

Building Dedicated to Clinton Boy

A headquarters building for the use of the Greenville Air Patrol cadets and senior officers was dedicated Sunday in memory of the late Shelton J. Rimer, Jr., whose parents reside near Clinton. Cadet Rimer, who died last year at the age of 18, was the recipient posthumously of the annual H. M. Dickerson award and the Meritorious Service award from the National Civil Air, Patrol headquarters. A color portrait of Cadet Rimer was placed in the building. In the photo, from left, are Miss Kathie Rimer, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton J. Rimer and Major Harold M. Dickerson, cadet commander of the Greenville CAP squadron.

Marin Thomas Tobarday . 3 . A noish

Withholds $3,621.50

Former Magistrate Pleads Guilty in Court

zard pleaded guilty in Gen- 's pa'd. eral Sessions Court here Monday for failure to turn over to County Treasurer Allen Coleman $3,-621.50 in fines and penalties he collected while in office.

Presiding Judge Steve C. Griffith of Newberry sentenced Bozard to six months and a fine of $1,000, suspended on payment of carried probation for three and three years probation.

ed of by guilty pleas. Defend- years probation. their sentences were:

fine is paid. Raymond Tucker and Bobby Parris, non-support one year or $1,500. each, suspended on payment of $30.00 a week and probation until the fine is paid.

J. Earle Jackson, non-support, $1,500, suspended on payment of $15 a week and probation until fine is paid.

Hoyt Blackwell and Melvin Earl Madden, violation of liquor Frank Nelms, operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants, four years or $3,000, suspended on service of nine months or payment of $750, and four years probation.

Lloyd Dobbins Cash, operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants, three years or $2,000, suspended on service of three months or available in the near future. probation.

probation.

service of three months or pay- nancial campaign. ment of $250 and two years probation.

William Eugene Armstrong. operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicants, three years or $2,000, suspended on service of 20 months or payment of $1,000 and two years probation.

Bobby Gene Manor, indecent exposure, two years, suspended and three years probation.

Woodard Craine, assault and battery of a high and aggravateed nature, five months, suspended, and 18 months probation. Clay Wise, non-support, one year or $1,500, suspended on ayment of $20 a week and probation until fine is paid.

Charlie Cletus Smith, operat-ing a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants, three years or $2,000, suspended on service of six months or $500 and two years probation.

Milton Murray, shoplifting, 18 months, suspended on service of four months and three years probation, the sentence to run concurrently to a similar sentence he is serving in another county. Whit Campbell, Jr., non-support, one year or $1,500, susnded on payment of $1,500, Laurens - Former Laurens suspended on payment of $25 a session with an awards lunch-County Magistrate Derrill Bo- week and probation until fine eon Friday.

> Ifal Leeds, violation of bad heck laws, three months, suspended on good behavior. Johnny B. Vance, five cases of housebreaking and larceny, 18 months, suspended, and two of religious leaders has offered ars probation.

Izzie Stroud, assault and battery of high and aggravated nathe shortage. The sentence also ture, nine months, suspended, Jake Brown and Colie Barr, Bozard was suspended as assault and battery of a high magistrate of Hunter Township and aggravated nature, one year Hugh H. McCauley, its director, in March and George Simpson each, suspended on payment of from Seneca. was appointed by the governor $150 and two years probation.

Tommy Varnadore and The grand jury completed its Charles O'Bryant, one case of work for the June term Monday larceny each and one case of afternoon and returned 78 true housebreaking and larceny each, 18 months, suspended on ser-Thirty-two cases were dispos- vice of two months and two ning communion service will be

Charles Claude Hughes, non-influence of intoxicants, one Church. support, one year, $1,500, sus- year or $1,500, suspended on Classwork will be concluded pended on payment of $12.50 a service of two months or pay- on Friday morning, followed by Rogers has been assigned as week and probation until the ment of $200 and two years pro- the awards luncheon at 12:50 the new pastor of Broad Street

Synodical School Ends Session Friday

They assembled here on Monday afternoon and began a full week of activities developed around the theme "The Living Word and Our Way of Life Today." A distinguished faculty daily classroom instruction leading toward diplomas and certifocates. These will be presented to qualifying members at the Friday luncheon by Mrs. Walter S. Moore of Walhalla, dean of the school, and Mrs.

The Thursday program includes a continuation of morning classes and the platform Bible hour and an afternoon tea at the home of President and Mrs. Marc C. Weersing. An eveconducted by the Rev. Alfred ants who pleaded guilty and Charlie Adams, operating a Bixler and his session of the motor vehicle while under the Clinton First Presbyterian

p. m. and adjournment.

