PC-Troy State Game Here Saturday Night

Presbyterian's upstart Blue game after a week's rest due to the open date, but Coach Cally Gault doesn't feel this layoff will hurt his team. Co-captain Halfback Don McNeill of Thomson, Ga., will return to action again, adding power to PC's offensive and defensive backfield. Only minor injuries have been reported on the Hose squad.

If Presbyterian can chalk up another victory this week-end it will mark the second year in a row without a defeat at home. The Troy team could prove rugged, however, as the Wave did in 1962 when they clipped a favored PC eleven 13-0. Then in 1963 Presbyterian took a 24-14 upset, and last year the Alabamans won 9-7.

The Troy Red Wave have a streak of their own, but on the losing side. The Alabama squad has lost all six games this year. Coach Bill Clipson's charges are somewhat like the Presbyterians in that they're young — mostly sophomores and freshmen — but they have yet to find an effective defense. The starting line averages 198 pounds per man, more like the Hose forward wall than PC's previous opponents. Presbyterian will enter the

Clinton Merchants Lose, Cash Worthless Checks

Clinton merchants and business houses took a beating Monday morning in cashing checks totaling $231.50—all worthless.

Another one, Young's Pharmacy, also cashed a check for $45 but the money was recovered. Five additional businesses lost $45 each and one lost $6.50 for a total of $231.50, according to Assistant Chief of Police William B. Blakely who headed the investigation.

Warrants were issued for the arrest of Spencer Allison, a man who had been working in the community for several weeks, and who had opened an account with a local bank, depositing $45, but later withdrawn. Police are still searching for Allison.

A resident of North Carolina, Allison came here two weeks ago. Prior to this, local officers state, he had served time in North Carolina and was recently paroled.

When the check was presented to Young's Pharmacy, Manager Davis Pitts told his young stepson, Bubber Ray, who works in the store, to follow the man when he left with the money after making a small purchase, presenting the $45 check. In the meantime, inquiries were made at the bank. Bubber contacted Allison in the vicinity of the post office on North Broad Street, told him the check was worthless and got his money back. Bubber and Pitts didn't know of the other checks at the time.

When police were alerted, Allison had skipped.

New Watershed Area Is Voted By County Landowners

Laurens — Landowners balloting in referendum have approved by a vote of 90 to 3 the formation of Beaverdam Creek-Warrior Creek Conservation District.

The watershed includes some 25,000 acres situated east of Gray Court and Owings and all the area that naturally drains into the two creeks, extending to their confluence with the Enoree River, with some exclusions.

J. W. Tinsley, secretary and treasurer of the Laurens County Soil Conservation District said Thursday he believed the board would determine the watershed administratively feasible and practical, and would certify its findings to the Laurens county clerk of court and the S. C. secretary of state.

After certification, the Watershed Conservation District will constitute a governmental subdivision of the state and a formal application for assistance on the watershed work plan will then be made to Williams L. Harrelson, S. C. commissioner of agriculture.

Tinsley said, "We are hopeful the Soil Conservation Service can start surveys on the area in the early part of 1966."
