Beverly Muller Named Miss Clinton for 1965

Beverly Lynn Muller, a blonde 19-year-old lass, was crowned Miss Clinton for 1965 at a Jaycee-sponsored pageant at Belk's Auditorium here Saturday night.

The winner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muller of Clinton, is a 1964 graduate of Clinton High School and attends Presbyterian College. For her talent presentation, she sang and performed a fire baton dance.

Clintonian, Sentinel Heads Named at CHS

Miss Judy Abner and Miss Jeannie Glover will edit next year's Clinton High School annual, The Clintonian, and Miss Patsy Simmons will head the staff of the newspaper, The Sentinel.

Last week's announcement also named Dick Ferguson assistant editor of The Sentinel, and Bill Copeland business manager of The Clintonian. Ronnie Traylor will be The Clintonian's advertising manager.

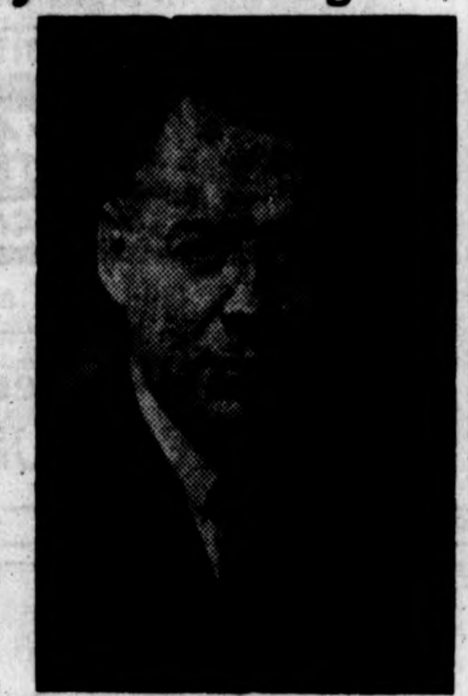

Additional members of the staffs will be announced later.

Former Presidential Assistant To Speak at Presbyterian College

Dr. Arthur Larson, director of the World Rule of Law Center and Special Assistant to the President during the Eisenhower Administration, will speak at Presbyterian College on Friday morning.

He will appear as the 1965 speaker for the Newton Gary Hardie, Sr., Memorial Lecture series at PC. The program is scheduled for 10 a.m. in Belk Auditorium, and the public is invited. His subject: "What We Are For."

Dr. Larson attended Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar, has taught in the law schools of the Universities of Tennessee, Cornell, and Pittsburgh where he was dean of the law school. His government service included being Under-Secretary of Labor and then director of the US Information Agency before becoming Special Assistant to President

DR. ARTHUR LARSON

Eisenhower. Currently, he is director of the State Department on United Nations matters.

Dr. Larson is considered one of the most forceful and authoritative speakers on the platform today. He looks at life and world affairs from the standpoint of what we are for and what we can do, rather than from the familiar position of criticizing and tearing down men and their ideas.

Camp Fire Camp Registration To Close May 14

Registrations for the Clinton Council of Camp Fire Girls week of summer encampment will close Friday, May 14. Registrations may be given to group leaders or mailed directly to the Camp Fire Hut.

Camp Greenville will again be the site for the camp week May 29 through June 5.

Mrs. A. B. Davidson, will serve as camp director and she states that the health and safety of your daughters is the first concern. A competent staff consists of a registered nurse in camp, a doctor within call, Red Cross water safety instructors, counselors and qualified instructors for all camping activities.

Some of the activities are handicrafts, nature studies, hikes, outdoor cooking, canoeing, swimming, archery, tennis and other sports and games.

Campers will again furnish their own transportation, but anyone unable to obtain a ride is urged to call her leader. Campers are expected to arrive between 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. Saturday, May 29 and leave camp by 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 5.

The $20.00 camp fee, less candy sale credit, may be given to your leader or mailed directly to Clinton Council of Camp Fire Girls, Clinton.