College to Receive Grant Of $326,522 for Building

ceive a $326,522-grant under the ties Act made available to South Higher Education Facilities Act Carolina this year $1,969,998 in Heights section of the city. laws, $300 each or three months. toward the cost of the new sci- of new facilities for college lience building now under con- braries and buildings designed struction, President Marc C. to increase instruction facilities

Weersing announced today. cation has designated PC as one additional $859,181 is available of eight senior colleges in the for this fiscal year for the constate to receive grants under struction of buildings of technithis newly inaugurated pro- cal centers or public community Legare, 4. gram. Funds will be made junior colleges.

John Calvin Stewart, operat- $833,740 science building. This grants are processed through University of South Carolina in ing a motor vehicle while under structure is to be completed the Clinton office of Dr. Mar- 1947, Master of Religious Educathe influence of intoxicants, this fall as part of a three- shall W. Brown, co-ordinator of tion degree from Emory Univerthree years or $2,000, suspended building construction project the South Carolina Commission sity in 1949, and the B. D. degree on service of six months or pay- which also finds PC's first wom- on Higher Education Facilities. from Duke University Divinity ment of $500 and three years en's dormitory and a new din- An advisory committee then School in 1955. He has also stud-Charite Nelson, operating a Most of the funds for the total and Control Board the allotment Carolina, Yale University, Unimotor vehicle while under the $1,850,000 building project were which should be made to each versity of London, and is currentinfluence of intoxicants, one raised by the Synod of South college, and final approval is ly pursuing the Master of Sacred year or $1,000, suspended on Carolina in its special 1962 fi- given by the US Office of Edu- Theology degree at the Lutheran

Presbyterian College will re- The Higher Education Facili-

in mathematics, modern lang-He said the US Office of Edu- uages and the sciences. And cation.

Dobbins Named Citizen of Year

South Carolina State Senator William C. Dobbins from Laurens County on last Thursday was presented the Citizen of Year award by the Joanna Lions Club.
Dobbins, charter member and first president of the club, is shown (right) receiving the award from Claude
M. Lawson, president-elect.

The Clinton Chronicle

Vol. 66 - No. 24

Clinton, S. C., Thursday, June 17, 1965

To Remodel Building

600 Former Students Join Thornwell Reunion

others came only for the Sunday dega. program and did no register.

The homecoming began Fri- day morning, the group adopted Rev. C. E. Piephoff, pastor of further contributions. Presbyterian women of South Monaghan Presbyterian Church; At the banquet Saurday night, Carolina Presbytery, assembled Graham Miller, New York attor- Dr. Lynn, 90-year-old former the Presbyterian College ney, presided over the Saturday president, was recognized "in campus this week for their 18th night banquet; an early Sunday love and appreciation for his annual Synodical Training morning communion service guidance and instruction in School, will complete the 1965 was led by Rev. John Allen Christian living." He and his 88-

. E. W. Rogers Comes To Clinton's Broad St. Church

Methodist Church. He will oclier during the previous week.

He and his family will occupy the Methodist Church home at the corner of Pine and Chestnut Streets in the College View

Mr. Rogers comes to Clinton from the Barnwell Methodist Church, where he has served since 1962.

The 43-year-old minister's family consists of his wife, the former Louise Davis of Columbia, and their four children, Margaret Lee, 18, Edwin William, Jr., 15, David Lenoir, 9, and Christiana

Mr. Rogers is a native of Sum-These grants are made under ter, attended the local schools, payment of $250 and three years The $326,522 grant represents provisions of Title I of Public and received a B. S. degree in one-third of the total cost of the Law 88-204. All South Carolina business administration from the ing hall nearing completion, recommends to the SC Budget ied at the University of North Southern Theological Seminary in Columbia.

Mr. Rogers served two appointments in North Carolina before returning to South Carolina in 1956 when he organized the Aldersgate Church at Sumter and completed the first two building units valued at $225,000 while serving as the first pastor. He then went to the Barnwell Church.

Mr. Rogers served in the U.S. Naval Reserve during World War Two aboard a cruiser in the Pacific area of operations, participating in 44 naval engagements and earning 12 stars. He has completed 20 years as a Navy chaplain, holding the rank of lieu-tentant commander, and chaplain of Construction Reserve Division 6-1, Columbia.

He was chosen Man of the Year by the Sumter Civitan Club in 1960, was active in March of Dimes work, social endeavor, and Boy Scout activities, and was chaplain of his Masonic lodge.

He served on the S. C. Conference Board of Missions and Education, was president of County Ministerial Associations in Sumter and Barnwell, and is a member of the board of directors of the Wesley Foundation, University of South Carolina.

