September.

Edens Urges Work At Precinct Level

"America stands at the crossroads today," J. Drake Edens of Columbia, chairman of the S. C. Republican party said at a "Goldwater for President" barbecue Thursday night.

Edens, speaking to a crowd of about 250 persons at the Laurens County Fairgrounds, said, "If the conservatives of America don't elect Barry Goldwater in November then you will not get another chance to elect another conservative possibly in your lifetime."

The state Republican chairman said the GOP platform drafted in San Francisco "was tailor-made, representing the views of deep-seated beliefs of Goldwater and his running mate William Miller."

Edens urged the group to work at the precinct level for Goldwater's election. He said politics is a matter of friends influencing friends at precinct level.

The state chairman said that it was work at the precinct level over the past four years since the convention in Chicago that got Goldwater the nomination.

Edens was introduced by Niles Hanna, Laurens County Republican party chairman.

Regular Schedule Starts Monday

Schools In District 56 Begin Program Today

W. STANLEY FINCH

Texize Official To Speak To Lions Club

W. Stanley Finch, director of public relations and sales training for Texize Chemicals, and widely known as a lecturer, public speaker and author in the field of sales motivation and selling, will speak at a meeting of the Clinton Lions Club Friday night.

Mr. Finch joined the Texize company as a salesman and rose successfully to district and division manager before being named director of sales training for this manufacturer of textile and industrial chemicals and household cleaning supplies.

Prior to joining Texize, he served as sales manager for one of the South's largest frozen food distributors and a sales executive for two of the nation's leading manufacturers of soft drinks.

He has taught courses in public speaking and is the author of several articles on "How to Sell," as well as a recorded sales-training course, "The Secret of Selling." He is widely sought as a public speaker and makes many appearances each year before trade and professional groups, college and university groups, civic organizations and sales executive clubs.

School opening activities for district 56 pick up speed today and tomorrow (Thursday and Friday) when all pupils will report to their respective schools on one day or the other.

Monday will be the first day for launching the regular schedule and lunch rooms will begin operation that day.

The first graders got the program underway Tuesday when they reported at 8:30 a. m. at all elementary schools. They will not report today.

Grades 2 through 10 are scheduled to report to their respective schools this morning at 8:30.

Friday, the first graders will return, as will grades 2 through 8, together with grades 11 and 12. After a full week of the regular schedule, beginning Monday, the schools will take a holiday on Sept. 7—Labor Day.

The schools will be headed this year by Robert P. Wilder, who became superintendent upon the retirement of W. R. Anderson. Mr. Wilder had been principal of Clinton High School for a number of years.

Faculty meetings were held Wednesday at Clinton High School and at Bell Street High School.

PRINCIPALS

The following will serve as principals of the 11 schools of District 56:

Clinton High — A. Wilmoth Shealey.

Junior High — John H. Fulmer.

Hampton Avenue — Herman L. Shealey.

M. S. Bailey — Horace E. Smith.

Providence — James A. Longshore.

Joanna — James T. Williams.

Mountville-Cross Hill — J. Eugene Stockman.

Bell Street High — McQuilla Hudson.

Martha Denny Elementary — David E. Dandy.

Midway — Lewis Knightmon.

Woodson — Nathaniel Williams.

REMAINING SCHEDULE
Thursday—Grades 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 report at 8:30 a. m.
Friday — Grades 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12 report at 8:30 a. m.

Monday — Regular schedule (lunches will be served)
Sept. 7 — Labor Day — holiday.

James H. Jacks, Of Near Mountville, Dies After Illness

Mountville — James Hendrix (Jimmie) Jacks, 73, of Rt. 1, Mountville, died Wednesday morning, Aug. 19, at Bailey Memorial Hospital, Clinton, after a week of illness.

A native of Laurens County where he spent his entire life, he was a son of the late Isaac C. and Susan Blalock Jacks. He was a member of Lisbon Presbyterian where he was an elder many years. He was a farmer until his retirement several years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lula Belle Madden Jacks; a son, J. Russell Jacks of Laurens; a daughter, Mrs. Eloise Watson Dobbins of Laurens; four brothers, A. B. Jacks of Clinton, Homer Jacks of Joanna, Vernon Jacks of Elizabeth, N. J., two sisters, Mrs. Ida Morgan of Springfield and Mrs. Susie McCary of Greenwood; six grandchildren and a great grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at 4 p. m. at Gray Funeral Home in Clinton by Rev. Dial Jacks and Rev. Gunnar Rambeau. Burial was in Lisbon Presbyterian Church cemetery near Mountville.

Pallbearers were the following nephews, Dan Morgan, Duffie Stone, Rufus Madden, Richard, Derl and James Jacks.

The honorary escort included elders and deacons of the Lisbon Church.

Republican Party Officials at Barbecue

This group of Laurens County Republican party officials, with the state party chairman, are shown here as they launched the "Goldwater for President" campaign Thursday night at a barbecue at the Laurens County fairgrounds. The meeting, attended by 250 people, was addressed by J. Drake Edens of Columbia, state chairman. In the photo are, left to right, Randall Smith, financial chairman; Edens; Mrs. Smith, president of the county women's organization; Niles Hanna, county chairman; Ted Anderson, secretary-treasurer; David Magers, state executive committeeman.

Old Hotel Building Comes Down

This is the old Clinton Hotel—what's left of it—shown early this week as workmen continue demolition of the structure which began early in July. The site will be cleared and prepared for a city parking lot. The property was recently bought by the city.—Photo by Yarborough.