Mrs. Johnson Tells Of Guidance Program

The Business and Professional Women's club met last Tuesday night at the Hotel Mary Musgrove.

Mrs. P. M. Pitts presided and welcomed Mrs. Fred Holcombe, Mrs. Earl Horton and Mrs. Morris Seymour as special guests.

Mrs. Marion Lawson presented a skit, "Straight from Paris" with the following members taking part: Mrs. Grady Chandler, Mrs. Tan Ray and Mrs. Harold Power.

In briefly reviewing the program conducted by the guidance center at Presbyterian College, Mrs. Robert Johnson touched on three points, the educational expansion in the local church, importance of meeting with the guidance center, and the follow-up of counseling.

During the business session, the group approved the proposed budget, and made plans to attend the Business and Professional Women's clubs convention in Charleston May 14-16.

Kids Day To Be At Legion Hut

A treat is in store for the children next Tuesday as the Clinton Kiwanis Club puts on a Community Kids Day on the American Legion hut grounds from 2 until 10 p.m.

Free entertainment and admission are offered to the young people and a charge of 25 cents will be made for rides which include the mechanical type, as well as live elephants and ponies. These are small rides for small children.

Aerialists and animals will perform from time to time during the carnival, and refreshments will be for sale at a concession stand on the grounds.

This Kiwanis sponsored project will turn its proceeds over to the club's various charity programs. Committee chairmen for the event are Ralph Tedards, publicity; Bob Cox, advance ticket sales; Bob Wassung, concessions; C. C. Giles, business ticket sales; and Reese Young, tickets on Kids Day. D. H. Roberts is president of the Kiwanis Club.

Still Destroyed Near Ware Shoals

Laurens — County and federal officers destroyed a 55-gallon whiskey still Sunday and arrested a man at the site, two and a half miles east of Ware Shoals, just off S. C. Highway 29.

DR. A. B. STUMP

College Receives Grant for Science

Presbyterian College has received a $6,900 grant from the National Science Foundation to assist in the purchase of scientific equipment for the biology department. President Marc C. Weersing announced today.

He said this sum has been awarded PC for support of an "Undergraduate Instructional Scientific Equipment Program" under the direction of Dr. Alex Stump, biology department chairman.

It marks the second NSF grant awarded Presbyterian College in recent years, the chemistry department having been designated for support in 1962.

Dr. Stump said the total benefit to the biology department will amount to $13,741.75 when the grant is combined with college matching funds. Of this total, $12,377.50 will go for scientific equipment and $1,364.25 for teaching aids.

The objective of the National Science Foundation program is "to assist colleges and universities in the crucial task of meeting the nation's requirements for competent scientists and engineers by making grants on a matching basis for the purchase of scientific equipment for undergraduate instruction." Funds are used to implement existing programs and courses rather than new ones.

Dr. Stump, who has served as professor of biology at PC since 1947, expressed keen satisfaction over the grant. He said:

"This program will benefit all area of the biology department. We are especially pleased to receive the funds at this time as we point toward moving into and equipping our new science building the latter part of the summer."

Lions Club Broom Sale Tonight and Friday

Lions Phil Rogers, left, and Ernest Ouzts, are shown making an early broom sale to Mrs. James L. Walker in the annual Lions Club broom sale set for tonight and tomorrow night in the Clinton area. Young George Walker is making certain his mom buys several, and all housewives are urged to cooperate with the Lions' project as proceeds will be used for the sight conservation program of the club. The brooms are made by blind workers in a Columbia workshop sponsored by Lions clubs of South Carolina. Speakers will be Dianne Ledford as class historian, and Rena Cox as class poet; and Mike Johnson will give the prayer. All are eligible to win Old English "C's" for their contribution to activities while in high school.

Chamber Commerce Asks Council's Aid in Survey

Officials of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce Friday night requested City Council's support in a city planning survey that would be conducted by the Architectural School at Clemson University.

Don Creighton, president of the chamber, told council the study was necessary to attract new industry into the area. He said the chamber would bear a part of the expense of conducting the survey.