More than 600 former students Johnson, pastor of the Presbyat Thornwell Orphanage gather- terian Church of Seneca, assisted here during the week-end for ed by Rev. L. Ross Lynn, now the most successful reunion ever of Tallahassee, Fla., beloved forheld, according to officials of the mer president of Thornwell, and Rev. Dr. M. A. Macdonald, Thye came from all sections of president; the preacher for the the country and were entertain, Sunday morning worship service. ed on he campus for the three- was Rev. Allen C. Jacobs, presiday event. Registration totaled dent of the Alabama Presbyte-518, but it was stated that many rian Children's home at Talla-

At the alumni meeting Saturday, continuing Saturday and as a project the remodeling of Sunday. Speakers and leaders the "Home of Peace," oldest were all former Thornwell resi- building on the campus of the dents. Rev. Furman E. Jordan, 90-year-old instituiton. At the pastor of the First Presbyterian close of the session, approxi-Church in Bessemer, Ala., con- mately $18,000 had been pledged ducted a Saturday morning wor- on the project which is expectship service; L. L. Dunlap, of ed to cost from $30,000 to $35,000. the State Department of Edu- It was also announced that the cation, Columbia, as president, $50,000 goal of the William presided at the Saturday meet- Plumer Jacobs Education Fund ing of the Alumni Association; a had been reached and passed. memorial service was led by However, it will be kept open for year-old wife were presented

Mrs. T. P. Hartness of Spartanburg, a benefactor of Thornwell, was also present. She was presented a gift and lauded for the institution. She and the late husband have built several buildings on the campus, and a handsome new church given by Mrs. Hartness is now under construc- ness.

The group also recognized and mers DuBose of Hartsville, lard Implement Co. president; Richard deMontmollin of Columbia, vice-president; and Miss Inez Tucker, Thorn- Catherine Ray Blakely; two well supervisor, secretary-treas- brothers, Lee and A. B. (Gus)

Children's Library To Have Story Hour

Summer Story Hour will be- Young of Clinton. gin Saturday morning, June 19. Funeral services were con-The Rev. Edwin William at the Children's Library on the ducted Tuesday at 4:00 p. m. continue each Saturday for sev- Rosemont cemetery. eral weeks during the summer. Pallbearers were Dillard in the Bessemer City, N. C., Mecupy the pulpit for the first The Story Hour will be of inter- Jacks, Edgar Taylor, Jr., B. W. morial Cemetery. brarian, Mrs. James S. Gray, Dick Vaughan and James Addy. tist Church in Gastonia. states. Regular library hours are 2:30 to 5 Monday through Friday and from 8:30 to 12 noon on Saturday.

The Children's Library is a branch of the Laurens County

Brown Honored By C. Broadcasters Unit

Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Brown were guests of the South Caro- day night was rained out. lina Broadcasters Association at Hilton Head June 8-10.

Dr. Brown, who is an honorary member of the Association, has for six years served as chairman of a committee which selects winners of college scholarship rants made by the Association. After he had presented two schol-urday nights.

ponement of three games.

wood, six costly errors enabled ning pitcher. silver serving tray in recogni- relief.

sociation's scholarship program, winning side Wednesday night the Cavalier park at 7:45.

The Clinton American Legion of last week in a game with Joel Whitsel, Clinton's flashy shortstop, hit a home run with Mike Osborne on base to ac-The game scheduled for Mon- count for the first two runs. Mike Norris had two hits, driv-The League Eight defending ing in two runs. Jerry Alexanchampions have played only der, who picthed five innings, two games of the 16-game hit a home run with a mate schedule. Rain has caused post- aboard to add two more runs. Tommy Elrod, a 14-year-old In the opener against Green- frim Whitmire, was the win-

Dendy Breaks Ground

David E. Dendy, principal of Martha Dendy Elementary School, breaks ground for construction of swimming pool under the watchful eyes of (left to right) Ralph Holcombe, president of Anderson

Pool Co.; Jim Von Hollen, chairman of School District 56 Board of Trustees; Mayor J. J. Cornwall; and District 56 Superintendent R. P. Wilder.

Services Tuesday To Construct Swimming For John D. Blakely

John David Blakely, 57, died early Monday morning at a local hospital after a short ill-of Clinton, son of the late A. B. tary School. time co-workers on the campus. and Mamie Addy Blakely, he The pool, the largest in Lau- vide for the latest developments Named as new officers of the attended Clinton ARP Church. ready for use in late summer. alumni association were Chal- He was employed by Pitts-Dil- The modern facility will have through contributions from pri-

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Blakely of Clinton; four sisters, Mrs. J. A. Harker of Atkins; Mrs. H. K. Neely of Columbus, Ga.; Mrs. Bonner Harvley of Greenwood, and Mrs. John T. son, H. M. Kilpatrick, who was Presbyterian College campus, at Gray Funeral Home by Rev. from 10:00 to 11:00 a. m., and Zeb Williams. Burial was in highway.