Council accepted the request as information but took no action.

A group of residents of West Bluford Street appeared at the meeting requesting street improvements, installation of a second fire hydrant and vapor street lights.

Rev. James Huey, group spokesman, said the street needed widening and resurfacing.

Council agreed to consider the request and promised to improve the street in the near future.

Mayor J. J. Cornwall announced to council that he had named three men to an interracial committee to advise on any racial question which might arise. Committee members are Tom Flaxico, Barry Meadows and David Dendy.

In other action, council approved the purchase of a tractor and mower for the street department at a cost of $3,212.

Agreed that a city ordinance requiring any resident living within 300 feet of a sewage installation to tap on be strictly enforced.

Miss Richey Heads Erskine NSEA Chapter

Miss Anne Richey of Clinton, a 1962 graduate of Thornwell High School and a rising senior at Erskine College, has been elected president of Epsilon Sigma Tau, Erskine's chapter of the National Student Education Association, for the 1965-66 academic year.

She was installed as president Tuesday, May 4, at a banquet in the Erskine Dining Hall.

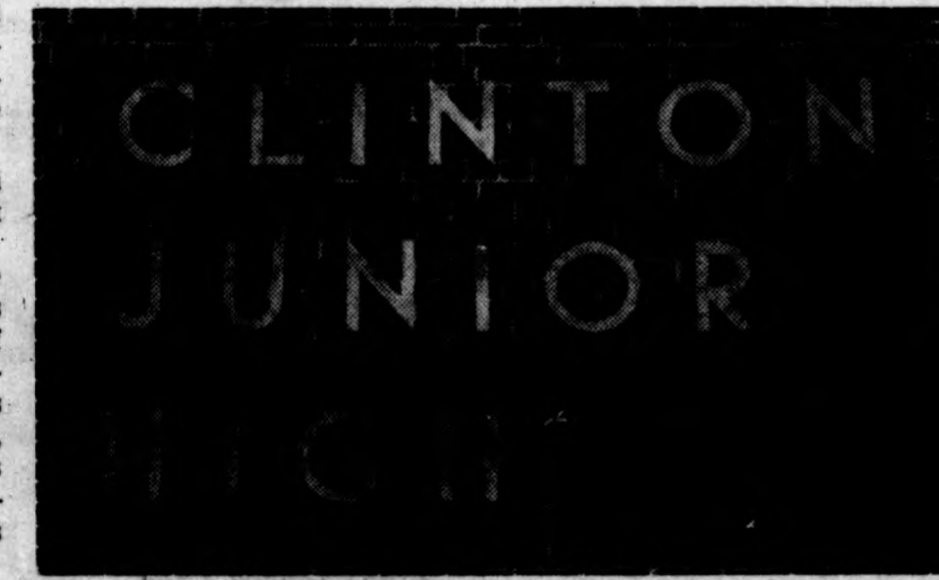

Lydia Children Have First Train Ride

First and second grade children of Providence school, Lydia Mill, enjoyed their first train ride to Greenwood Tuesday. One of the highlights of the trip was a glimpse of their own school and the entire student body down near the tracks waving a "bon voyage" as they passed.

At the Greenwood station, each child was presented a Railroaders-Certificate and a Train Ride color book. After enjoying a picnic lunch under a large shade tree at the station, they went on a shopping spree in the dime store where they had their first experience in making purchases, paying for them, and receiving change.

The return trip was by bus. Accompanying them were their teachers, Mrs. B. B. Ballard and Miss Lou Belle Neighbors; also Mrs. Keith McGee and Mrs. Columbus Hughes. — Photo by Yarborough.

Students Purchase Lettering

Large aluminum letters giving the name of the school, Clinton Junior High, have recently been erected on the rear of the new section of the junior high school building facing E. Main St. The letters were purchased by the students through the sale of book store supplies and concessions at football games. One hundred books for the school library have been bought with proceeds, netting $580. Other books are on order.—Photo by Yarborough.