Pool on School Grounds Construction was begun Friday a 4,500 sq. ft. ell-shaped main morning on a large swimming pool, a kiddy pool, brick bath-A native and lifelong resident pool at Martha Dendy Elemen- houses, and concession stand. Construction specifications pro-

rens County, is exepected to be in pool equipment and design

Former Resident Dies In Gastonia

Mrs. Anna Kilpatrick, 77, died pledged their support to the prorecently at a Gastonia, N. C., gram. hospital after two-year illness. Anderson is the building contra Mrs. Kilpatrick lived with her tor.

manager of the Midway Drive-In Theatre from 1959 to 1963. The Kilpatricks purchased and still own the former R. D. Nance residence on the Clinton-Joanna

Burial was in the family plot

area were assigned to new posts by the presiding bishop at the antime on Sunday, June 27, mov- est to children in the four, five, Crouch, Guy Blakely, Lawrence Mrs. Lucille Warren and nual South Carolina Methodist ing to Clinton several days ear- six year old group and possibly Young, Thornwell Dunlap, Jr., daughter, Susan, of Clinton at- Conference held in Spartanburg some seven years of age, the li- William R. Pitts, Jack Holland, tended services at Calvary Bap- last week.

Rev. A. S. Harvey, of Broad Street Methodist Church, will go to St. Marks Church in Greenville. Succeeding him here will be the Rev. Edwin William Rogers, who comes to Clinton from

The project is being financed vate citizens, business, and industry. David E. Dendy, Martha

Dendy School principal, heads the fund-raising campaign. City officials and civic leaders have

Methodist Pastors

Three Methodist pastors of the Barnwell. Rev. J. R. McAlister of Hopewell-Kinards, goes to the Piedmont Park Church, Greenville. Succeeding him will be Rev. James D. Medley, who comes from the Kentucky Conference.

Rev. Richard Gardner of Lydia-Sandy Springs Churches will go to Ashland-Hebron in the Hartsville District. He will be succeeded by Rev. A. E. Smith, retired supply, of Laurens.

Moving day was set for June the Emeralds to down the Clin- Clinton has two scheduled Rev. James Thomas Miller, arships at the annual association tonians 7-2. Johnny Alexander games next week. On Monday pastor of the Bailey Memorial banquet, the broadcasters pre- had a home run and Johnny they will go to Greenwood, and Methodist Church, will remain sented Dr. Brown an inscribed Rushton did an excellent job in on Tuesday will entertain New- at his current post, having come to Clinton a year ago.

Other Methodist ministers known in the Clinton area, and appearing in the list of transfers, Rev. Hugh Bickley, who formerly served at Joanna and in the Lydia-Sandy Springs post, was moved from Clearwater in the Greenwood District to Bell's Church in the Anderson District. Rev. B. S. Drennan, who served at Bailey Memorial Methodist Church many years ago, went from First Church, Easley, to St. Paul's, Greenville. Rev. Julian Weisner, formerly at Bailey Memorial, to the Bennettsville Circuit. He is a student at Duke University and will do supply work in the North Carolina Conference.

Attend Seminars

Two Presbyterian College professors are attending nars this summer relating to their respective courses taught at the college.

a conference for college teacher of mathematics being he Vanderbilt University. Dr. Ronald Burnside

S. Taylor Martin is attending tending a seminar at the U vresity of Texas, August study of Latin America lems.

Legion Juniors to Meet Laurens Here Fri. and Sat.

Junior baseball team will be Newberry. The score was 7-4. host to Laurens Friday and Sat-tion of his services to the As- The Clinton nine go ton the All home games are played at

riigh School Class Has Keunion

The class of 1949 of Clinton High School held a reunion Saturday at Hotel Mary Musgrove. A coke party for families was held in the morning and a smorgasbord banquet and dance featured the evening session. Harry Bouknight's Collegians furnished the music. Thirty members of the class attended.

In the photo (left to right) are: Front row — Joyce Frady Sheppard, Elaine Franzen Hill, Gladys Barrett Clark, Ann Pitts Martin, Polly Davenport Boyce, Betty Smith Blackmon, Betty Ann Campbell Meadors, Martha Galloway

Franklin, Billie Arnold Campbell, Robbie Stewart Reilly, Mary Ruth Norman Thomas.

Middle row—John Sease, Allen Young, Hub Hunter, Carolyn Young Young, Ann Macdonald Lee, Alva Davenport, Joe Holland, Vestus Wehunt, Herman Nabors. Back row — Charles Oakley, Bobby Meadors, Earl Pitts, Donald Boozer, Mac

Templeton, Charles Kinard, George Cornelson, Billy Stewart. Present but not in picture: Barbara Workman Hellams, Sam Crisp. Teachers

er and Miss Irene Hipp.

attending were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Wild-